How To Get Even More Sales Mileage From Super Acts

From a purely business point of view, super stars mean super sales. Individual artists and groups so designated have made the once vaunted milestone of 1 million copies of an LP sold a matter of course, so much so that we'd hate to be at a sales meeting called to "explain" a super-star LP that's run its course at, let us say, 700,000 copies.

Yet, perhaps the time has come for an exploration of how LP's by the industry's heavies can go far beyond their present sales strength, perhaps half again as much volume. We think this is possible through a reevaluation of the impact of super-star LP's on the market. While it may still hold true that the peak sales life of most LP's may span a period of 90 days, this duration, labels with super-star acts have informed us, is considerably shorter for albums featuring their leading sellers. Excitement and demand for these albums can peak over a 14-day period. The reason seems to be that youngsters want to be the "first on the block" to possess super-star albums and might defer the purchase of one that's released at the same time, but is only available in large quantities at a later date. Columbia Records, for instance, reported that sales of Simon & Garfunkel's "Bridge Over Troubled Water," had reached a remarkable 1.9 million copies sold nine days after the release of the LP. The heart of the matter was Columbia's anticipation of this kind of early volume by initial pressing orders for the LP that the marketplace could absorb over this period.

The super-star, then, deserves super treatment from his label in the manner of getting as much product out there as possible from the very beginning. True, selling a million copies of an album is not, as some in the trade might say, "chopped liver," but the industry shouldn't bask in the glory of new sales milestones when it's been stated time and time again that the potential of record sales in the U.S. alone is nowhere comparable to a market that possesses more than 55 million phonographs, not to mention millions of 8-track and cassette units. Speaking of tape, it's been suggested to us that one of the most efficient ways of combatting rampant tape bootlegging and piracy is for a label to get out as much product as it can as soon as it can (super-star status LP's, at least) so as to have its product reach marketplace saturation before the bogus disk/tape thief can hit the stands with his goods.

To strike a more positive note, however, the industry's super-stars can achieve even greater sales penetration of their wares if their product receives wide exposure over a critical span of a few weeks. Then we may have to refer to these heavies as "super-duper" stars.

Woodstock 'Freedom' Image: Kornfeld-Lang Co.'s

NEW YORK — Aside from the sociological impact of last summer's Woodstock rock fest, its producers, Artie Kornfeld and Michael Lang, can claim a varied show business entity.

Two companies, one largely in the hands of Kornfeld, the other a specialty for Lang, are handling the K-M collaboration. In essence, Kornfeld observes, both units reflect the "freedom of expression" he feels was a hallmark of the Woodstock venture, a "happening" for more than 400,000 kids in upstate New York.

Kornfeld-Lang Adventures, the operation under which fall record, publishing and a soon-to-be-realized ad agency, has made "freedom" a key of its new label setup, Eleuthera Records, the name of which derives from a Bahamas out island that stands for "freedom," since its original settlers sought and supposedly found their version of "freedom" there.

The label, which is being distributed by Buddah, will open shop with a Bert Sommer LP. The vocalist was reportedly the only act to appear at Woodstock not signed to a label. In addition to Sommer, the label has other acts, instrumentalist Buzzy Linhart and His Band, Rachel and Robert Lee, also a Woodstock attraction.

Kornfeld, often describing the "family-like" philosophy of the enterprise, says the K-L units continue the Woodstock teaming in personnel, too. Besides such execs as Charlie Tuna (Kornfeld's exec assistant and head of Eleuthera promo), a number of designers and placement people are also involved in K-L's activities.

Bigger Than Woodstock?

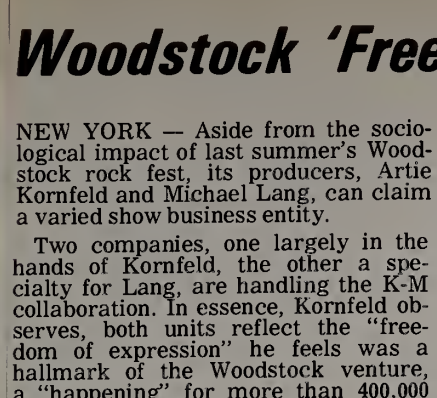
As for Lang, he's running — at a lower Manhattan triplex apart from Kornfeld-Lang Adventures offices at 1650 Broadway — the firm known as Michael Lang-Artie Kornfeld Productions, which concentrates on concerts and film and TV production. Concertwise, Lang (and Kornfeld) have just bowed out as co-producers of the July Toronto rock fest along with John Brower, but Kornfeld promises a European fest this summer that will surpass Woodstock in size and scope. On the film and TV end, several properties have already been acquired, with Kornfeld seeing a finished feature film later this year.

Kornfeld-Lang Adventures runs two publishing firms, Lovelin (BMI) and Jamilin (ASCAP), with Bruce Rothstein, former Beechwood Music exec, in charge. Including Kornfeld, there are 10 writers under contract.

Kornfeld is preparing himself for an "intensive year's work" in putting Eleuthera over. He'll make constant road trips to key markets and travel to California and London, where he expects to setup branch offices.

The future may well include a purchase of the entire Kornfeld-Lang operation by a firm that recently started penetrating the music field.

FRONT COVER:



Diana Ross is a solo act now, having recently ended her professional association with the Supremes. The Motown star's first single on her own is a message-song, "Reach Out & Touch (Somebody's Hand)," which the label is making available with a special sleeve. Also due soon is her first LP as a soloist. Personal appearance-wise, Diana recently performed in Florida, where, incidentally, the Supremes were appearing, too. Each attraction was on hand for the other's opening night press bash. Just last week, Diana performed on the Dinah Shore TV Special.

Dick James U.S. Talent Hunt As Rosner Enters Unit As Mgr.

NEW YORK — Dick James will enter U.S. talent and writer acquisition and development for the first time as a result of a partnership deal that brings Dave Rosner into James' stateside publishing setup as manager of all music and exploitation activities in the U.S. and Canada.

These companies include all songs written by John Lennon and Paul McCartney (Maclen Music, Inc.); the songs of Roger Cook/Roger Greenaway and The Hollies (Maribus Music, Inc.); the Gerry Bron catalogs which include the Juicy Lucy and Colosseum groups, in addition to the Dick James Music Limited catalog, of which the local introduction of English performer/writer Elton John on Uni Records will be a major initial project. Rosner will also act in behalf of all Dick James U.S. recording activities, including the Bell Records' distributed Page One and DJM labels.

Rosner's affiliation also signals James' first venture into the area of U.S. talent and writer acquisition and development via Daramus, Inc. Daramus is Rosner's publishing/production company and, in partnership with Dick James, now becomes a part of the James Group. Started six months ago by Rosner, the company currently directs the writing and recording activities of Margo Guryan (writer of the recent Oliver hit "Sunday Mornin' "); Layng Martine, Jr. (Decca Records); and John Martine (CTI Records), among other new talents.

Rosner will be located in the Dick James offices at 1780 Broadway and will immediately begin supplementing a promo and exploitation organization equipped to service song material and secure air play on a nationwide basis.

Rosner entered the business in 1960 as music director of Newark's WNTA Radio (now WJRZ). In 1962 he joined the sales department of Columbia Records and became Columbia's single records' Product Manager. He transferred within the CBS organization to the April/Blackwood music companies in 1964 and acted as Professional Manager from 1965 through 1968. He left CBS to pursue the formation of his own business with Neil Diamond in the summer of 1968 and established Daramus in the fall of 1969.

Lee Mendell To Fantasy As VP

HOLLYWOOD — Liberty/UA vp Lee Mendell is resigning his post to join the Saul Zaentz Fantasy-Galaxy Oakland-based labels as exec vp, effective May 1, Cash Box has learned.

Currently Mendell's Liberty/UA responsibilities include the international sales division, the overseas companies, Sunset Records, the labels' tape operations and public and consumer relations. He is a member of the firm's operations committee, a member of the Trans-America marketing committee and a member of the Trans-America international committee.

During his eight year tenure with the Liberty complex, he served as west coast district manager, director of Liberty's branches, national LP sales manager and general manager.

He launched Liberty's tape operations in '65 and later held the post of marketing vp.

Born in England, Mendell migrated to Canada in the late fifties to join Capitol Records' branch and then RCA's Canadian distributorship. He arrived on the west coast in '61 as Mercury Records' district manager.

Hodes Eyes Return To Own Pub Setup

NEW YORK — Lennie Hodes has left his position as general manager of Dick James' U.S. and Canada music publishing operation, including Lennon & McCartney's Maclen Music, administered by James in this country. During Hodes' five year tenure with James, the company has had continual, week-by-week representation on the Top 100 singles and album charts. Hodes is mulling several offers, while also considering the reactivation of his own publishing units, Spectorious Music (BMI) and Concertone Songs (ASCAP), on an international level. He'll be leaving for Europe within 10 days to consummate catalog deals, and huddle with indie British producers he represents in the U.S. and Canada. Hodes can be reached at (516) 922-4620.

BMI Reps SICAM In U.S., Canada

NEW YORK — BMI and SICAM, the writer society based in Brazil, have entered an agreement whereby BMI will control and administer the music repertory of SICAM in the U.S., including Puerto Rico, and Canada.

Campbell Forms Production Co.

HOLLYWOOD — Glen Campbell has formed a record production company through his Glenco Productions Co. Campbell produced the company's initial single "The Ballad of J. C." b/w "Untanglin' My Mind," featuring Gordon Terry, who wrote both tunes. Single is being rush-released by Capitol Records. Glenco also is producing arm for Campbell's weekly CBS-TV "Goodtime Hour" series.

Johnny Bond Opens New Philly Label

PHILADELPHIA — Promo vet Johnny Bond has teamed up with Anthony A. Martino to create a new label. The firm, Bond Records, will make its bow April 15. Bond is vp & general manager.

Martino was the founder of AAMCO Transmissions which climbed from 1 million dollars to over 100 million dollars annual gross in a few years.

Bond Records will be introduced to the trade at a bash at Philadelphia's CR Club on April 14. A West Coast affair is scheduled for the end of the month. Bond announced that product will start being released within days after the official opening. First release will be "Freelance" by Home. The group's leaders, Ralph Dino and John Sembello wrote and performed the music for the soundtrack of the movie of the same name. Another talent soon to be released on the Bond Label are Tres Les Femmes.

The Bond headquarters are at 309 South Broad Street in Philadelphia.

Action, DFI Merge

HOLLYWOOD — ATI, formerly Action Talent Agency, has merged with DFI Communications, with offices at 9000 Sunset Blvd. The agency, involved in booking and packaging, is presently in an expansion program of personnel and clients. DFI is a publicly-owned conglomerate.

Nyro Reps Reply To Legal Decision

The following is a reply from representatives of Laura Nyro regarding a story in the March 28 issue of Cash Box:

The March 28 issue of Cash Box contained a most misleading report on the lawsuit between Laura Nyro and Celestial Music. Three contracts were involved on appeals by both parties to the Appellate Division of the New York Supreme Court. On two of them, an exclusive management contract with Celestial and an exclusive recording contract with Milton T. Okun, Inc., the Court affirmed a decision that the singer had properly nullified the contracts. That part of the decision is not mentioned in the Cash Box story. As to the publishing contract, all that was held is that there has to be a trial on the question whether she is bound by it.

The three contracts were signed by Miss Nyro when she was 18 years old, and disaffirmed a year later. The Court held her not bound by the management and recording contracts because they were for a term of five years. As to whether the five-year publishing contract is one that she properly repudiated, the Court held only that the statute on which Miss Nyro relied does not make that contract illegal as a matter of law. A trial will decide whether it was reasonable and provident when made. The trial is not likely to take place for several months. In the meantime, there has been no disposition of the disputed publishing proceeds.

Don England Heads Capitol M'kting

HOLLYWOOD — Don England has joined Capitol Records as vp and general manager of Capitol Records Distributing Corp.

England, headquartering in the Capitol Tower, will report to Sal Iannucci, president of the label. He comes to the label from National Tape Distributors, Inc., the distributor rack firm, where he served as exec vp.

Iannucci said that with the appointment of England as head of marketing, the firm's senior exec group is now complete. England's expertise will be applied immediately to creation of marketing objectives and budgets for fiscal '71, so that this work can be completed in time for presentation to the entire Capitol sales and promotion staff at the label's convention in Hawaii beginning June 4, Iannucci said.

Reporting to England will be CRDC vice president Oris Beucler, special markets; Rocco Catena, merchandising; John Jossey, sales; Reggie Lavong, R&B marketing; and Charlie Nuccio, promotion.

England began his record-industry career in 1947 as a salesman for RCA Victor. Associated with Capitol as a salesman during 1950-52, he returned again to the Capitol sales operation in 1953 after a brief affiliation with Decca. Joining CBS in 1956, he held progressively responsible posts there, culminating in his appointment as vice president of sales, distribution and promo in 1968.

B'nai B'rith Dinner In N. Y. This Thurs.

NEW YORK — The Music and Performing Arts Lodge of B'nai B'rith will hold its sixth annual Installation Dinner this Thursday (9) at the Grand Street Boys Club.

The evening will be highlighted by a keynote address by Rabbi Judah Cahn of the Metropolitan Synagogue of New York, who was a co-author of the Allen Report on the New York school system and he is a member of the Allen Committee on Human Relations.

Cahn is also an Associate Professor at Springfield College, where he is Chairman of the Community Tension Center and he is Faculty Member of the New School for Social Research.

As usual, the special guest entertainer for the evening will remain a surprise, reports, committee chairman Stan Marshall. Heading the slate of officers to be installed are Floyd Glinert, president and David Rothfeld, executive vice president.

Tickets at $7.50 per person are available at the door. However, reservations must be made by contacting Marshall of Elektra Records (JU 2-7711) or Ken Rosenblum of Shorewood Packaging (582-6885).

Grand Street Boys Club is located at 131 West 56th Street. Special discount parking arrangements have been made at the Gem Garage located across the street of the Club. A cocktail hour starts at 6 p.m.

Jerome Bros. Top Musicor A&R Dept

NEW YORK — Bill and Steve Jerome have been appointed administrative directors of the A&R department of Musicor Records. Art Talmadge, president of Musicor, said that in addition to actively producing for Musicor themselves, the Jeromes will supervise other productions for the label, as well as audition new material for other contract artists such as Gene Pitney, George Jones, Inez Foxx and Hugo Winterhalter among others. They will also be responsible for developing new ideas such as the just-released album by The Royal Teens called "Newies But Oldies."

The Jeromes are scheduling a tour of major music centers around the country to look for new talent and masters, in addition to a planned trip to Europe this summer for the same purpose. New writers and producers will be encouraged to submit material and productions for release on Musicor.

The Jeromes will be based at Musicor's home office located at 240 W. 55th St. in New York, and can be contacted by phone at (212) 581-4680.

Portman Exits Zell

HOLLYWOOD — Neil Portman has resigned as vice president of Zell Enterprises International. No future plans have been announced.

TRAVELING — Rock group Gulliver, which hails from Philadelphia, recently made it out to the west coast to sign with Jac Holzman's Elektra label. Having previously done much studio work for TV commercials, they have, as first release, "Everyday's A Lovely Day" which is true to their folk-country-rock style. At the signing are (l. to r.) drummer Jim Helmer, Holzman, producer John Madara, singer/pianist Darryl Hall, bassist/pianst/organist Tom Sellers and singer/guitarist Tim Moore.

Morris & Vanderbilt Start Big Tree Label

NEW YORK — Doug Morris and Dave Vanderbilt have teamed to form Big Tree Records. The New York-based label has signed several artists including Hoagy Lands, soon to release his first album for Big Tree, The Music Explosion and The Tickle, two contemporary rock groups.

Morris, president, and Vanderbilt, secretary-treasurer, said they signed a long-term tape rights agreement with Don Hall, Ampex vice president and general manager of Ampex Stereo Tapes to manufacture and distribute Big Tree product in the United States and Canada.

Both men have worked for Laurie Records — Morris as exec vice president and general manager — and Vanderbilt as national promo director. Morris was also general manager for Robert Mellin publishing company.

"Big Tree is actively seeking today's contemporary rock artists," Morris said. "We will back our artists with total advertising and promotion campaigns."

Big Tree will also distribute for the Critique Records label, a rock music company headquartered in Bath, Maine, and will shortly release "Dance, Dance, Dance" by Sands, a rock group.

Big Tree is located at 1650 Broadway, Suite 901. Telephone is: 581-3890.

Goodman Neptune Rep

NEW YORK — Gamble-Huff has broadened their operation with the addition of George Goodman to their staff as national representative for the Neptune label.

His immediate responibility will be directed toward sales and sales promotion, to strengthen the relationship between Neptune, its distributors and rack-jobbers. Goodman recently served as Southern Region Promotion director for Bell Records.

Cherry Label Formed By Grist Productions

ALEXANDRIA, VA. — H. Franklin Grist, head of Frank Grist Productions and Gristmill Publishing, has started Cherry Record Corp. Initial release on the Cherry label will be The Country Sweethearts with the Tom T. Hall tune, "Hang Them All", Saundra Chovan's "One More Word and I'll Cry" and Lee and Laura Martin with "So Good-bye My Love". Operation is located at 5491 Sanger Ave. in Alexandria.

Bed/Sty Label Formed

NEW YORK — Krass Records has been formed as a community consciousness label by two men from the Bedford-Stuyvesant section of New York. Director Roosevelt Ratcliff and manager Barry Yearwood described their company as a means of community exposure which grew from a series of projects carried off in the area to develop a sense of pride and awareness for the section.

The subject of a WNJR program, Bedford-Stuyvesant and the musical unity works were profiled recently. Krass grew from these endeavors as a means for exposing local talent as performers of material written by members of the community.

Krass is located at 266 Reid Ave. in Brooklyn.

GRT'S Fiscal Half A Strong Gainer

SUNNYVALE, CALIF. — Net revenues of $16,263,358 and after-tax earnings of $811,729 (equal to 33 cents per share of common stock on 2,496,711 average shares outstanding) were reported last week by GRT Corp. for the first six months of the company's 1970 fiscal year, ended Dec. 27, 1969. Assuming conversion of all options and warrants, earnings would be 28 cents per share on 2,922,526 outstanding common shares, options, and warrants.

These results compare with first-half fiscal 1969 net revenues of $5,219,592 and earnings of $364,621 (equal to 20 cents per share on 1,824,628 common shares then outstanding, adjusted for a four-for-one split). Assuming conversion of all options and warrants, earnings per share for that period would have been 16 cents per share on 2,294,373 outstanding common shares, options, and warrants.

Airali To A&M As Promo Head

HOLLYWOOD — Dino Airali is A&M Records' new promotion director, according to Bob Fead, vp. He replaces Jerry Sharell, who has accepted a similar post at Buddah Records.

Originally basing himself in the San Francisco area, he worked as a musician for several years and then became involved in talent booking in the Bay Area. He expanded his role, joining in a four-way partnership which ran four night clubs (three in the Bay Area, one at Lake Tahoe). It was in this capacity that his involvement with the musicians brought him close to the recording field.

In Los Angeles two years ago, Airali met Nick Caroli and Bob Edmundson, of the Tijuana Brass, then forming their own independent production company (Vibration Productions). He subsequently worked as an independent producer and promoter for that organization. In this role, he not only gained an actual working knowledge of promotion from the grass roots level, but he also met and worked with many important promotion people all over the country.

Noting that he considers the promotion organizational structure more than just an array of "individually functioning men", Airali indicates that he plans to have the A&M staff functioning as a unit, with "each man considering me as their 'right arm'."

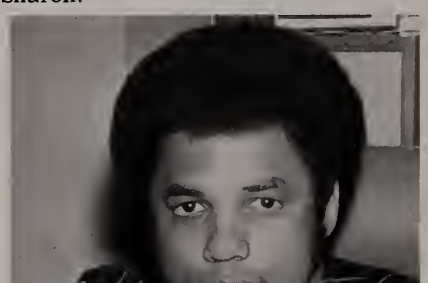
Buddah Reshuffles, Adds Exec Functions; Holmes Named Veep

NEW YORK — Buddah Records, mirroring expansion of creative merchandising, promo and sales activities, has made a major exec realignment.

In addition to the appoinment of Jerry Sharell as director of promotion for the Buddah group of labels (reported exclusively by Cash Box two weeks ago), Cecil Holmes has been promoted to a vp. Presently director of R&B promotion and sales, Holmes will now act as liaison director for all R&B activities on all Buddah distributed labels. The exec has been with Buddah since its inception three years ago, having been named last year as R&B promotion manager of the year by the Bill Gavin awards.

Neil Bogart, vp and general manager of the label, also reports the opening of a Chicago office under Jack Hakim as midwest operations manager. He'll handle sales and promo in the area, in addition to coordinating national promo plans with Sharell.



Cecil Holmes

Complementing Abe Glaser, west coast promo director, and Johnny Lloyd, southern promo director, is Buck Rheingold, who's been promoted to a similar post on the east coast. He joined the label eight months ago as New York promo manager.

All special artist promo will continue to function under Ron Weisner, director of artist relations. Other new appointments include Bill Walsh as east coast field sales manager and Brian Baker, director of new music promo.

Besides its own Buddah and Kama Sutra labels, the operation has an extensive roundup of national distributed labels. Most recently, these include Eleuthera, the Artie Kornfeld-Michael Lang label (see separate story), Symbolic Records, owned by author Harold Robbins, Quincy Jones and Ray Brown, and Sussex Records from Clarence Avant (in last week's story on Sussex, Avant's name was incorrectly spelled).

Dier West Coast Mgr For Command/Probe

NEW YORK — Command/Probe Records has named Charles Dier west coast manager, effective immediately. He was formerly regional sales manager and promotion man for Kapp Records. In his new post he will report to Charles Trepel, national sales manager in New York, and be based in the San Francisco area.

Mogull Acquires Rights To Thirty More Titles

NEW YORK — Ivan Mogull has acquired the non-exclusive rights to 25 titles from the Chappell catalogue and five from Campbell-Connelly, Inc., London. They are to be included in various folios which Mogull is producing for his folio series, which is distributed and sold exclusively by John Haag's West Coast Publications, Inc. Among the titles are "Climb Every Mountain," "Georgy Girl," "My Favorite Things," "People," "The Sound Of Music" and "On A Clear Day."

Milanese Back At Marnel

PHILADELPHIA — Ray Milanese has returned to Marnel Record Distributing to coordinate radio promotion with Alan Lott and the general operation of the company. He returns after a short stay with Universal Distributors.

Schaffer Douglas' Propagandist

NEW YORK — Ken Schaffer has joined Douglas Records as head for conception and penetration with advertising and publicity for consumer, trade and distributor levels, as well as be active in the formulation of new product.

Concentrating heavily on establishing a dialogue with Douglas' new distributors, Pickwick International Productions, Schaffer has set up weekly mailings of underground newspapers most significantly featuring Douglas product in editorial or advertising that week.

Golden Singles To Holman & Sherman; Album For Donovan

NEW YORK — ABC Records' Eddie Holman was awarded a gold single for his hit, "Hey There Lonely Girl." Likewise, Metromedia's Bobby Sherman picked up gold for his single "Easy Come, Easy Go."

This was the first gold award for Holman and the third gold single for Sherman who also has two gold LP's.

"A Gift From A Flower To A Garden," Donovan's two record boxed set that was released in 1968, has been certified gold. The set contained one pop-influenced deck and one devoted to children's music. The singer, on the Epic label, is presently composing new material near London.

A&M's Irving/Almo Signs Pub'g Pact With North American

HIALEAH, FLA — The North American Publishing Corp has finalized an exclusive agreement with A&M Records' Irving and Almo publishing companies. The deal will allow North American to publish and market folios and sheet music for all Irving/Almo material.

This marks the first time that A&M has offered its material on an exclusive basis. Current projects underway at North American include folios of songs from Traffic, Jethro Tull, Jimmy Cliff and Leon Russell.

ANOTHER FAMOUS SIGNATURE — Al Ham (left) signs a contract with Jack Wiedernmann (center), exec vp, and William Gallagher, president of Famous Music, to produce several singles and albums for Paramount Records. First Ham production is a single by the group, Urban Renewal, entitled "I Want To Walk To San Francisco."

Penn To Happy Tiger

MEMPHIS — Songwriter/producer Dan Penn has signed an exclusive recording contract with Happy Tiger Records, reports Dick Peirce, president.

Peirce said Penn's first self-written self-produced disks are scheduled for immediate release and "are truly something unique."

Noted for penning such million sellers as "Denver" and "Cry Like A Baby," Penn recently joined forces with Eddie Braddock in forming Beautiful Productions, Inc. at Memphis Tenn., where he will also do indie producing in their company's newly completed studio for Happy Tiger, as well as for various other labels.

Penn, a Vernon, Ala., native, wrote his first song at 16. Entitled "Is A Blue Bird Blue," it became a near million hit for Conway Twitty. Following high school graduation, Penn moved to Muscle Shoals where he wrote songs for Rick Hall's Fame Music. Teaming up with Spooner Oldham, Penn turned out such hits as "It Tears Me Up," "I Worship The Ground You Walk On," "Same Ole Way," "She Ain't Gonna Do Right," "Are You Never Coming Home" and many others.

Moving to Memphis three years ago Penn began producing The Boxtops including their hit on "The Letter" and their Penn/Oldham hits on "Cry Like A Baby" and "Neon Rainbow." In addition to himself and The Boxtops, Penn's producing credits include the Uniques, Vic Waters and the Entertainers and the Guilloteens.

The Uniques' hits on "Toys Are Made For Children" and "I'm Your Puppet" were Penn/Oldham pennings, while Penn teamed with Chips Moman in writing "Dark End Of The Street."

Other songs bearing his credits include "Sweet Inspiration," "What A Fool I've Been," "Trouble With Sam," "Up Tight Good Woman," "I Met Her In Church" and "Watching The Trains Go By."

Peirce said an extensive promotional campaign will accompany the launching of Penn product.

ALL WARMED UP and already turning out work for Cotillion Records is Paul Leka (seated right), the hot indie producer. His first production, "I Gotta Get Back To Loving You," by The Hollywood Spectrum, was just released. Owner of his own publishing firms and production firm, Leka has turned out more recently, "Na Na Hey Hey, Kiss Him Goodbye" by Steam. With him at his signing with Cotillion are (top l. and r.) Dick Kline, label national sales manager, and Johnny Bienstock, national promo manager, and Jerry Greenberg, label pop promo head.

CoBurt Records Aims At Indie Product

HOLLYWOOD — CoBurt Records, recently formed disk arm of CoBurt Corp., will be releasing approximately ten singles and five LP's within the year and all are expected to come from indie producers. This according to Eddie Ray, exec vp of the music division of the TV production firm headed by Pierre Cossette and Burt Sugarman. CoBurt Corp. and MGM Records are involved in an exclusive joint venture whereby CoBurt Record product will be distributed thru TRC. Records will bear the CoBurt label with an MGM logo. Contract with MGM calls for CoBurt submitting five acts and MGM three and agreement is set for a period of two years. Ray, currently on a tour of distribs in N.Y., Atlanta, Baltimore, Washington, Memphis, New Orleans and Miami will soon be relocating his record label offices to MGM's new space on Sunset Blvd.

Indie producers already set are Tommy Cogbill and Perry Botkin, Jr. Botkin co-produced an album featuring the Mike Curb Congregation, an 18 voice choir described by Ray as "a 1970 version of the Mitch Miller sing-a-long" and Cogbill recently cut a single featuring Angeline Butler ("Keep On Keepin' That Man") aimed at an R&B-pop market. Other acts not yet set with outside producers are Bernie Schwartz and the Wheel and Hansel Terry. Terry, a 21 year black singer, is presently one of the leads in the Doodletown Pipers. Bernie Schwartz and the Wheel is described as a middle of the road folkpop act along the lines of Crosby, Stills, Nash and Young.

CoBurt's ASCAP (House of CoBurt Music Pub. Inc.) and BMI (Coburt Music Inc.) arms are not involved in the MGM pact.

Kaplan Named GM Of Cougar's Disk Div.

CHERRY HILLS, N.J. — Phil Mast, president of Cougar Record Enterprises in Cherry Hill, N.J. has named vet record man Herman Kaplan, as general manager of the record division.

Cougar Records now has under contract new writer/soul-singer Ricky Patterson, vocalist, Mitzi Ross, the United Image, Johnny Jackson, The Lincoln Express, Stacy Scott, Lynn Thomas. Ready for immediate release are "Where Have You Gone" by Patterson, and "Thanks A Lot Honey" by Ross. Scheduled albums for release are Johnny Jackson's "Here's That Rainy Day", and an LP by the Lincoln Express. Cougar is also negotiating production deals with some successful producers who have been associated with Kaplan in the past.

Cougar Records also makes commercials for television and radio. It's now in the process of building a 15,000 square foot studio and offices in Cherry Hill, which will offer a 16 track recording studio and color video tape center.

Kaplan goes back to the early 50's as a distributor-salesman. He worked for Volando Publishing Company in New York City in 1958 as Sales Manager of their Sunbeam record company. In 1960 he joined Cameo-Parkway Records in Philadelphia as Sales and Promotion Director. There he was mainly responsible for sales and promo of Chubby Checker, Bobby Rydell, the Orlons, the Dovells, among others. After leaving Cameo-Parkway Records in 1967, Kaplan started his own firm, Premium Records.

NY Disk Musicians Support NCRA Goal

NEW YORK — At a strategy session on Thursday, March 26, nearly 200 recording musician representatives of AFM local #802 met at the Americana Hotel for a briefing by the National Committee for the Recording Arts president Stan Kenton and national coordinator Doug Neal.

The purpose was to provide the recording musicians with information regarding the facts and disposition of the Williams Amendment to the copyright revision bill. This amendment, presently in the Senate Judiciary Committee for deliberation, will provide royalty payments to performers, musicians, arrangers and record companies each time their records are played anywhere for profit.

Spearheading this segment of local #802 is Gene Orloff, Bernie Glow, Joe Malin, Jules Schachter and Dick Heyman. All in attendance were in complete accord with NCRA strategy and offered their full cooperation, beginning with an extensive letter writing campaign to all Senators and Congressmen urging their support.

As spokesman for the recording musicians, Orloff stated that he was confident that other similar factions in the major recording areas, i.e. L.A., Detroit, Nashville and Chicago, would call their own members together and invite Kenton and Neal for this important industry presentation.

IT'S THEIR THING — The Isley Brothers, (l. to r.) Rudolph, Ronnie and Kelly accept BMI Citations of Achievement for their two million-selling hit "It's You Thing," which was voted among the most performed R&B songs of 1969. The song also brought them a Grammy Award, was in the Top 10 R&B Singles O The Year and their album by that title was named R&B Album Of The Year b the National Association of Television and Radio Announcers. The awards highlighted the activities of the Isley's own one-year-old T-Neck Records label whic sold six million singles and a half a million albums in that time. Other label artists include Judy White, The Brothers Three and The Sweet Cherries.

NMPA Adds 3 Pubs.

NEW YORK — The National Music Publishers Association (NMPA) has admitted three new member publishers to its ranks. Joining hands with more than 50 present members representing 500 publishing firms are United Artists Music, Warner Bros. Music and January Music.

The association has enjoyed nearly a 50% growth in its membership since the close of 1968. It now represents publishing interests in all the key music centers, including Nashville, Memphis, Atlanta, Los Angeles and New York.

Newly enrolled since New Years Day 1969 are Glaser Music and New Keys Music of Nashville, Beckie Music of Memphis, Earl Barton Music of Springfield, Mo. and Lowery Music of Atlanta, in addition to such well-known names as Al Gallico Music, Screen Gems-Columbia Music, Lissauer Music, Fairlane Music, Antigony Music, Ivan Mogul Music and Metromedia Music, among others.

Yew Buys 2 Masters From Lionel Ent.

NEW YORK — Yew Records has purchased two masters from Lionel Entertainment, reports Shy Rakin, the label's exec vp. Tony Ricco produced "Mocking Bird Hill" by Eddie Woods, a new artist; the second master is "Something You're Tryin' To Hide" by the Onyx, a San Francisco group. Deal was made by Frank Mancini on behalf of Lionel Entertainment. Yew has had success with diskings by the Intrigues and the Village Soul Choir, the latter appearing on Yew's Abbott label.

Kaplan Cullen Assoc. Inks Knight, Allan

NEW YORK — Kaplan Cullen Associates Ltd., has signed the writing-producing team of Gary Knight and Gene Allan to an exclusive, long-term agreement. As writers they are signed to Artie Kaplan & Bob Cullen's BMI publishing firm, Golden Egg Music.

As producers, Knight and Allan are currently represented by the medley "Keep-a-Knockin'," "Get Back" and "Etc." by the Blizzard on Metromedia.

In addition to their regular songwriting, both are active in the commercial jingle field. As a writer, Knight has done jingles for Kinney Shoes, Coca-Cola and General Mills. He has also written "Too Many Rules" and "V-a-c-a-t-i-o-n" (recorded by Connie Francis), "Takin' All I Can Get" (Mitch Ryder), "River Is Wide" (Grass Roots) and "Music To My Heart" (the Obsession).

Allan has written jingles for Texaco and Time Magazine. His other credits include "Mr. Lonely" and "Coming Home Soldier" (Bobby Vinton), "Raining In My Sunshine" (Jay & The Americans) and the score for "Billy," the Broadway musical version of Herman Melville's classic "Billy Budd."

The team has also created a musical TV series called "A Face To The Wind" which has been optioned by ABC. The pilot is scheduled to be shot this summer, with songs and score by Knight and Allan, produced by Palomar Pictures Productions.

Orbison Single On 'Zabriske' Prints

NEW YORK — The new Roy Orbison single on MGM, "So Young (Love Theme From 'Zabriske Point')," has been added to the end of all prints of the MGM film "Zabriske Point" to play over the final credits. The tie-in of the film-record idea was worked out by Mike Curb, vp of MGM, Inc. and president of MGM Records.

The Orbison single will be included in all window displays promoting the film soundtrack album. The song was introduced on the Johnny Cash ABC-TV show last week.

PUTTING THEIR HANDS TOGETHER for "Applause" are audiences whose enthusiasm for that Broadway show which opened last week caused it to bring in Tony Award nominations in ten categories for musicals and two in the supporting actress category. At the opening of the show that stars Lauren Bacall were ASCAP president Stanley Adams (second left) and his wife, Charles Strouse (second right) and Lee Adams (left) who wrote the words and music to the book by Betty Comden and Adolph Green, also ASCAP members.

Viva Music Pub Runs 'Viva Music' Campaign

HOLLYWOOD — Viva Music Publishing has taken the theme for their spring campaign in publishing from their own logo, "Viva Music." Viva is the publishing arm of Snuff Garrett Productions.

The organization has 2,500 tunes in its catalogue such as Mark Lindsay's new Columbia single, "Miss America," which was penned by Viva writer Jim Kelly. Another Viva writer, John Cale, wrote "After Midnight" for Eric Clapton and his forthcoming Atlantic album. Other material goes to such artists as Al Hirt, Jerry Fuller, Gary Puckett, Dewayne Blackwell, John Wilkinson Blackwell and Possum.

April, Ferrante & Teicher Month At U A

NEW YORK — United Artists has set April as Ferrante & Teicher month.

The promotions are being tied to the release of a new album by the piano duo titled "Get Together" and includes their current single. "Lay, Lady, Lay" and the theme from "Z." Their last two albums, "Midnight Cowboy" and "Tenth Anniversary Of Golden Piano Hits," were chart items.

Major radio stations have been solicited to participate in giveaway contests with a catalog of F&T albums and/or tapes as prizes. In addition to the contest announcements by participating stations, extensive consumer advertising will be employed along with in-store display material and merchandising aids.

A second promotion is underway in eleven major markets in conjunction with Baldwin Piano, the preferred instrument used by the duo in all of their recordings and personal appearances. The Baldwin promotion will also utilize participating radio stations and consumer newspaper advertising. Coupons and ballot boxes will be available in record stores and Baldwin showrooms in the eleven market areas. Ballots will be forwarded to the participating station where a drawing will be held with the winners receiving a free piano and stool (Baldwin model #930). Streamers and other materials will herald the contest and Ferrante and Teicher will participate in taped interviews with the sponsoring stations.

Monument Rights To Argentina Triplets

HOLLYWOOD — Monument Records has obtained the rights to Argentia's nine-year old girls known in their home country as Las Trillizas de Oro and to be identified in the U.S. as the Golden Triplets. Negotiations were concluded between Fermata's Mauricio Brenner of Buenos Aires and Monument's vice-president and director of the label's International Division, Bobby Weiss.

As a result of his recent visit to Buenos Aires, Weiss was impressed with the possibilities of the girls and this was later solidified with various records of the girls entering the Argentina best-sellers including "Carta a Los Astronautas" (Letter to the Astronauts), a composition of Palito Ortega and Ben Molar. With their record production in the hands of Ben Molar plus special and exclusive songs written for them by the top Argentina songwriting team of Ortega and Molar, the girls began their climb to fame last year. They have just finished their first color motion picture as the stars of "Un Elefante Color Illusion" for producer Carlos Cura featuring the songs of Ortega and Molar. They are also starring in their own weekly TV series on Channel 13 currently.

Monument will launch their first LP via their distributor in Puerto Rico, CSI, within the next four weeks and plans are underway for the Golden Triplets to come to the U.S. later this year for appearances and TV guestings, including special p.a.'s in Puerto Rico. Monument secured world rights, excluding South America, to the Spanish language recordings of the Golden Triplets.

Creative Workshop Due In Music City

NASHVILLE — A new concept in sound studios will be unveiled this Spring with the completion of Creative Workshop, Inc. The building, now under construction in a new commercial district at Berry Hill, will house the Bobby Russell-Buzz Cason publishing companies, their production companies, Elf Records, and a new recording studio featuring a unique design.

The Creative Workshop will be one of the few places in the nation where a new talent can be published, produced, recorded, and finished for release under one roof. The studio features a video monitoring system as well as the usual audio facilities and should be ready for recording sessions by May 1.

The Russell-Cason companies have already scored with such hits as "Honey," "Everlasting Love," "Little Green Apples" among others.

Ship Moore Album To NewYork Area

NEW YORK — Mercury Records has shipped an unprecedented amount of Melba Moore's first LP, "Living To Give", into the New York area. The anticipated high level of sales is traceable to Miss Moore's nomination for the coveted Tony Award. The nominations were announced placing her in contention for the Best Supporting Actress in a musical. Miss Moore recently cut the title song. "Purlie", which, was released this week on Mercury Records.

Chess To Dome In N.Y.

NEW YORK — Dome Distributors, Inc. has taken on full distribution of all Chess product in the New York area including the Chess, Checker, Cadet/Concept, Neptune, Head and Pumpkin labels. Previously Dome had handled only Neptune product for Chess.

Janus Flies With Eagle Promo Shirts

NEW YORK — "Janus Records Gives You The Shirt Off Its Back" is the theme of a major promotion being launched to introduce Eagle, a new group on Janus. Eagle shirts are being offered to Janus promotion men in 22 markets across the country.

Spurred by the success of "Kickin' It Back To You" by Eagle in the Boston area, Janus is giving away Eagle shirts to promo men who secure airplay of the Eagle record on specified radio stations in their areas. Eagle, who are produced by Wes Farrell, have just released their first Janus album, "Come Under Nancy's Tent."

$50,000 Promo Set For A.F.'s P.J.'s

NEW YORK — The PJ's, new group on Audio Fidelity, have recorded "Did You Give The World Some Love Today, Babe?" which will be launched with a $50,000 ads-promo campaign.

Audio Fidelity is introducing a "more than double your profits" program for the retailers whereby the company will give a free record to the dealer for every record he buys—for the life of the record. Also, every salesman throughout the country representing an Audio Fidelity distributor will receive a cash bonus for every store that carries the record and for every sold.

Audio Fidelity has also contracted for the services of six independent record promotion firms around the country to publicize and promote the disk in all areas, and The PJ's have been set for guest appearances on several TV shows.

Liberty Releasing Eurovision Single

NEW YORK — Liberty Records has scheduled an early April release in the United States for Katja Ebstein's "No More Love For Me", third place winner in this year's Grand Prix Eurovision de la Chanson in Amsterdam.

Miss Ebstein's recording, "Wunder Gibt Es Immer Wieder" on Liberty Records (Germany) was that country's official entry in the annual competition for best new song at the Eurovision competition. English lyrics were written by Barry Mason and Sylvan Whittingham.

The English language version features the orchestration of Christian Bruhn, responsible for the original German arrangement and one of the song's composers. Katja has also cut French and Spanish versions of the song.

Uni and USO Team On Cosby Single

HOLLYWOOD — Bill Cosby's spoken word recording, "Grover Hensen Feels Forgotten," has been released on Uni and USO (United Service Organizations) is using it as the central theme in the solicitation of mail for our soldiers in Vietnam.

Breaking away from comedy on this disk, Cosby narrates the Christian Wilde piece which is a lament from a lonely soldier who feels he has been forgotten.

Uni's agreement with USO calls for the label's production of several Bill Cosby "Mail Call" spots, pressed in large quantities. Label's address is designated on the spots as well as in printed media advertising. To facilitate anticipated large amounts of letters for "Grover," Uni is setting up a staff of junior volunteers to bundle and address bulk mail packages to overseas USO's. Label is picking up entire postage tab.

ERIC BURDON DECLARES "WAR"

Freeway 91 To Open in Early July

Freeway 91 from Bloomfied Avenue to Beach Boulevard is expected to be open to traffic by early July, according to a spokesman for the State Division of Highways.

A dedication ceremony will be held to mark the opening with the cities of Cerritos, La Palma and Buena Park participating. However, no date has been set.

The segment from Beach Boulevard to the Santa Ana Freeway is expected to be open early in 1970.

CJC Student Wins Award For Editorial

"Best editorial writer of the year" among junior college journalists in California is the title earned by Craig Turner of Cypress Junior College as a result of competitive ratings announced at the University of Southern California journalism program.

Turner, who served as fall semester editor of the CJC campus "Hoofbeat" is presently a special assignment writer on the staff. He is a sophomore journalism major who plans a career in news reporting and editing. He is also a graduate of Loara High School in Anaheim.

His award came in one of only four writing categories included in the USC competition, and was based on an editorial previously printed in the campus newspaper. Content of his award winning effort had to do with the issue of the establishment of a chapter of Students for a Democratic Society on the Cypress campus.

Turner and eight of his campus staff associates participated in the Saturday program of panels and speakers when the awards were presented. Other CJC delegates were Linda Seifert, Janet Downs, Patti Ricciardi, George Behnke, Glenn Knight, Louis Pena, John Schofield, and Phil Mountz. They were accompanied by faculty adviser Terry F. Tinyre.

This is the second consecutive year the Cypress has been represented in the winner's circle at the USC competition. Last year Stan Oftelie, a Kennedy High School graduate and also past editor of the "Hoofbeat," won a second place writing award.

Students Compete For Scholarships

Opening the competition for 29 college scholarships totaling $10,000 to be awarded by Retail Clerks Union Local 324, AFL-CIO, more than 200 students took a comprehensive examination at the union's auditorium in Buena Park on Saturday morning, February 22.

According to Arthur Z. Berland, secretary - treasurer of the 14,700-member local union, the scholarship program is now in its eighth year, with interest among members greater than ever before.

"All of us recognize the rising costs of higher education," Berland said, "and Local 324 is particularly happy to be able to provide financial assistance to deserving students among our members and their families."

During the past seven years, Local 324 has awarded $57,500 to 165 students. Eligible to compete for the scholarships, which range from $250 to $750 each and three grants for study at graduate level, are the union's members and their sons, daughters, or spouse.

Local 324 members work in supermarkets, drug, discount and other retail stores throughout Orange County and the southeast area of Los Angeles, including Long Beach. In past years, a large percentage of scholarship winners have been box boys who are members of Local 324, Berland said.

On the basis of test scores, a group of finalists will be selected by an independent scholarship committee composed of leading citizens of the community. Those selected will appear later for personal interview, with grade transcripts, recommendations, and other data for review by the committee.

Awards for 1969 will include three of $750, five of $500, and 21 of $250 each. Names of winner in the competition will be announced in May, Berland said.

Many Activities At Convention Center

This coming week a varied number of events have been booked into the Anaheim Convention Center.

Fourteen guilds throughout the county supporting the Children's Hospital of Orange County are staging a fashion show and luncheon today at noon in the Convention Center's Anaheim Room. Eight hundred guests are expected to attend. The fashion show is being staged through courtesy of J.W. Robinson Company. Miss Joan Voelzke of Yorba Linda is general chairman of the event.

Wednesday evening, the North American Aviation Management Club is staging a dinner in the Anaheim Room.

Nearly one million such mini-comic "Kite Fun and Safety" books are offered to primary grade schools each year at this time, according to Robert L. White, Edison district manager.

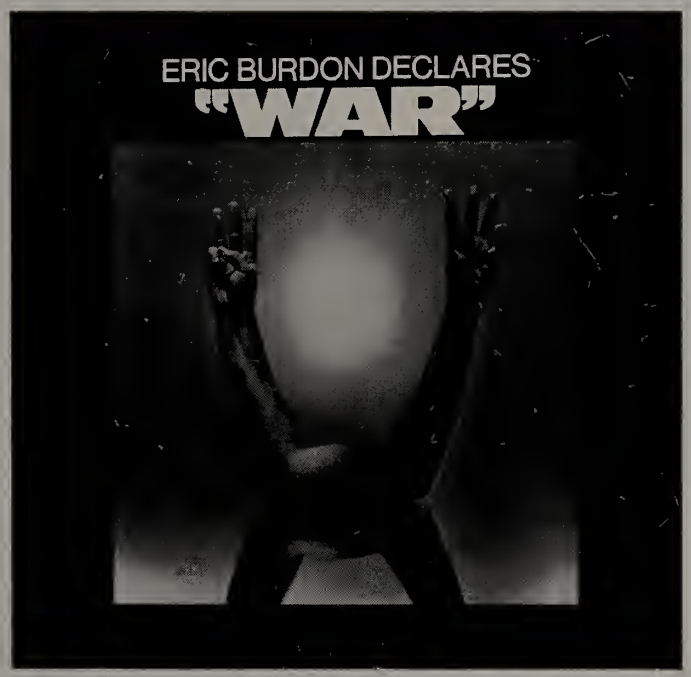
The Orange County School Office has delivered 220,000 kite fun books to schools in Orange County.

In addition to a color comic sequence on kite flying, this year's kite fun book gives youngsters six basic

Secretaries for county city managers and the Board of Supervisors will hold a luncheon Thursday noon in the Huntington Beach Room.

Four hundred guests are expected to attend the dinner-dance staged Friday evening by the Anaheim Angels Chapter of American Business Women's Association. This is the organization's annual Valentine Ball with proceeds earmarked for the group's scholarship fund. Mrs. Herbert Tyner of Santa Ana is chapter president. Co-chairmen for the ball are Ann Engdahl and Helen Sweet of Fullerton.

The North Orange Council, Inc. of Boy Scouts of America are expecting 400 guests Saturday evening to its recognition dinner in the Anaheim Room. Unit leaders and volunteers will be honored and the Silver Beaver Award, highest award a local guild can present to a volunteer, will be bestowed upon five outstanding scouting volunteers. William McGarvey, Fullerton realtor, is chairman and master of ceremonies.



Obedience Class Set For Cypress

Dog obedience classes for beginners will begin April 14 at 7:15 p.m. in Cypress Park at Crescent and Watson in Cypress.

These classes are co-sponsored by the Golden West Obedience Club and Cypress Park and Recreation District in order to provide an inexpensive training class where dog owners may learn how to obtain positive control over their dogs.

All dogs in class must have their rabies shots and be approximately six months or older.

This course of nine meetings including graduation covers heeling, sit, down and stand, stay and come when called on the first command. Individual problems are discussed during class. Further information may be obtained by calling 439-7026 or 828-2200.

In case of very large classes, the course will be extended one week.

CATALINA TO BE MOVED 10 MILES EAST

Mothers of Twins Meet

The Northern Orange County Mothers of Twins Club will hold its monthly meeting at the Glendale Federal Savings and Loan Building, 320 North Harbor, Fullerton at 8 p.m. January 14.

The special speaker of the evening will be Vic Knight, assistant superintendent of schools in Placentia.

The club had extra projects during the past month. They gave 300 Christmas stockings with candy and toys to Orange County Childrens Hospital in Orange. Each member brought to the Christmas party a special wrapped gift to go under a tree to be presented to an elderly ladies' home.

They are now working on plans for the annual fashion show to be held in May.

The club is open to all mothers of twins.

Information is available from Mrs. Jim Wyatt at 635-0148.

Travelers Warned Of Snow Hazards

A warning has been issued to skiers, mntprists, vacationers and travelers in mountain areas of the Southland to beware of unusually hazardous conditions at higher elevations created by record-breaking snow levels, heavy rains and high winds associated with the recent storm.

Southern California Edison Company said snow is piled so deep in some areas that it almost reaches energized high-voltage electric power lines.

"Some of our power lines may even be partially buried by the record snowfall," an Edison spokesman said.

The record breaking rainfall and strong winds in some areas have toppled facilities, bringing energized conductors precariously close to the ground.

"People traveling, vacationing or working in mountain regions should remember that any wire found close to the ground is potentially dangerous and should be avoided," the Edison executive said.

He urged mountaingoers to maintain a safe distance of at least ten feet from any energized facilities.

"We advise extreme caution and urge everyone to remain within supervised recreational areas in the mountains whenever possible," he said. "While the utilities are making every effort to repair damage promptly and restore electric service disrupted by the storm," the Edison spokesman said, "it may take some time to finish the job, particularly in remote, hard-to-reach areas. Until service is back to normal, or the huge snow drifts melt down to more normal depths, all mountaingoers should be especially careful," he said.

"We urgently request the full cooperation of the public in order to avoid serious accidents," he said.

Recent snow depths in mountain areas served by Edison have included 46 inches at Big Creek, 161 inches at Huntington Lake, 167 inches at Rush Creek and 200 inches at Badger Flats.

"These measurements are, of course, at relatively even levels," the Edison spokesman said. "The snow drifts nearly covering some of our power lines in certain areas are piled as high as 30 feet deep or more."

1959 1969

ALL HANDS ON DECK — Stax decks, that is, as Issac Hayes (center,) Rev. Jesse Jackson (right) and Al Bell, exec veep of Stax Records, get together to discuss newly released product by them. Hayes' LP, "The Issac Hayes Movement," is the follow-up to his gold album of last year. Jackson, national director of SCLC's Operation Breadbasket, is recording a series of albums on Respect Records, a new Stax subsidiary. "I Am Somebody," his first LP, has just been released.

Mercury Inks Groups; New Blue Mink Single

NEW YORK — Mercury records has signed two groups, "The Little Organization" and "Giant." The former is a New York based trio which will release their first single within the next two months. "Giant" is a nine piece group, which was formerly known as "The Soul Company." They have begun working on their first LP which is due for release in the near future.

Mercury also announced that "Blue Mink," the English group has released a second single on the Philips label. The tune, "Can You Feel It, Baby" follows the group's first album, "Melting Pot." A new album is currently in the works, with a spring release planned.

The success of two Moog LPs by the Electronic Concept Orchestra has prompted Mercury to begin work on a third set devoted to tunes from contemporary motion pictures.

Staff A&R Director Robin McBride, who put together the earlier "Moog Groove" and "Electric Love". LPs by the Electronic Concept Orchestra, is also providing direction on the new album.

Songs to be included come from such films as "Midnight Cowboy", "Z", "John and Mary", "The Sterile Cucukoo", and "The Happy Ending". Arrangements are being done by Bob Schiff and pianist Eddie Higgins.

Farrell Opens In Ohio, Jingles Div. Active

NEW YORK — Wes Farrell has set up a division of his record production music-publishing and commercials complex in Columbus, Ohio. The Wes Farrell Organization offices will be under the direction of Bob Harrington, director of national promotion, who discovered and signed Owen B. who was recently on the chart with "Mississippi Mama."

Also, heavy activity has been cited by Farrell from his radio and television commercials division, under the direction of Steve Bedell. Within the past week alone three major jingles have been commissioned for accounts of Doyle, Dane, Bernbach for Lever Bros.; Young & Rubicam for N.Y. Telephone, and Grey Advertising for the new Canada Dry soft drink, Purple Passion.

French Pastry Do Session For UA

NEW YORK — The United Artists three-girl singing group, French Pastry, has completed their first recording session with producer George Butler. The single is due for release in the near future.

The group is composed of Anne, June and May Berke, from Flushing, N.Y. and they do all their own arrangements.

GRINDING AHEAD is the new Vanguard country/rock group, Grinder's Switch, which is being pushed by a national promo campaign by the label on the release of its first LP, "Grinder's Switch." Pictured are (l. to r.) Marty Thau, vp of Inherit Productions; Garland Jeffreys, lead singer and writer of all the group's material; Lew Merenstein of Inherit, producer of the album, and Herb Corsack, national sales and promo director for Vanguard.

Picks of the Week

GLEN CAMPBELL (Capitol 2787)
Oh Happy Day (3:35) (United Artists, ASCAP — Hawkins)
From the gold award Edwin Hawkins Singers' performance, "Oh Happy Day" dawns again in this slightly softened Glen Campbell performance. Imbued with a touch of easy listening gloss, the spiritual becomes a multi-market prospect that is already starting to happen. Flip: "Someone Above" (3:20) (Glen Campbell, BMI — Sandersier, Faragher)

MARVIN GAYE & TAMMI TERRELL (Tamla 54192)
California Soul (2:46) (Jobete, BMI — Ashford, Simpson)
Mr. G and the late Tammi turn on a flame with this rendering of the Fifth Dimension's while-ago hit. Side glimmers with the special touch of a motor-city arrangement and the vocal fuel ignited by this splendid team. Ready for breakaway in pop and blues marketplaces. Flip: "The Onion Song" (2:55) (Same credits) Brotherhood message with the rhythmic familiarity of past Marvin-Tammi hits on this flip side could make the effort a two-sided hit.

DIONNE WARWICK (Scepter 12276)
Let Me Go to Him (3:25) (Blue Seas/Jac, ASCAP — Bacharach, David)
Familiar disconcerting Bacharach approach to balladry is uniquely expounded by prime disciple Dionne in a powerful tour-de-force. The startling changes of in melody and tempo prove a challenge that should intrigue listeners across the board. Flip: None provided.

THE 5TH DIMENSION (Bell 880)
Puppet Man (2:58) (Screen Gems/Columbia, BMI — Sedaka, Greenfield)
Following their "Declaration" debut on Bell, the 5th Dimension gets back into rhythmic swing with a driving brass and blues-guitar backup that splashes the quintet's "Puppet Man" with exciting top forty verve. Terrific sound for powerful sales action. Flip: No info included.

THE WHO (Decca 32670)
The Seeker (3:12) (Track, BMI — Townshend)
First new material since the introduction of "Tommy" and their two singles therefrom, this side shows the Who still operating with blistering instrumental thrust, but turning to lyrics more meaningful than before. AM and FM food for thought and play. Flip: "Here for More" (2:23) (Track, BMI — Daltry)

JOE SIMON (Sound Stage 7 2656)
Farther On Down the Road (3:05) (Blackwood, BMI—Majal)
Not since "The Chokin' Kind" has Joe Simon sounded this mighty. Matching his talent to the pulsing material from FM-blues figure Taj Mahal, Simon comes across with a terrific dance or listen-to side that should see explosive sales

R.B. GREAVES (Atco 6745)
Fire & Rain (3:32) (Country Road/Blackwood, BMI — Taylor)
Material from the James Taylor collection and delivery that is R.B. Greaves' own make this third side from Greaves a tempting across the board choice. Side is a strong ballad with total teen market power. Flip: No info included.

JOE COCKER (A&M 1174)
The Letter (4:10) (Earl Barton, BMI — Thompson)
Extended, weighted rendering of the first Box Tops hit adds Joe Cocker's underground-blues spice to the teen material giving it a power for comeback singles energy. Bright find for come-back activity from "She Came in Through the Bathroom Window." Explosive top forty effort. Flip: "Space Captain" (4:01) (Skyhill, BMI — Moore) Moon-man Moore's more sophistic FM approach on this end.

THE INTRIGUES (Yew 1007)
Just a Little Bit More (2:45) (Assorted, BMI — Aikens, Drayton, Bellmon, Turner)
Stunning arrangements and a fine performance by the Intrigues showcase a gem of blues market balladry on the group's latest effort. With one solid hit to their credit, the Intrigues score again with the side that should establish their reputation as chart regulars. Flip: "Let's Dance" (2:35) (Odom/Neiburg, BMI — Brown)

THE ISLEY BROTHERS (T Neck 919)
If He Can, You Can (3:08) (Triple Three, BMI — R,O & R Isley, Brantly)
Stepping away from their wearing "It's Your Thing" mold, the Isleys come out with a shake-up change-of-pace single that should turn heads around in the blues and pop markets. Flashy instrumental touches and a vibrant vocal give the trio a solid item this time out. Flip: "Holdin' On" (2:32) (Triple Three, BMI — R,O & R Isley)

VIC DANA (Liberty 56163)
Red Red Wine (3:10) (Tallyrand, BMI — Diamond)
An oldie from the Neil Diamond catalog, "Red Red Wine" comes on in a third-time round offering. The original, having been followed by a rocked up rendering, is turned to for patterning as a ballad with some excellent results here. Flip: "Another Dream Shot Down" (2:20) (Great Dane, BMI — Dana)

ARTHUR CONLEY (Atco 6747)
God Bless (3:00) (No Exit/Jerry Williams, BMI — Williams, Jr.)
Highly unusual ballad with a flavor of "Scarlet Ribbons" and "Little Green Apples" rolled into one. Attractively handled by Arthur Conley, the material carries a natural impact bound to excite considerable exposure among teens and adults. Flip: No info included.

Picks of the Week

BROOK BENTON (Cotillion 44072)
My Way (3:34) (Spanka/Don, BMI — Anka, Rivaux, Francois)
As close to standard as any song of the past few years, "My Way" reappears in a light completely dissimilar to its earlier Sinatra rendering. Fine follower for "Rainy Night in Georgia" shows Brook Benton in his new guise as a top forty performer all over again. Flip: No info.

LULU (Atco 6749)
Hum a Song (From Your Heart) (2:42) (Walden/Crealey, ASCAP — Ross)
Backed by a solid instrumental group, Lulu continues to build on her new-found image with this latest. Stepping up the tempo with a dance track, Lulu cements her position with the teen top forty crowd and could even see a touch of R&B exposure. Flip: No info.

GARY (U.S.) BONDS (Sue 17)
One Broken Heart (Jerry Williams/Mozella, BMI — Williams, Jr., Bonds, Milit)
Into a whole new sound, and working with a more polished support on this effort, Gary U.S. Bonds rebounds into the contemporary picture with an outing that has the power to explode with teen listeners on the rock and blues market scenes. Dynamite with a lighted fuse. Flip: "I Can't Use You in My Business" (2:48) (Jerry Williams/Mozella, BMI — Williams, Jr. Bonds)

ARCHIE BELL & THE DRELLS (Atlantic 2721)
Don't Let the Music Slip Away (2:15) (Assorted, BMI — Gamble, Huff, Hippie)
Easing out of the dance-along only drive that brought Archie Bell and company to flower, the team gently heads toward less rhythm-prone material on the newest. Steeped in the Gamble-Huff sound stew, this gives Bell/Drell fans something new to ponder. Flip: "Houston Texas" (2:22) (W.W. III/Downstairs, BMI)

JOHN SEBASTIAN (Reprise 0902)
Magical Connection (2:40) (Faithful Virtue, BMI — Sebastian)
The current darling of the LP oriented youth, John Sebastian has successfully outgrown his "former-Spoonful" reputation to emerge as a soloist in his own right. Now, with a marvel of soft material, the man should see strong singles activity as well. Flip: "Fa-Fana-Fa" (2:35) (Same credits)

Newcomer Picks

THE MASH (Columbia 45130)
Suicide is Painless (2:53) (20th Century, ASCAP — Altman, Mandel)
The major musical piece from "M*A*S*H," this wildly worded ballad comes up with its second release on single. Highlighting the vocal attraction of this team, the newer "Suicide" should make up any lost ground in the teen and MOR areas. Flip: No info.

PEARLY GATE (Decca 32663)
Daisey (2:05) (Sound Is Now, BMI — Garrett)
Straight-ahead teen offering with no pretension but plenty of teen entertainment punch. Side's drive and group's attractive sound should prove a powerful factor in spurring widespread top forty notice. Team almost came through before, and should click this time. Flip: "What Do You Hear from Your Head" (2:18) (Sound Is Now, BMI — Rome, Walsh)

IVY JO (V.I.P. 25055)
I Remember When (Dedicated to Beverly) (3:30) (Jobete, BMI — Hunter)
Unlike the motor-city material, this V.I.P. offering reaches out with scintillating softness as a backdrop to Ivy Jo's brilliant vocal. Exceptional material, a shining production and power-packed performance provide the makings for a breakaway side in top forty & R&B markets. Flip: No info.

Choice Programming

Choice Programming selections are singles which, in the opinion of our reviewing staff, are deserving of special programmer consideration.

BLUE MINK (Philips 40672)
Can You Feel It Baby (3:02) (Maribus, BMI — Cook, Greenaway) Coming back from a bit of action with "Melting Pot," Blue Mink takes a gentler course on a ballad with terrific teen potential. Flip: No info included.

STEVE & EYDIE (RCA 0334)
Soul & Inspiration (3:05) (Screen Gems/Columbia, BMI — Mann, Weil) The Righteous Brothers' oldie is brought into a new vein in this eased ballad handling from Steve & Eydie. Flip: "Now I Love the World Again" (2:23) (Geo. Pincus, ASCAP — Carr, Ahlert) More suitable material for S&E admirers.

JOHN ROWLES (Kapp 2081)
Time For Love (3:05) (Cents & Pence, BMI — Lambert, Potter) Pleasant material is elevated by the vocal impact that has kept John Rowles in the British spotlight. Could gain the impetus to crash into the U.S. teen/MOR winner's ranks. Flip: "What Greater Love" (2:41) (Razzle Dazzle, BMI — Randazzo, Pike, Adams)

GREAT JONES (Tonsil 0001)
I'll Keep It With Mine (3:07) (Warner Bros., ASCAP — Dylan) Vintage Dylan material and a strong new group's teen approach should activate top forty audiences. As Dylan also said, "something is happening . . . Mr. Jones." Flip: "My Lovin' Woman" (4:33) (Lois Holland Callaway, ASCAP —Traynor) Tonsil, 1700 Broadway, N.Y.C.

THE SWORDSMEN (RCA 0337)
Something (2:51) (Harrisongs, BMI — Harrison) Beatles' hit is turned into an R&B venture with impact to tap this untouched area. Very fine lead vocal to carry the transition off. Flip: "Shoo-Be-Do-Di-Da"

THE ROYAL TEENS (Musicor 1398)
Smile A Little Smile For Me (2:39) (January, BMI — MacAulay, Stephens) In the Diamonds' old "Little Darlin' " framework, the Flying Machine's hit is turned into a novelty cutie. Could gain off-the-wall activity. Flip: "Hey Jude" (5:20) (Maclen, BMI — Lennon, McCartney)

Dear NARM,

Mother thanks you.
Father thanks you.
Enterprise thanks you.
Stax thanks you.
And I thank you for the Best Selling Jazz Artist Award.

ISAAC HAYES

P.S. "The Isaac Hayes Movement" ENS-1010 will also thank you.

The legend becomes the reality.
JAMES TAYLOR
One of the superb artists and writers of our time.

"He is somewhere in there with the other performer-songwriters who are singularly themselves: Joni Mitchell, Neil Young, Leonard Cohen, Judy Collins, Randy Newman, Fred Neil, and sure, Dylan."

—Liza Williams, Los Angeles Free Press

"I'm ordinarily cautious about using superlatives, but I'm convinced (as I'm listening to him) that Taylor is one of the two or three best rock singers I've ever heard. . . . His mastery of every aspect of his songs, including that haunting stream of freestyle poetry, is uncanny. James Taylor is a self-contained genius."

—Bud Scoppa, Rock Magazine

"Those people spilling off the curb into MacDougal St. last Saturday noon weren't there to watch the eclipse. Not until May 1, 2079 will New York be able to see the moon darken the sun again, but those people standing in MacDougal St. had come to witness an event of obviously greater magnitude. James Taylor was making his only appearance of the year at the Gaslight, and they were waiting to buy tickets. . . . Is James Taylor going to be the next public phenomenon?"

—Alfred G. Aronowitz, New York Post

"The people who were at the Gaslight last weekend; the ones standing in the cold; the same ones who yelled every time someone from the working press walked in front of the line into the Gaslight to wait in the warm innards of the club for the preceding show to end; these people are the cognoscenti. They can smell a legend going to happen almost as soon as the first copies of his debut album reach the stores. This crowd quality should be obvious to anyone in the press. It was all over MacDougal Street last weekend; the crowd, the "knowing" crowd, had really gotten James Taylor's scent."

—Cash Box Magazine/Insight & Sound

"There are many new and talented writer/artists around, but James Taylor is the one with 'public acclaim' spelled out all over him."

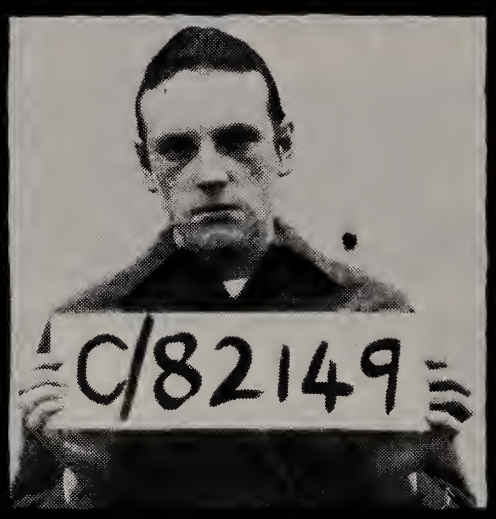
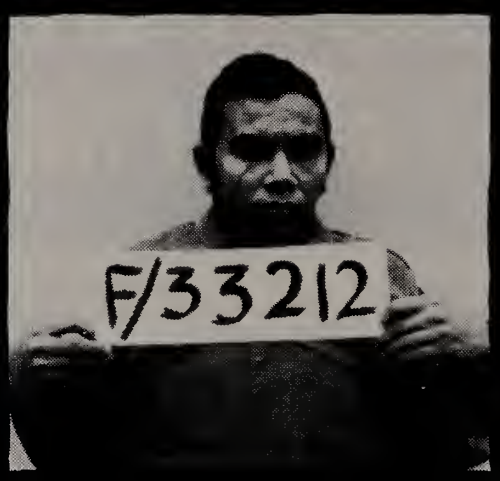
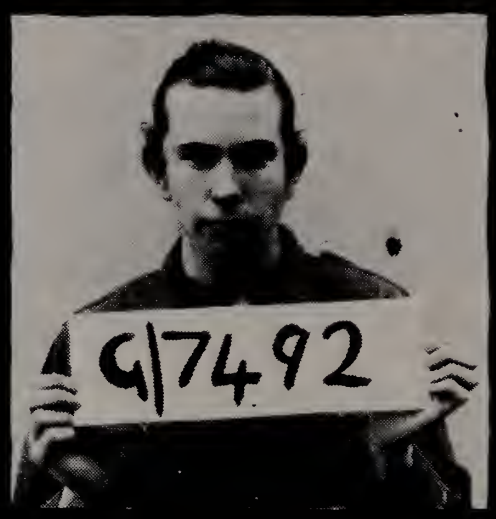
Introducing FRESH.



ROGER CHANTLER



KEVIN FRANCIS



ROBERT GORMAN

They're introducing a new kind of Love Rock.

Fresh is a new group with an album of new music. The first music about love in Borstal—England's reformatory system.

Borstal is ugly and vicious. And so is "Fresh Out of Borstal." In spots.

It says things nobody's ever said on an album. It says things polite people don't say at all.

"Fresh Out of Borstal" was written by Jagger. Richard. Napier-Bell. Singer. Among others. Freely. Vividly.

And Fresh knows how to color their material. All the way from brute grey to the wildest streaks of lavender.

RCA Records is excited about Fresh. They're going to hit big. But it's not a greedy excitement. It's the excitement you get when you're breaking new ground.

How are we going to break Fresh? Lavishly. Fresh pulled out all stops performing it. We can hardly do less.

We're going to poster Fresh. We're going to Underground Press Fresh. We're going to Underground Radio Fresh. We're going to tour Fresh. We're going to make Fresh heard. (They're already being heard, you know. On Underground Radio. Before we've even lifted a finger.)

You don't just listen to Fresh. You face them. The way you face an indictment.

Fresh will move you. Fresh will move.

"FRESH Out of Borstal."

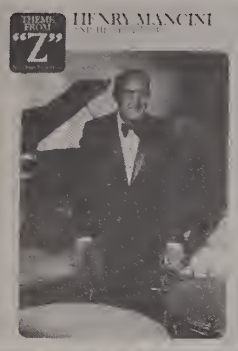
Pop Picks



THEME FROM "Z" AND OTHER FILM MUSIC — Henry Mancini — RCA LSP-4350

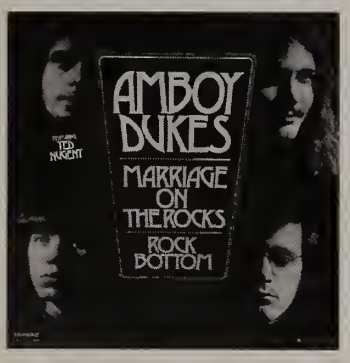
Academy Award winner Henry Mancini has few peers when it comes to performing movie music and, with this album, he has one of his strongest entries to date in that category. Two Oscar nominee songs, "Jean" and "Raindrops Keep Fallin' On My Head" are spotlighted as are two themes written by Mancini for "The Molly Maguires." Add to that the title song, the "Airport Love Theme" and the timeless "As Time Goes By," and you have a sampling of what the LP contains. Should find a niche on the charts.

LET'S BE FRIENDS — Elvis Presley — RCA Camden CAS-2408

Elvis' millions of fans will rush to welcome this package, which is offered at a budget price on RCA's Camden label. A number of these tracks are from Presley films and all the cuts on the set have previously been unavailable on record. There is the handclapping "Stay Away, Joe," along with the melodic ballad "Almost" and the infectious easy rockers "Change Of Heart" and "Have A Happy." Elvis' performance rings true and sure throughout on an LP which could generate sizeable chart action.

MORE GOLDEN HITS — The Turtles — White Whale 7172

This is the second volume of hits from The Turtles' camp and is appropriately sub-titled "Some Old Ones and Some Fairly New Ones." The collection covers their activities over the past two years or so, revealing a style that differed a bit from their original hit work. Some of their top tunes on the LP are "You Showed Me," "She's My Girl," "Elenore" and "Lady-O Lady-O." Should do just fine.



MARRIAGE ON THE ROCKS/ROCK BOTTOM — Amboy Dukes — Polydor 24-4012

The Amboy Dukes have just come onto the charts with this album. The set is heavily instrumental. A three-part piece called "Marriage" starts the LP, and the listener is presented throughout with energetic hard rock whose appeal is testified to by the presence of the package on the charts. "Breast-Fed Gator," "Non-Conformist Wilderbeast Man" and "The Inexhaustible Quest For The Cosmic Cabbage" are three of the other titles.

SOMETHING'S BURNING — Kenny Rogers & The First Edition — Reprise 6385

The pleasant, clean sound of the quintet comes across full-guns on their latest offing. The title song is in the Top 20 and will help the LP sales with that extra pull. This is one of those albums which incorporates cuts using both full orchestration and simple, folk-style background. The results, when coupled with the group's easy vocals, makes a solid pop market deck. Set is already on the charts.

THE SINGING STORY TELLER — Johnny Cash — Sun 115

Out of the Sun archives come eleven more Cash tracks, including "You're The Nearest Thing To Heaven," "Hey Good Lookin'," "I Could Never Be Ashamed Of You" and "Goodbye Little Darling." Johnny is dynamic, whether in vintage material such as this, or songs he recorded this morning. This economy-priced LP captures the vitality of the man and his music. Johnny is riding the crest of huge popularity now; deck should become a charter.

MOONDANCE — Van Morrison — Warner Bros. 1835

Contemporary singer-songwriter Van Morrison has been around for awhile, and a couple of years back he had a single hit, "Brown-Eyed Girl," on the Bang label. He dropped out of national sight, but built up an underground following, and now he is back on the charts with a single, "Come Running," which is included on this album, and the LP itself, which has just broken onto the charts.

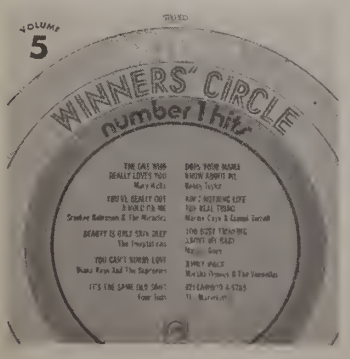
ON TOUR — Delaney & Bonnie & Friends With Eric Clapton — Atco SD 33-326

It's been a long time coming, but look out it's here! A super album, recorded live in England, from a super assemblage of musicians. From the opening bars of "Things Get Better," when the shout of "Come on everybody" is heard, this is a keg of dynamite. Everyone works together to make this a powerhouse entry, and when "everybody" includes the likes of Delaney, Bonnie, Clapton, Dave Mason, Rita Coolidge, etc., then there is reason to celebrate. Group's recent single, "Coming Home" is featured, as is an unforgettable "That's What My Man Is For" and a stomping Little Richard medley. Album should shoot up the chart.

Pop Best Bets

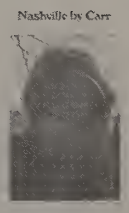
LET THE SUN SHINE IN/MIDNIGHT COWBOY/AND OTHER GOODIES — Paul Mauriat and His Orchestra — Philips 600-337

The French pianist/composer is back with us again, giving the title songs and such tunes as "Je T'Aime . . . Moi Non Plus," "Sweet Charity," "Sunshine And Seashore" and "Que Je T'Aime" his own popular interpretations. This LP should find its way into the markets soon and will probably be a good radio item. Could make a chart appearance.



MOTOWN WINNERS' CIRCLE — NO. 1 HITS VOLUME 5 — Various Artists — Gordy 950

Gordy Records digs back a few years to put together this collection of top R&B and, in some cases, pop hits. A rundown of them shows you what to expect: "Beauty Is Only Skin Deep" by The Temptations, "You Can't Hurry Love" by Diana Ross and The Supremes, Smokey Robinson & The Miracles' "You've Really Got A Hold On Me", Four Tops' "It's The Same Old Song", "The One Who Really Loves You" by Mary Wells, "Jimmy Mack" by Martha Reeves & The Vandellas and four more. Should be a nice item.



NASHVILLE BY CARR — Vikki Carr — Liberty LST-11001

Vikki steps out with a Nashville flavor on her latest LP and a fine step it is. Always a strong MOR artist, she could now add country fans to her legions. Styling wins the day as the talented thrush does "Yesterday, When I Was Young," "The Tip Of My Fingers" and the current Neil Diamond charter "Until It's Time For You To Go." Special treat is her sensitive version of "Sunday Mornin' Comin' Down." Deck could put in a chart appearance before very long.

JOHN PHILLIPS — Dunhill DS 50077

As leader of and chief writer for the Mamas and the Papas, John Phillips played a major part in creating some of the most exciting and successful rock music ever to be recorded. The Mamas and the Papas are gone now, and, judging by this album, John has been unsuccessful in casting his talent into a new mold. His songs and singing are uninspired, and there is none of the magic of the Mamas and the Papas in this record. Phillips' name will sell copies of this set, however, so keep it around.

WEEDS — Brewer & Shipley — Kama Sutra 2016
This song writing and performing team working with acoustic instruments, and assisted by some excellent musicians including keyboard wizard Nicky Hopkins, shows that they could become a very popular act. In addition to their own compositions, they've included a standout rendition of Bob Dylan's "All Along The Watchtower." "Weeds" could easily sprout into a sizeable chart blossom. An excellent folk-country rock package.

THE DAMNED — Original Sound Track — Warner Bros. 1829
Composing a score for Visconti's spectacular film, "The Damned"—one which would reflect the lush yet grotesque nuances of the movie—would seem an insurmountable task for many composers. But Maurice Jarre has succeeded; his score actually serves to enhance the film. This is a sound track album which throbs with intense vitality. Among its highlights is a charming "Lullaby For Lisa," a tune of music box delicacy which practically cries out for lyrics. Jarre himself conducts on the LP. All in all, a superior work.

ALONE — Francoise Hardy — Reprise 6397
International singing star Francoise Hardy has recorded an album which contains a sparkling collection of songs on the theme of being alone. She casts a magical spell, treating Leonard Cohen's poetic "Suzanne," and on her own composition, "Midnight Blues," she adds a touch of country which is pure delight. This is an immensely listenable LP which could prove quite popular on the MOR front.

SILVER METRE — National General 2000
This is a powerful album by a new group made up of an American and three Britishers. There are some very tasty guitar tracks here as well as two country-flavored ditties "No They've Found Me" and "Country Comforts." The group also gives a very faithful rendering of the recent controversial chart tune by Murray Head, "Superstar." This disk has all the potential for finding action.

Classical Picks

BERLIOZ: SYMPHONIE FUNEBRE ET TRIOMPHALE — London Symphony Orchestra Colin Davis
Three significant works by Hector Berlioz are excellently presented on this album by Colin Davis as a part of his Berlioz cycle. "Symphonie Funebre Et Triomphale," a work in three movements, is the major piece on the album. The other two entries are "Prelude To 'Les Troyens A Carthage'" and "March Funebre, Op. 18, No. 3, Pour La Dernier Scene D'Hamlet." Fine album.

FAVORITE ARIAS — Mirella Freni-Vanguard Cardinal VCS 10068
Lyric soprano Mirella Freni offers seven of her favorite arias on this album, and both her selections and her performances of them are praiseworthy. Puccini and Bellini are represented with two arias each, and works by Mascagni, Bizet and Verdi fill out the set. The artist is ably assisted by the Bavarian Radio Orchestra, Ino Savini, conductor.

NEW YORK — THE MEDIUM'S NOT MASSAGING

Rock just cannot be funneled through the tube. That much seems clear now. Television is definitely not rock's medium. But the message isn't getting through to tv producers or rock performers. It's probably hard to understand. Especially so when a rock performer or group figures that one tv shot will probably reach more people than 20 personal appearance tours.

That's all very true. So what. In the final analysis, the rock music going out on tv reaches its audience in a diluted, less dynamic version than it would in a concert appearance, certainly, or even a recorded rendition. Still, massive exposure seems to be terribly important to many rock performers. But should it be? At this point, probably not.

There are a number of pitfalls in the presentation of rock music on television. To begin with, rock is an immediate, almost tactile form of entertainment. Sounds like a natural for television, the most immediate of our media. It doesn't transmit that way however. The controls have been transferred. What we hear out in television land is determined by the station's technicians. Sure, the volume control can be adjusted at home, but the intensity and modulation of the music, the real heart of rock, are totally divorced from the source in transmission.

Mountain put in an appearance on a segment of NET's "The Show" which was broadcast a couple of weekends ago. To dip into the jargon of rock, Mountain is definitely a "heavy" group. They are so heavy in fact that the mere volume of their music has been known to drive people from the front sections of theatres in which they happen to be playing. For "The Show," Mountain chose to lead off with their current single release "Mississippi Queen." Now, "Mississippi Queen" ain't exactly a ballad. In order to really appreciate what's going down in the song, you should hear it played at the thunderous level at which it was recorded. "Mississippi Queen," as transmitted on "The Show" lacked the vitality the song was meant to have. Mountain is one hell of an exciting group. That's another thing you wouldn't really have known after seeing them on "The Show."

So, what good did their appearance do the group? For those who were familiar with Mountain and its work, it was disappointing. And, the performance did not seem to do a whole lot in winning over that part of the audience which was not previously into Mountain.

The television camera has a strange way of reducing, minimizing and isolating things. Any medium that can diminish the physical enormity of Leslie West has got to be going some. One of the delights in seeing Mountain is watching gigantic Leslie West work out, his girth dwarfing his big guitar. On the small screen however, this tremendous disproportion was missing.

This is what was so disappointing about the recently demised "Music Scene" series. Ideally, "Music Scene" was the show which should have grabbed off the entire rock audience. It didn't simply because the vitality and excitement of the rock artists which the show's "natural" audience knew was there did not come through. And all the trick camera work and gimmickry in the world could not reproduce that. Interestingly enough, this excitement is not dissipated on the large theatre screen.

"Woodstock" is of course the prime example. The rock segments of the film are probably as exciting as the actual performances must have been. But, of course the performances depicted in the film do not undergo the awful physical reduction which those broadcast on tv must. And, there is the sound. The sound of "Woodstock" was everywhere in the theatre. Just as it was in Bethel, New York. As an experiment, it would be wild to see the transformation "Woodstock" would undergo if the film were shown on tv and all that sound was squeezed through the tiny speakers of a conventional tv set. The result would have to be disappointing as hell.

HOLLYWOOD — WITH A TOUCH OF NEW YORK

When people go out of their way to tell you how good an album is, and it isn't their album, then you know something's up. This is what's been happening to us with the Melanie album. So, we went to a Melanie expert, Richard Robinson, to find out where Melanie is at:

"Until recently most people either loved Melanie or hated her. Her voice and the songs she sang left no common ground, no take it or leave it. Just violent reactions split pretty much down the middle between good and bad.

Her third album, "Candles in The Rain", has broken down a lot of walls. Her singing isn't as sharp and biting, her songs aren't as one sided and child-like. Melanie has grown up for this album. She can still be cute when she sings "Alexander Beetle", but her womanhood is apparent with "Candles In The Rain" and "What Have They Done To My Song". And now she doesn't have to write a song to convey a feeling, her version of "Carolina On My Mind" equals James Taylor's original for true emotion.

Many things have happened between the first two albums and this new one, things which account for it being so good, for people saying, "I don't like Melanie but I love the album." She has become a star in Europe. Received awards, been given gold albums, done her own hour long television specials. She has worked a lot singing for people who came to be shown, who came not because of any superstar type but because they somehow dug the chick and her blush and the way she slowly closed her eyes while she sang.

The new album is a wonder in many ways. It combines everything Melanie always was with the excitement and mature emotion that were missing for many of us before. Her song lyrics hold up now, she carries it through from the first word to the last. She began by singing alphabet songs, now she's using the letters to make words and she's singing those with experience.

The title song for the album is the most exciting of all. After her appearance at Woodstock Melanie wrote what she thought about the experience. It came out "Candles In The Rain". She recorded the song with The Edwin Hawkins Singers. The result is a combination of the feeling of joy that was "Oh Happy Day" and the youthful conviction that was Woodstock."

Heavy Mercury Push For Benjamin Deck

NEW YORK — Mercury Records has announced a heavy promotional campaign for the Randi Benjamin single "Look At You Now." Local and regional men in all major markets have been instructed to build the record within the next few weeks.

The disk, was produced by Denny Randell, who has a number of hits to his credit as a writer and producer, including the Toys' "Lover's Concerto" and "Let's Hang On" by the Four Seasons. The single was executive produced by Jeff Cheen, Mercury's A&R director for Los Angeles. The song was composed by Benjamin and published by Mercury's MRC Music Inc., Subsidiary.

Four Acts Signed By Tangerine

HOLLYWOOD — Tangerine Records Corporation has signed four new artists to the Ray Charles-owned diskery, and has set single product from two of them for April.

Inked to Tangerine are Marie Franklin, Gene Diamond, and two groups, the Celebrity Four and the Johnson 3+1. This month TRC will be releasing "Inspiration" b/w "Honey Tell Me" by the Celebrity Four, and "Don't Need No Man" b/w "Anything You Wasn't Born With" from Marie Franklin.

totalling 337,429 sets, were down 16.2 percent from the 402,543 sets sold the same month last year. Total TV sales to dealers were down 21.7 percent; 718,270 in January 1970 to 917,712 sets the first month of 1969.

A BIG CATCH — for Big 3 Music is writer/producer Randy Edelman who signed in that capacity. Part of the publishing firm's campaign to expand their contemporary catalogs, Edelman was signed by Allen Stanton (left), exec vp of the organization and Wally Schuster, general professional manager.

FLIP WILSON/KIM WESTON

SAHARA HOTEL, LAS VEGAS — After what must seem an eternity of dates in smoke clogged bistros, far less fashionable surroundings, Wilson and Weston are finally reaping the just rewards of their talents. The one hour and thirty minute Sahara show is a perfect mating of a him and her with Wilson opening for a short warm-up ("this is easier than parking cars") and Wilson coming on for, what seems, a very short twenty-five minute turn.

Flip returns to offer a pot-pourri of gags, one liners, impressions, improvisations and non-sequitur nonsense. Highlight is the "Devil Made Me Buy This Dress" (featuring his falsetto-voiced Geraldine), the title cut from his current best selling LP on Little David. Along the way he touches upon several other memorable characters: Reverend LeRoy, Adam and Eve, the Genius and the residents of the Kingdom of Begonia. Noting that he recently found himself on a street that was so dark "it looked like Godfrey Cambridge." Not all his material is original. But in his ingratiating hands, it's totally enjoyable.

Weston continues to emerge as a superb artist, proficient at each note and gesture. One of those rare performers who seems to succeed with whatever catches her fancy, she boasts an incredible range, a sure dramatic sense. And she manages to mix moods with such tunes as "Windmills of Your Mind," "Eleanor Rigby," "My Man," "Something," and "People." Much of her act, incidentally, has been captured on record ("Big Brass Four Poster"), her most recent LP on the People label. "People," incidentally, is her closer and it's as stunning as anything you're likely to hear anywhere. The Jack Egglash Band obviously enjoys the work. Arrangements by Melba Liston, Marty Paich, Gene Page, Luch De Jesus, Dave Blumberg and others are just about as perfect as Weston herself.

DION

BITTER END, NYC — Dion has a problem of identity. During his recent engagement here he was an entertainer unsure of his style, stage personality and audience.

Rather than allowing his audience to respond spontaneously to his folk and country blues style, the Warner Bros. recording artist was continually feeling out his audience, attempting to adapt to its tastes.

Consequently, his folk songs were bland and at times listless. Accompanying himself with guitar, he was indistinguishable from a youngster playing the village cafes solely for exposure.

Genuine audience enthusiasm was generated during Dion's finale, his former number one song "Runaround Sue." The audience accepted Dion's invitation to hand clap, and a few people couldn't resist attempting the vocal background of the Del-Satins. Again, however, Dion showed a lack of confidence in his performance and audience, and abruptly terminated the program midway through the number.

Gary Bonds Victim Of Mistaken Ident

NEW YORK — A national wire service story released in late March erroneously identified singer Gary "U.S." Bonds as a similarly-named man arrested in Hartford, Conn., charged with multiple felonies.

Bonds, who has been performing at night clubs and colleges mainly on the east coast, learned of the erroneous reports while at his Brooklyn home here, preparing to leave for an engagement in Cleveland.

Bonds said the agencies that handle his bookings stopped calling him for several days until the confusion was cleared up. WABC radio in New York broadcast a correction shortly after the wire story was printed in several newspapers.

According to Bonds' producer Jerry Williams, some disc jockeys have stopped playing Bonds' latest release, "One Broken Heart" and consequently that sales have been adversely affected.

PHIL OCHS

CARNEGIE HALL, N.Y. — Phil Ochs made his reputation as a writer and singer of folk-styled songs, and though he is not merely a protest singer, he is perhaps best known for that aspect of his art. At his recent controversial pair of Carnegie Hall concerts on March 27, he added to his own material chunk of Buddy Holly songs, an Elvis Presley medley, a Conway Twitty number and Merle Haggard's "Okie From Muskogee." The Holly and Presley numbers elicited objections from many members of the audience who had come to hear Ochs sing his own songs, not old rock 'n' roll numbers. Ochs explained that his greatest influences had not been folk singers but the rock 'n' roll stars of the '50's, and that he wanted to play rock 'n' roll because he liked it and he thought it was worth hearing.

In an article in the New York Times, Ochs said, "At 15, my idol was Elvis Presley. Then, in college . . . I became infatuated with folk music. I've been a folk singer and political singer ever since . . . Eventually I found myself in a stale position . . . after Chicago I became so depressed . . . that I just went crazy and didn't care anymore. I decided to do just what I wanted to do. I thought, 'Wouldn't it be fun to come out in a gold suit like Elvis Presley?'" It was a leap into fantasy, into a musical area that I really like."

At the 8:00 concert, which I attended, Ochs did not succeed in getting the audience to dig his new thing. At the later concert, according to the press, he conquered the crowd's initial hostility.

My own judgment of the matter is this. Because Ochs did the Holly and Presley songs straight, without adding anything by way of changes in arrangement and style, he did, to my mind, something that was not worth doing. When Creedence Clearwater did Screamin' Jay Hawkins' old hit, "I Put A Spell On You," they turned it into a hard rock song and added exciting instrumental breaks. All Ochs did was to imitate Holly and Presley, and what's the point of that?

Ochs' nostalgic return to the '50's has not been entirely fruitless. His song about actor James Dean, which he drew from talks he had with people who knew Dean, is worthwhile, and is a product of creativity rather than imitative identification.

I think I know how Ochs feels. My blood, too, was made hot by Holly and Presley, but I wouldn't get up on a stage and try to do what I couldn't possibly do as well as they did.

New E-V Mike For Schory Record Concert

NEW YORK — A newly developed microphone described as Electro-Voice's will be used by Dick Schory and his Percussion Pop Orchestra at a combined concert and recording session in Carnegie Hall this Tuesday (7).

The new Electro-Voice microphone is the RE 20. It was designed by a special development team specifically for recording applications and high-quality broadcast and sound system use, under the direction of microphone expert Lou Burroughs, Electro-Voice exec vice president.

The new RE 20 is a dynamic, cardiod type of microphone with flat response over a frequency range of 45 to 18,000 Hz.

The Dick Schory album of the concert will be released on the Ovation label.

Deejays: Steve McGill, 6-10 a.m.; Mike Malone, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.; Johnny Barr, 2-6 p.m.; Sandy Hill, 6 p.m. to midnight; Bill Milham, midnight to 6 a.m.

The station's sound has been described as modern country. It features the most progressive of the country records, the new Nashville sound, plus a touch of MOR, all laced with the chatter of personality jocks. Says general manager "Rocky" Reich: "We have a modern approach to the country format. We are not beyond playing any artist, although we draw the line if it is a real screaming rocker. Our guys are not backwoods types, but distinct personalities. I guess you could say we stay as loose as we can."

"Staying loose" includes getting involved in community activities such as the Greater Gulf States Fair and the Boat, Sports and Vacation show, both held regularly in Mobile. The station has also enlisted approximately 50,000 people in their WUNI Listeners Club. Members are eligible to win prizes through drawings held on the air each hour, and all are sent free WUNI bird pins, which may be used by men as tie clasps.

The station is also very sports oriented. It broadcasts numerous local high school basketball and football games. Through its NBC affiliation, WUNI airs a great many of the big college contests and through their membership in the Atlanta Braves network, they broadcast baseball.

Newswise, the station carries the NBC casts on the hour, in addition to their own local news on the half hour.

Incidentally, WUNI is currently looking for a news director; interested applicants should contact "Rocky" Reich.

The WUNI bird is everywhere, showing up on signboards, sweatshirts and on the station's weekly newsletter, which is entitled WUNI Bird Chirps. It represents the broad appeal to listeners which the station aims at. From the looks of things, they have succeeded and figure to be a major force in Mobile broadcasting for years to come.

DRIVE MY CAR — WMCA-New York deejay Dan Daniel presents the keys of a 1970 car to Vicky Berliner, winner of the station's Musical Mystery Tour contest. Vicky will have to wait several years, since she's 14 years old — too young to drive her prize.

Greater Response Found Among 'Soul' Stations

NASHVILLE — The response of "soul" radio stations to the needs of the black community has increased during recent years, according to a study conducted by the Race Relations Information Center of Nashville.

The report cited the following as among the major changes in responsiveness on the part of the stations: "public affairs, advertising, news broadcasting and equal opportunity." The study added, however, that "few broadcasters showed any willingness to move until prodded by black sentiments and new Federal Communications Commission viligance and some still have moved only very slowly."

The study, entitled "How Soulful Is 'Soul' Radio?" also found that a great number of black-oriented stations have been slow in appointing blacks to key positions, and for the most part, are owned by whites. The report stated that the stations are generally weak in the fields of news reporting and public affairs.

KADI-FM Goes Heavy

ST. LOUIS — KADI-FM has switched from jazz and soul to a contemporary hard rock format. According to their new program director, Ron Elz, the station is making a concerted effort to reach under-25 listeners, and they have already inaugurated a direct promotion drive with local schools.

FCC Acts To Block Combos

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The Federal Communications Commission has moved to curb new combinations of radio and tv stations in the same urban market area. The commission also indicated that it would look into a proposal by the Justice Dept that existing multimedia combinations be broken up.

Under the commission proposal, broadcast owners would have five years to reduce their holdings in a single such market to a radio combination, a tv station or a newspaper. It is expected that such a proposal, if put into effect, would meet with considerable opposition from the communications community.

In explaining its announcement the FCC said that the single market ruling was designed "to prevent undue influence on local public opinion by relatively few persons or groups."

WLWI-TV, Indianapolis received five prizes, including two first place awards, from Indiana News Photographers Assoc. . . . Al Waslon, named music arranger for WLWT-TV, Cincinnati . . . WRC-TV, Washington, D.C. received Robert F. JOE COCKER WITH MAD DOGS & ENGLISHMEN STONE THE CROWS — RONNIE HAWKINS

FILLMORE EAST, N.Y.C. -- Is nothing sacred anymore? Joe Cocker with brass. Joe Coeker with a soul choir, four drummers, concertmaster, over thirty friends, children, and, if you can believe your eyes and ears, a dog. Has Joe finally overstepped the bounds of good taste to become pompous and pretentious? Will Fred marry Evelyn?

Fear not, dear hearts and gentle friends. After an unutterably boring first half (despite the fact that Stone the Crows and Ronnie Hawkins appeared, the only entertainment on this part of the bill came from a delightful Loony Tunes cartoon) Joe arrived to save the evening from seeming disaster.

Cocker has never stood still. His first superb album was made by him and some close friends. It was over a year in the making and by the time it was released, Joe had a backing group called the Grease Band. With them he recorded his second highly successful LP. But on that record a certain name kept popping up: Leon Russell. He was to be instrumental in helping Joe escape from the rather confining clasp of a four-piece group. Apparently big things were in the works. Last Friday and Saturday (28-9) everyone found out just what those things were.

From the opening notes of the set it was profoundly evident that Joe had surrounded himself with some of the finest musicians working today. Chris Stainton, the only hold-over from the Grease Band, on organ and piano, Jim Price and Bobby Keyes, the brass section previously with Delaney & Bonnie, two drummers and two percussionists, and a set of four truly extraordinary backing vocalists. Coordinating this group, playing excellent guitar and piano, is Leon Russell, resplendent in his now familiar stovepipe hat.

Joe was at peak hour as he clawed his way through "Delta Lady," a gospelly "Bird on the Wire," and brought down the house with a fantastically arranged medley of Ray Charles' "Drown in My Own Tears" and Otis Redding's "I've Been Loving You Too Long." At this point Joe introduced the beauteous, incredible and highly underrated Rita Coolidge for her solo "Long Age and Far Away." The velvety-voiced Rita is one of Joe's soul choir.

Cocker ended the stint with both sides of his new single "Spaceman" and "The Letter" and returned for a standing ovation duet with Leon on Bob Dylan's "Girl From The North Country."

Everything Joe did had such drive and power and the ferocity and joy with which the new band attacked each song drove him to stratospheric vocal heights. Until now Cocker has been in second gear. That, I had thought, had been quite sufficient. No more. After seeing his new maxi-family revue, with Cocker in high gear, I know what I've been missing. Dear Joe, leonine Joe, Super Joe.

The Fillmore audience received an extra dividend in the form of Polydor's jazz oriented rock aggregation Stone The Crows. The group, 4 of whose 5 members are Scottish, displayed a strong blues background in the half dozen numbers they essayed during the evening. Lead singer and frenetic tambourinist Maggie Bell has to be singled out for comment.

Decked out in what looked like a red sweatshirt and black toreador pants with spangles down either side, Maggie comes on like the captain of the Armstrong Tile Company's bowling team, women's division. But that's all right. As soon as she starts wailing, who the hell cares what she looks like. Unfortunately, Maggie is going to have to stomach comparisons with every female singer from Bessie Smith through Janis. She will withstand the comparisons. She is her own woman. Her duets with bassist Jim Dewar were really exciting. And the band members display a good, tight understanding of each other's desires and capabilities. Whether they have been or not, Stone The Crows sound like they've been playing together for a long time.

If Maggie is the captain of the team, then Ronnie Hawkins would have to be the bowling team's coach. Hawkins has a way of walking around the stage while his band members are playing and encouraging them with little, impromptu pep talks and occasional pats on the rear. Just like any good coach would. In the main, Ronnie Hawkins and his backing group are a good timey outfit. This is not to say that they should be playing rooms like Your Father's Moustache. But, at the same time, Hawkins presents his music in a way that discourages serious considerations.

But who cares? The audience dug it and the band seemed to be having a great time. Enjoyment, after all, is probably the most important aim of music.

TROUBADOUR, N.Y. — The current edition of the Paul Butterfield Blues Band (and we wonder if anyone has a count on how many groups there have been) is by far the best we've seen.

The new group, though it may not contain any superstars, is very together and lays down those old Chicago blues in a fine new style. Butterfield, as usual, was master of his harmonica.

Jeffrey Comanor, on the same bill, was one of the more interesting singer/songwriters around, although he has a tendency to talk too much. With the competition as heavy as it is at the moment, he's not going to rise to the top immediately, but if he sticks it out and can grow and change with the times, he could be important in the long run.

Neil Diamond followed Butterfield into the club. Neil seemed slightly worn down this time around, and his show was not quite as dynamic. Even tired, Neil put on a terrific show, and should be complemented on varying his material and his presentation. Carol Hunter, on lead guitar, is getting musically more interesting, but also seemed a little down. Randy Sterling on bass and Eddie Rukin on drums rounded out Neil's accompaniment.

PAT SKY

Town Hall, NY — Pat Sky's appearance at Town Hall last weekend proved one thing. It proved that there is still an audience, small but fiercely loyal, for the kind of unadorned folk music which was so popular ten years ago and which Pat Sky personifies.

Sky has not been very active in the past few years, but his concert showed that there is still an audience for him. Sky sings in a monotone-like style of themes that are familiar to traditional folk songs. Sky's winning quality however is the warmth of his personality and his unassuming manner. It was this quality that seemed to be responsible for the audience's extremely warm reception after each selection since neither the material nor the performance deserved it.

Sky was accompanied on guitar by "Blind Erik Flatpick" (nee Erik Frandsen) who joined the headliner for a bright madrigal in one of the two encores which the audience demanded. It looks like Pat Sky will find receptive audiences whereever he appears if this concert was any indication. His forthcoming Capitol records should enjoy the same type of welcome.

TOM JONES

COPACABANA, NEW YORK — New York was a festival of contemporary sight and sound last week. On Wednesday, for instance, youngsters on Easter school vacation flocked to see the "Woodstock" rock fest film, and, sad to say, many were turned away from a matinee performance of "Hair" (SRO), while others stood in line desperately hoping for a cancelled reservation. The third item of crowd-gathering impact concerned one person, namely Tom Jones. The place was the Copacabana, where Jones made his third appearance in three years. Following a 26-week TV shooting schedule for his immensely popular program — part of which the Parrot disk star caught after his opening dinner show — Jones is ready to resume a heavy U.S. appearance sehedule, including what is billed as the most lucrative show business tour in U.S. history this summer. His Copa opening proved beyond a doubt that Jonesmania retains its remarkable impact (one that literally had much of the overflow patrons dancing in the aisles) and that Jones himself is fully charged to supply his ecstatie U.S. following with the full force of his singing dynamism. And much the same can be said for his own instrumental team, led, along with the fine Copa orchestra, by his arranger, Johnny Spence. Are you ready to shake, rattle & roll with Mr. Jones, America?

ELLA FITZGERALD

EMPIRE ROOM, N.Y. — Even Ella Fitzgerald was unable to overcome the apathy of the Waldorf Astoria orchestra and the coldness of the 'new' Empire Room (located across the hall from the old room. The situation was not helped by Louis Armstrong, who planted himself on stage for several numbers, much to Ella's discomfort.

Ella's closing tunes, done with only her own rhythm section, were far superior to the rest of the show, which relied on the local horn section. In introducing the band, Miss Fitzgerald forgot their names and we wisely followed suit. Even on an obvious horn tune, like "Spinning Wheel," the band was unable to cope. Ella, who can still sing and scat with the best of them, deserves much better treatment. She gets it on her most recent album, on Reprise. It's a better buy than a night at the Waldorf.

CashBox Musical Theatre Review

'MINNIE'S BOYS'

IMPERIAL THEATRE, NYC — Broadway musicals, on Broadway, are facing a generation gap which makes the top forty-easy listening hiatus appear a minor rift. The generation that saw musicals flourish with Cole Porter, Rodgers and their ilk will settle for little less than the best in a genre brim full of warmed over ballads—and the young are neither affluent enough or interested enough to spend (or spend for) a night of last decade's material.

The few musical successes of this last year have based their appeal on either the characters, the performer of a star stature or a young MOR sound approach. "Minnie's Boys" rates A-minus in the first bracket, satisfactory in the second area. It also has music.

The truth of this story is hard to judge. If the Marx Brothers were really as much the same off-stage as on; if mother Minnie was really as typically Jewish in her ambition; if their career was actually so neatly fitted and their personal dilemmas could all be solved with punch line scene endings—then the show is valid as biography. If not, then it comes across only as cute comedy raised from vaudeville oblivion by the brilliant portrayal of Groucho by Lewis Stadlen.

So fascinating is Stadlen's grouch and so fascinating is the vocal slapstick that became Groucho's trademark that one overlooks the shallow characterizations of all the other brothers. There are also a handful of really grand scenes, almost all showing the on-stage development of the Marx Brothers as comic talents, that the viewer tends to forgive lesser-light scenes.

Even the contrived close, with a sudded revelation of the silent Harpo, the Italian Chico, the flashy Zeppo and a moustachioed Groucho can be excused as an appeal to the audience's sentiment, as is the "Signing of the Declaration of Independence" vignette as a finale for "1776" since sympathetic viewers will have been won over by the charm and cuteness of the play.

But, for overall impact, the show lacks depth. And, most of all, it lacks musical power. For a musical that is near fatal.

A few songs may survive the show to become occasional nightclub numbers. "Mama, A Rainbow" is the closest thing to a showstopper in the Grossman-Hackady book, but the entertainers who specialize in reaching over-35 crowds will also find meat in pleasers like "Rich Is" or "Where Was I When they Passed Out Luck" for a change-of-pacers.

SERGIO FRANCHI

ROYAL BOX, NYC — Sergio Franchi's voice was like a well-stropped straight-edge razor when he opened here March 31. Soft and lathery at times with powerful vocal strokes at others, Franchi's performance was delivered with the personality of a polished, self-confiddent, ebullient barber.

The capacity audience was in his grasp throughout the performance and Franchi knew it. Excellent vocal contrast and versatile lyric phrasing drew alternate bravos and sighs and humorous one-liners incited laughter and good-natured heckling.

The irrepressible vocalist did not stick solely to singing, but no one objected. He sang "If I Were a Rich Man" from "Fiddler on the Roof," complete with finger snapping and Jewish gestures.

After numbers like his vibrant "To Give" and a shattering area from "Tosca," Franchi received uninhibited shouts of "Bravo." When he began "The Impossible Dream," sighs were audible throughout the Royal Box.

Franchi also sang his current United Artists release, "More than Strangers," a solid number embellished with rich Italian choruses. During his finale, "Al Di La," he paused for a self-compliment, exclaiming, "What a voice!" Not one dissenter was heard, unless a standing ovation can be construed as an argument.

Glad Tidings From Van Morrison

Last year, Van gave us "Astral Weeks," which Rolling Stone and Fusion and a lot of other people think may have been 1969's finest rock recording.

This year, Van Morrison has enriched rock music with "Moondance," which has those same people even more excited.

Van Morrison is Irish, ginger and poker-faced (most of the time) and his voice and his world of moondancing and astral weeks are the best of all possible. Find out for yourself.

Van Morrison is a howler and a wailer for Warner Bros. Records, where he belongs.

CashBox Tape News Report

Lear Jet Unfolds Its Half-Sized Cartridge As 8-Tr. Space-Saver

NEW YORK — Capitalizing on the space-saver aspect of tape cartridges, Lear Jet has just unveiled a foldaway 8-track package which collapses inside itself to permit half-standard size storage.

Dubbed the Mini-8, Lear Jet's compact-8 holds up to 30 minutes of recorded material in a case that is standard size when unfolded, but only half the normal cartridge volume when folded over upon itself. It can thus be played on all 8-track equipment now in existence.

Avsco president and Lear Jet Stereo vp/gm Ed Campbell stated "we sincerely feel that with new development we have opened up a whole vast new recorded music market. Inasmuch as the tape cartridge exists only in the LP album format at this time, we are accomodating singles or mini-albums."

Landry Tops New Team Managing Int'l. Tape

NEW YORK — H. John Landry has been named the chief operating officer of International Tape Cartridge Corp. In this position, Landry heads a new management force consisting of himself and three other vice presidents: James Tyrell (sales), David Murphy (financial affairs) and John Cowen III (plant management).

Under Landry, who had been a vice president and director before with ITCC, the team hopes to counteract the financial problems that have been besetting the firm. Most recently, ITCC lost its contract with Buddah Records, one of its principal music-rights deals.

Landry succeeds Gary Salter who resigned as president a month ago shortly after the company sold to him and his father its stock in two Canadian subsidiaries (Modern Tape Cartridge Corp. Ltd. Ltd. and Int'l Tape Cartridge Corp. of Canada Ltd.). These firms were sold for some $250,000 in cash and notes plus 50,000 shares of the company's common stock earlier delivered in connection with the prior acquisition of Modern Tape.

New Ampex Mike Into Extended Consumer Products Distrib Net

NEW YORK — Ampex' consumer equipment division has just made its award winning 244 omni-directional microphone available as a separate accessory, placing it into distribution through a network expanded by addition of seven new distributors.

The low impedance microphone was given a design excellence award by Industrial Design Magazine. Selling for $7.95, the mike stands 4½" high and comes with a detachable "poker chip" base for use as a stand.

Handling the consumer equipment, Ampex' distributor chain now includes new appointees just named by marketing manager Lawrence Pugh. Among the companies added to handle the sales of the firm's complete line of recorders, players, speakers and accessories are: Alltapes of Dallas; Boyd in Denver; Aylward in Edina, Minn.; Gorman Engineering of El Paso; Devlin-Drew in Fresno; Roskin of East Hartford; and Sound Classics in Indianapolis.

Alan Woolf has also been named the eastern regional sales manager for the consumer equipment division, according to Pugh. Formerly an industrial manufacturers' representative for 20 years, Woolf will operate from New York and be responsible for product sales in New England, N. Y., Maryland, Delaware and parts of Pennsylvania and Virginia.

Maxin's Cascom Tape Operation Goes From Kiddies To Concertos

NEW YORK — Arnold Maxin's Cassette Communications Corp. is making a strong bid in the tape cartridge market.

The company, recently formed by the former head of the label and music publishing operations at MGM, is offering music in all categories via licensing deals with Golden (kiddie), Vox (classics) and Orpheum (pop, jazz and folk). Under the label identification of Cascom, the company is paying particular attention to its line-up of kiddie sounds. The attempt in this area, Maxin explains, is to give the dealer a kiddie section "that takes care of itself" out from under lock and key. Maxin feels that putting kiddie tapes under tight security is a devastating blow to tapes in this field.

Cascom offers two types of kiddie packages in either 8-track or cassette configuration. A Golden Kiddie Library, listing at $4.95, offers five childrens' stories along with five Golden book counterparts that usually sell individually for 29¢ each. The complete package is housed in a plastic tote bag. A $3.95 line offers a complete story or musical feature (e. g. Tubby the Tuba, The Jungle Book) housed on a 12" LP-sized board that also contains a magic slate board and a child's connect-the-numbers drawing on the book.

According to Maxin, the Golden Kiddie Library was a star attraction for the company at the recent NARM convention. The company's six month projection in printing up the books was actually used up in two weeks, and now the forecast is for the sale of 100,000 of each Library in a year's time.

Maxin is pinning the overall success of the firm's tape commitment on avoiding the "mistakes" in this field, such as "the buck shot method of grabbing in all areas, offering big guarantees." "This field needs specialization rather than running with the herd," Maxin says.

The two other lines in the Cascom catalog sell at a list of $4.95 From the Orpheum catalog, the firm has obtained sessions by Nina Simone, Jane Morgan, Dick Gregory, Staple Singers, Sonny Terry, Oscar Brand, Louis Armstrong, Bix Beiderbecke and Jelly Roll Morton. Twenty-five classical "warhorses" comprise the current catalog of Vox material. Coming up, Maxin noted, is a series of tapes from the Living Language courses.

In a breakdown of configuration popularity, Art Denish, vp of sales at CCC, noted that the kiddie line shows a 70% margin in favor of cassettes (50-50 on the west coast, however); the classics line runs 50-50, while the pop line is at least 12 to 1 in favor of 8-track.

CCC, which has filed with the Security Exchange Commission (SEC) for a public stock offering, also engages in custom duplicating. This area is under the direction of Jack Somer, vp and general manager of the firm's plant and engineering section.

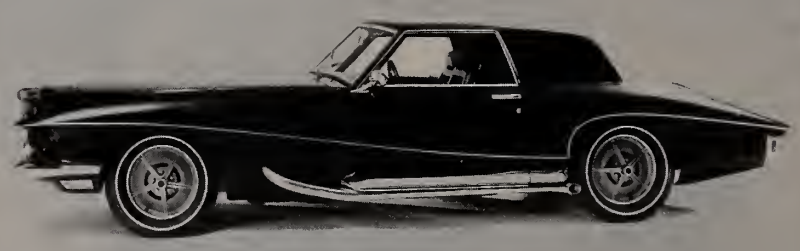
CCC, according to Maxin, plans to move into general leisure-time activities, some of which not involving the music scene.

Recoton Shows Record '69 Sales & Earnings

NEW YORK — Recoton Corp. has concluded its biggest sales & earnings year with a continued acceleration through the entire fiscal '69. President Herbert Borchardt reported that Recoton racked up an 81% increase in profits on a 52% sales increase for the year ended December 31, 1969.

Net sales totaled $2,716,653 (compared with $1,792,546 for '68) and a net income of $110,460 (43¢ per share) compared with $60,860 (24¢ per share) in the previous year. All figures include the results of the Eldeen Mfg. Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary.

Borchardt said that though the main portion of growth could be attributed to the growth of tape for which Recoton markets a line of recorders, he still aims at steady growth in the disk area where Recoton is noted both for its phonograph line and its 700 different types of needle replacements.



STANDARD EQUIPMENT on the new Stutz Blackhawk "ultra-luxury" $22,500 automobiles will include Lear Jet's model A-250 8-track stereo player with AM/FM/FM-multiplex. The players will be custom installed in each of the Blackhawks at the Stutz company's Modena, Italy coachworks. Introduced at the Automobile Show last week in New York, the Stutz was described as the "finest ultimate luxury auto available to the few who can afford it." Jim Gall, vice president and director of marketing at Lear Jet Stereo, said that his company was delighted when Stutz approached Lear Jet last spring for a tape player appropriate to this design. A-250 was subsequently marketed with a $225 tag not including speakers and installation.

Audio Fidelity To Manufacture Its Own

NEW YORK — Audio Fidelity Records of New York will now manufacture and distribute directly its own lines of cassettes and 8-track cartridges. The move toward independence in the tape field begins with immediate release of a "First Component" series featuring classical recordings in both configurations.

Herman Gimbel, president of the publicly owned company, said that the initial release consists of ten cassettes and cartridges being offered to dealers and distributors with full-mark-ups based on a suggested $3.98 retail tag.

Backed by an advertising and promotion campaign with dealer displays and promo materials, the first "First Component" selections will include symphonic works by Brahms, Tchaikowsky and Beethoven; Mussorgsky's "Pictures at an Exhibition"; Strauss waltzes, popular overtures and Tchaikowsky ballet music among others.

Johnson Heads GCC

PHOENIX — Bill Johnson has been appointed president of General Cassette Corp. here.

Johnson assumes this new post after eleven years with Ampex Corp. His latest position with Ampex was assistant to the general manager of Ampex Stereo Tapes.

Johnson had earlier spent several years with Capitol Records and the VM Corporation. At Ampex he also held positions in the audio and video divisions in the southern region.

General Cassette Corporation is a newly formed custom duplicator located at 1324 North 22nd Avenue, Phoenix. GCC works in three tape formats: open reel, 8-track cartridges and cassettes.

Sack Leads Mkt/Sls At Stereodyne, Inc.

TROY, MICH. — Jules Sack has become vice president of sales and marketing with Stereodyne. In his capacity, Sack will now be responsible for supervision of sales, marketing, planning and development and will be actively involved in developing expansion of Stereodyne into added phases of the leisure time home entertainment field.

He came to Stereodyne with six years experience at Audio Devices where he was product marketing manager, and at Bell & Howell in the director's position for marketing and sales.

Two New Musico Sets Into Simul-Release

CHICAGO — Pete Fabri, president of Musico economy albums, has just released two new packages in a simultaneous disk/tape marketing program. The latest pair of sets include a wrap-up of todays hits and one anthology of oldies featuring the original performers of hits from the '50's. First LP is entitled "Greatest Hits by the Megatons" and the second is "The Original Hits of the Fifties" with Frankie Lyman, Little Anthony, the Cleftones, Platters, Moonglows and others.

Fabri said that both albums will be sold on a 90-day guaranteed sale basis assuring availability of the two LP's in depth at the retail level.

Anyone can learn to print tape graphics at your expense.

Just because tape graphics are small, you might think anyone can print them.

But you'd be wrong.

Printing tape graphics is tough.

It takes an expert to handle the sophisticated materials and many complex finishing operations needed to produce the final product.

Forget any problems in translating record graphics to tapes. Just give us the selection number and program information. We'll take it from there . . . design to mechanicals.

We've got a complete plant set up to manufacture nothing but tape graphics, including heatseal and pressure sensitive materials.

Queens Litho can supply you with just about every kind of tape packaging there is. If you have an idea for something different, we'll even help you develop it.

We'll never charge you extra for standard die-cuts because we've got dies for every tape style.

And our round-the-clock operation can give you delivery as fast as you need it, regardless of quantity.

It all means that we make your job easier.

Technologically, sound can, indeed must, be improved on tv. It is questionable, however, whether any change can be made in the medium that will be significant enough to transform television into a good showcase for rock. Until then, if ever, as far as music is concerned, television remains very much in the hands of non-rockers like Tom Jones, Glen Campbell, Andy Williams and Dean Martin.

norman steinberg

"boomerang's" in the air

A few weeks ago, the Vanilla Fudge, after a few false finishes, performed their final farewell gig at the Action House. At the time, we noted that musical offshoots containing Fudge alumni would probably begin to sprout in the near future. The first bloom is here in the person (or grouppage) of Boomerang. Assembled by former Fudgite Mark Stein, Boomerang includes Stein as lead vocalist and organist, Rickey Ramirez on guitar, drummer Jim Galuzzi and Sal D'Onofrio on bass.

Mark and Rickey were in the lavish Cash Box celebrity lounge (formerly the coin machine room) last week to talk about Boomerang. If there was anything that was clearly discernible as we talked, it was a sense of real excitement and happiness in Mark's and Rickey's voices as they spoke about Boomerang and its focus. The boys have been playing together for 3 months now. In the immediate future, they plan to cut an album on their own and then do a tour.

Mark explained that the last year had been a creative abyss for him until Boomerang began to get it together. Since the group formed, Mark has felt happier and is more prolific than he has ever been. This feeling will be reflected in Boomerang's music. Rickey described the group's music as being very happy, highlighted by a raunchy guitar and thick organ sound. Boomerang, says Mark, is going for its own sound without sacrificing the ability to "get it on." Judging from the genuine enthusiasm, Boomerang is already 'gettin' it on.'

east coast girl of the week

Publicists Gershman, Swaney & Gibson probably don't want anyone to know this, but they have a witch working for them. Honest. She told us herself. Susan Town, this week's east coast girl, had two ancestors who "bought" it at the stake in Salem. Susan's pretty sure that some of their powers have come to rest in her person. Susan is an astral traveler which should not be confused with fellow traveler. Astral travelers are people who move about in their sleep and meet other souls. Actually, we all travel in our sleep, but the astral travelers realize this power and develop it in their conscious hours.

Susan Town

At any rate, Susan is now an astral travelling account supervisor at Gershman, Swaney & Gibson. One of her accounts is Manfred Mann and the other, oddly enough, is the 1st Occult Festival which will be held at the Fillmore East on April 19th.

Susan's other conscious travels have set her down, at various times, at Elan Associates, a New York based management firm, Time-Life, a New York based disseminator of public information, and Pan-American Airways where she traveled the world over for 2½ years as a stewardess.

Susan certainly seems to be in the right place now . . . spiritually. With her handling the publicity, the Occult Festival should really turn out to be a 'festival'.

Funny, she doesn't look like a witch.

ronnie dyson on the horizon

A few years ago, the normal route for a young singer would be to get a record cut, do some personal appearances and pray like hell for success. Nowadays, the formula has been changed. The initial step for young artists now is to get themselves into the cast of "Hair," cut a record and then fall to a supplicatory position.

"Hair" was the starting point for Ronnie Dyson. He opend the first Broadway performance with his rendition of "Aquarius." After more than a year with "Hair," Ronnie moved on. A small, but memorable segment of the film "Putney Swope" featured Ronnie and Shelly Plimpton as two young lovers who sang about soul kissing behind hot dog stands in a satire of a blemish cream commercial.

Ronnie has just recorded a great version of "If I Can Make Love To You . . ." from "Salvation" and is readying an album for release. Added to that, he is being considered for a new Broadway musical. Things really seem to be happening for Ronnie Dyson.

memo of the week

It's worth calling Stu Ginsburg of Capitol Records to request that he send you a memo on his personal memo pad. We're not going to reveal what is imprinted on the top of the memo sheet except to say that it is truly Ginsburgian in concept and execution. Watch this column next week for the revelation of what Capitol's red-bearded madman has done this time.

short takes

WNEW/FM dj Rosko will be emceeing the April 19th Rhinoceros/Ten Wheel Drive Carnegie Hall gig. All tickets for the show have been priced at $3.00 each by producers Sid Bernstein and Billy Fields . . . Creedence Clearwater will do a one-nighter at Madison Square Garden on May 13th. Concerts East and West is handling the event . . . Flying Dutchman artist Leon Thomas has just signed a long term booking contract with Associated Booking Corporation.

James Taylor fans will be glad to hear that the next time he makes it to NY he'll have a much larger room to play than the Gaslight. James has a Carnegie Hall concert set for June 12th. Better start ordering tickets now . . . Warner Bros. is reportedly gearing up to spend $100,000 in an extensive publicity campaign for pianist/composer Herbie Hancock's first WB album "Fat Albert Rotunda."

Terry Knight, Grand Funk Railroad producer, has stepped out of the control and back into a recording career with the single "I'll Keep Waiting Patiently" b/w "Lullaby." ". . . Patiently" was written by GFR lead singer Mark Farner and the GFR is the backing group on the deck . . . New Jefferson Airplane drummer replacing Spencer Dryden is Joey Covington . . . Three publishers are currently negotiating for the rights to B.B. King's autobiography. B.B. is currently working on the first draft himself.

boston lives — in honolulu

When I was a young publicist and record promoter, I was slightly involved with the well-known and oft put down 'Boston Sound.' Working with Orpheus, I watched them come close to a national hit with "Can't Find The Time," which did 100,000 copies in New York in its initial release over two years ago. Last year, as an aspiring young trade journalist, I watched the record come close to hitting again, as it racked up a 35,000 copy sale in Boston. Now, as a grizzled disk vet, I'm watching in astonishment as the record is starting to break out for the third time, now in Hawaii where it has sold over 10,000 copies and is #3 and climbing on the KPOI charts.

The record, which for some reason is regarded as a genuine oldie (it's even included in the new WOR-FM oldie album), had been getting oldie play on the Honolulu outlet. Without any effort on the part of the station (or MGM for that matter), requests for the record suddenly reached current-hit proportions and it was added to the playlist, with the aforementioned results. KPOI is at least partly responsible for breaking "Born Free," "Georgy Girl" and "Oh Me, Oh My," and may now be responsible for justifying MGM's investment in the Boston sound. Needless to say, producer Alan Lorber is very happy.

the other festival flick

The Woodstock film is out, and through it each of us who was at the festival has our own ideas of what the film should have been, most of us seem to be satisfied with what it is. The three hours passed very quickly, and though I nodded out once or twice, I think I would like to see an even longer version of Woodstock in the future. In the meantime, there was another festival, not so spectacular (there were only 5,000 people, and two Highway Patrolmen took care of traffic) but according to those who have seen it on celluloid, just as enjoyable. The film, by Carl Gottlieb, is called "Celebration — The Big Sur Festival," and features Joan Baez, Crosby, Stills, Nash and Young, Joni Mitchell, Dorothy Morrison and the Comb Sisters, John Sebastian, Mimi Farina Melvin and Sal Valentino. Gottlieb has a mixed list of credits (he won an Emmy for work on the Smothers Brothers show, but was also head writer for Music Scene) but the film will add another positive one. We'll catch a screening when we get back to the Coast, and give you a full report.

lime-y flavored bubblegum

For several years, English 'studio' disks, while occupying the local charts steadily, only made occasional inroads in America. English 'bubblegum,' (for want of a better word) has always been one of my favorites and I'm glad to see it starting to appeal to the rest of the natives. The Dutch sound furor has kept word of the new English invasion from leaking out, but a quick look at the charts shows that in addition to the Top 5 Edison Lighthouse, England is also represented by the Marmalade (their label switch paid off), Vanity Fare (who sound slightly more than studio) and White Plains. Maybe now, somebody can break Dave Dee, Dozy, Beaky, Mick and Tich.

and also —

The Nice have just completed their fourth album, "Five Bridges," which will be released as soon as they find a label to replace the recently sunk Immediate. The LP was cut live at Fairfield Halls in Croyden during a concert with Joseph Eger and symphony orchestra . . . Albert King, Cold Blood and Salt & Pepper join John Mayall in the third Olympic Auditorium concert on April 10 . . . Liberty's Sunset division has donated 400 Johnnie Ray LPs to the HEAR Foundation, to be sold May 1 at the Foundation's big musical benefit at Pasadena Civic Auditorium . . . By being in New York, we missed Liza Williams big bus-painting sendoff at Capitol, so we'll wish her the best of luck on her cross-country tour of the underground papers, Rolling Stone non-withstanding.

second look

We reviewed Savoy Brown's recent gig in Pasadena (probably because Linda Ronstadt was there), so we can't do a full thing on their return to Ungano's (in New York, in case you haven't been paying attention). Although we've seen Savoy do some fine shows, their hour-and-a-half set last week was the finest we've ever seen them, and we just had to mention it. Now, if we can just get together with Linda . . . Speaking of Fave Raves, upcoming issues will feature a rap with two of the GTO's on where the groupie scene is today, and if we can manage it, a rap with Lottie Golden to find out where she is today.

allan rinde

Chicago — Aaron Russo presented one of the year's most exciting (and profitable) bills at the Aragon Ballroom last weekend. Headliners were Savoy Brown, Ten Years After and The Argents. The Friday night crowd alone numbered more than 7,000! . . . Russo's Kinetic Playground, meanwhile, has not as yet been rebuilt (since the November fire) but rumor has it the club might re-open in May. Until then, the bulk of the weekend concert fare will be held in the Aragon, with Russo producing in most instances . . . Decca's Irish Rovers were scheduled to return to their home base last week following a grueling 19 city 17 day tour of one-nighters (including a concert at the Auditorium Theater here). After a brief vacation they'll be heading for Japan to do some club work and appear in the Canada exhibit at Expo '70 in Osaka. Group's current single is "Rhymes and Reason" . . . New entertainment lineup at The Backroom on N. Rush will feature two local heavyweights, the Eddie Higgins Trio Mon. thru Thurs. and the Judy Roberts Trio Fri. and Sat. nights . . . Chess' Carol Ippolito says the label's first c&w entry "Hot Wheels" by Stan Farlow (Checker) just broke on WJJD, this area's largest country outlet! . . . Billy Eckstine began a two-weeker in Mister Kelly's 4/6 . . . The PC Ltd. are doing a series of one-nighters in the Chicago and suburban area . . . Composer-performer Mac Davis, whose long list of hit compositions includes Elvis Presley's "Don't Cry Daddy", "Memories" and "In The Ghetto", recently signed an exclusive pact with Columbia and was feted by the label's local division at a cocktail party in Maxim's (24). Davis' new Columbia single is "Whoever Finds This, I Love You" — performed beautifully by the artist during the party. As a matter of fact, everyone present was very much impressed with Mac Davis, the performer. He was great! . . . Sig Sakowicz headed out to the west coast to cover Oscar Awards ceremonies — for the eleventh consecutive year. He'll be bringing back taped celeb interviews for airing on his WGN and WTAQ shows . . . Among singles making it at United Record Dist. are the Simtec and Wylie follow-up "Put An Extra Plus To Your Love", "Mama's Baby & Daddy's Maybe" by Swampdog (Canyon), "Too Much Love" by Faith Hope & Charity (Maxwell) and "Love Is Going To Tear Your Playhouse Down" by Chuck Brooks (Volt).

Paul Cohen, Country Pioneer, Dies At 64

ASHVILLE — Paul Cohen, a pioneer country music, died on Wednesday, pril 1, in a nursing home in Bryan, exas, after a long illness. He was 64 ears old.

With Decca Records as a producer r over a quarter of a century, Cohen gned to the label a roster of acts that cludes a sizable number of country eats. Among those he pacted are ed Foley, Webb Pierce, Kitty Wells, oretta Lynn, Jimmy Wakely, Bob ills, Ernest Tubb, Jimmy Davis, oldie Hill, Bobby Helm, Mel Tillis id the Wilburn Brothers. Cohen was a ng-time friend and associate of Owen radley, who now heads Decca's Nash- lle office.

Cohen left Decca to form his own la- el, Todd Records, in 1960, and among those he signed to the diskery was Mother Maybelle Carter of the famous Carter Family. Cohen disbanded his company and went to work for Kapp, and following that, he was with ABC-Paramount.

The famed producer was president of the Country Music Association in 1957.

Funeral services were held on Friday, April 3, at Callaway Jones Funeral Home in Bryan, Texas, and Cohen was buried in College Station Cemetery in College Station, Texas. His family requested that donations intended for flowers be sent instead to the American Cancer Society.

Cohen is survived by his wife, Cecelia; a son, Paul, Jr., a sister, Rose; and a brother, David.

Welfare' Controversy

ASHVILLE — When United States resident Richard Nixon invited Johny Cash to perform "Welfare Cadilac" efore 250 world dignitaries in Washgton April 17, he also uncorked a andora's box of adverse criticism, rimarily from the Nation's welfare gencies.

"Welfare Cadilac", termed by one elfare commissioner as "derogatory" welfare recipients, was included in group of three requests; the others eing "A Boy Named Sue" and "Okie rom Muskogee".

After a great deal of deliberation, ash asked the President to allow him omit "Welfare Cadilac" from the ow. Whereupon Guy Drake, writer nd artist of the hit song, who states e song was written for amusement nly, offered to attend the reception nd peform his "Welfare Cadilac" for e delegation.

To date President Nixon has made o comment.

Picks of the Week

SONNY JAMES (Capitol 2782)
My Love (2:47) (Duchess, BMI--Hatch)
Already climbing the charts with this one, the Southern Gentleman is bound to have another winner on his hands. "My Love" is a powerhouse ode destined for top chart action. Flip: "Blue For You" (2:15) (Marson, BMI—Skye)

JERRY LEE LEWIS (Sun 1115)
I Can't Seem To Say Goodbye (2:30) (Don Robertson, ASCAP—Robertson)
This potent deck from the Sun vaults should prove a winning chart item. Even Jerry Lee's old material is great, and "I Can't Seem To Say Goodbye" sounds as though it were recorded yesterday. Sure smash. No information available on the flip side at this time.

MEL TILLIS (Kapp 2086)
Heart Over Mind (2:53) (Cedarwood, BMI—Tillis)
Mel Tillis is now with MGM, but he left behind at least one hit deck at Kapp. "Heart Over Mind" is a real solid outing and should be taking off immediately. Flip: "Lingering Memories" (2:01) (Sawgrass, BMI—Black)

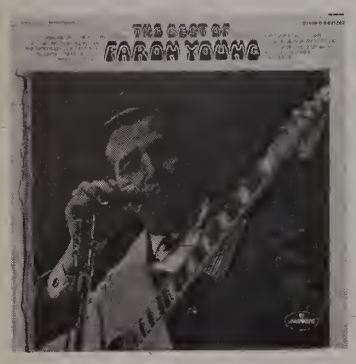
CashBox Country LP Reviews

THE BEST OF JERRY LEE LEWIS — Smash SRS 67131

Mercury has just released a flock of "Best Of" albums in the country category, and leading the list is this Jerry Lee Lewis package. Set contains a host of biggies, including "She Even Woke Me Up To Say Goodbye," "Once More With Feeling," "What's Made Milwaukee Famous (Has Made A Loser Out Of Me)" and "She Still Comes Around (To Love What's Left Of Me)." Should be on the charts soon."



THE BEST OF FARON YOUNG — MERCURY SR 61267

This hit-packed package is certain to attract Faron Young's many fans, who will find the set a treasure from beginning to end. Teeing off with "Wine Me Up," Faron goes on to sing 10 other goodies including "She Went A Little Bit Farther," "Wonderful World Of Women" and "I've Got Precious Memories." There's lots of good listening in these grooves, as lots of good sales will prove in the coming weeks.

THE SINGING STORY TELLER — Johnny Cash — Sun 115

Here's another album of Johnny Cash oldies from the Sun label. Cash collectors, who make up a sizeable chunk of the record buying public in both country and economy-priced pop markets, will want to pick up on the LP, which contains eleven cuts including "Goodbye Little Darling" "I Could Never Be Ashamed Of You," "The Ways Of A Woman In Love" and "Come In Stranger." Bound to be nice chart action on this one.

COUNTRY GIRL — Jeannie C. Riley — Plantation PLP 8

Titled after her latest single hit, Jeannie C. Riley's new album is a strong effort that's bound to do great things for her. The songstress is in top form on this one as she offers eleven contagious tracks, among them (in addition to "Country Girl") "Am I That Easy To Forget," "I Almost Called Your Name" and "Darling Days." Save a spot on your shelves for this package, and look for it on the charts.

THE BEST OF GEORGE MORGAN — Starday SLP 457

Should be a goodly number of spins and sales in the cards for George Morgan with this album, which showcases him in a dozen of his most well-received performances. Set includes "Candy Kisses," "Live And Let Live And Be Happy," "Almost" and "Please Don't Let Me Love You." George's devotees should be mightily pleased with this one.

GROOVY GRUBWORM AND OTHER GOLDEN GUITAR GREATS — Harlow Wilcox & the Oakies — Plantation PLP 7

Harlow Wilcox and the Oakies had a #1 single hit with the infections instrumental, "Groovy Grubworm," and this follow-up album should be a sizeable item, too. Besides the title track, the set contains eleven more groovy instrumentals including "Walk, Don't Run," "Golden Guitar Flower" and "Guitar Boogie." Put this one on your list of disks to watch closely. It should be showing up on the charts in short order.

WE'RE GONNA GET TOGETHER — Buck Owens & Susan Raye — Capitol ST 448

Buck Owens and Susan Raye got together for a single hit called "We're Gonna Get Together," and now they get together again for an album of duets that shapes up as a real winner for them. Set contains "Everybody Needs Somebody," "Together Again," "We Were Made For Each Other" and of course "We're Gonna Get Together," as well as a flock of other appealing tunes. Chart material.

THE BEST OF DAVE DUDLEY — Mercury SR 61268

With a package like this, you just can't lose, and Dave Dudley, who doesn't make a habit of losing anyway, is sure to win a spot on the charts with his "Best of" LP. "Truck Drivin' Son-Of-A-Gun," "Six Days On The Road," "George (And The North Woods)" and "Please Let Me Prove (My Love For You)" are just four of the tracks on an album filled with winners. A must stock item.

FANCY —Bobbie Gentry — Capitol ST 428

Bobbie Gentry is one of the ever-increasing number of artists who appeal to both pop and country listeners, and her new album should endear her further to both types of fan. Starting the set off with her latest hit single, "Fancy," the songstress comes across with a very strong set which includes "I'll Never Fall In Love Again," "Delta Man," and her new single, "He Made A Woman Out Of Me." Should be a fine chart future on tap for "Fancy." Give it your full attention.

(Con't. from Page 51)

Picks of the Week

BUCK OWENS & SUSAN RAYE (Capitol 4999)
Togetherness (2:10) (Blue Book, BMI — Hart)
Buck Owens & Susan Raye have a current hit with "We're Gonna Get Together," and they should follow up nicely with "Togetherness." Look for this one on the charts. Flip: "Fallin' For You" (1:51) (Blue Book, BMI — Owens, Rich, Owens)

BOBBIE GENTRY (Capitol 2788)
He Made A Woman Out Of Me (2:32) (Green Isle, BMI — Burch, Hill)
Bobbie's last single, "Fancy," was a big record, and "He Made A Woman Out Of Me," a strong, feelingful love session, should be another sizeable item for her. Watch this one rise. Flip: "Billy The Kid" (2:03) (Larry Shayne, ASCAP — Gentry)

ANTHONY ARMSTRONG JONES (Chart 5064)
Lead Me Not Into Temptation (3:03) (Marson, BMI — Hollingsworth)
Should be heaps of spins and sales in the cards for Anthony Armstrong Jones with "Lead Me Not Into Temptation." Side is a heart-rending romancer that's certain to appeal to loads of listeners. Flip: "One For The Road" (2:23) (Yonah, BMI — Anderson)

GEORGE HAMILTON IV (RCA 9829)
She's A Little Bit Country (2:32) (Wilderness, BMI — Howard)
Here's a happy love song from George Hamilton IV that should gladden the hearts of many a C&W fan who's listened to one too many records about unhappy romances. Flip: "My Nova Scotia Home" (2:21) (Hank Snow, BMI — Snow)

BUDDY ALAN (Capitol 4997)
Down In New Orleans (2:27) (Blue Book, BMI — Owens)
Buddy Alan offers a rousing ditty that should do very good things for him. Keep very close tabs on "Down In New Orleans." It could be a biggie. Flip: "I've Never Had A Dream Come True Before" (2:22) (Blue Book, BMI — Alan)

HANK THOMPSON (Dot 17347)
But That's All Right (2:09) (Tree, BMI — Lane)
Look out for Hank Thompson to have a fast-moving outing in his possession with "But That's All Right." Song has strength and merits close attention. Flip: "Take It All Away" (2:01) (Texoma, ASCAP — Thompson)

LEONA WILLIAMS (Hickory 1565)
Yes, Ma'm (He Found Me In A Honky Tonk)
Leona Williams has an excellent voice, she really knows how to put a song across, and she could very well become a C&W star. Her latest effort, "Yes, Ma'm (He Found Me In A Honky Tonk)," should not be missed. Flip: "This Ain't A Home No More" (2:18) (Acuff-Rose, BMI — Stewart)

CURTIS POTTER (Dot 17348)
It's My Day (2:03) (Tree, BMI — Lane)
With the proper exposure, Curtis Potter could have a real hit on his hands with "It's My Day." Deck is a powerful, bittersweet ode that shouldn't be overlooked. Flip: "My First Stop Is Omaha" (3:16) (Tuneville, BMI — Steagall)

Best Bets

JOHNNY MOORE (Hickory 1567)
Gonna Come In Like A Lion (1:50) (Buckhorn, BMI-Moore, Jones) Johnny Moore declares to his lady that his wishy-washy days are over. Deck could please. "The Devil Caresses My Soul" (2:52) (Southtown, BMI-Myrick)

HILLARY NIXON HAWKINS (Wide World 1004)
I Know What It Means To Be Lonesome (1:59) Reflective song could do nice things for songster Hillary Nixon Hawkins. Eye it. Flip: "Give A Fool A Second Chance" (2:22) (Braeburn, BMI-Hawkins)

GEORGE LEWIS (Hi-Lowe 1452)
Drink To Remember (Ante-Bellum, ASCAP-Lewis) George Lewis might gain attention with this sorrowful ode. Give it a listen. Flip: "It's All Over Now" (Beauregard-Clayton, Star-Lowe-Brown)

CARL PERKINS (Columbia 45132)
State Of Confusion (2:50) (Cedarwood, BMI-Perkins) Might be commendable sales on tap for Carl Perkins with this one. Try it. Flip: "My Son, My Gun" (3:32) (Cedarwood, BMI-Perkins)

JOHNNY CARVER (Imperial 66442)
Harvey Harrington IV (2:50) (Tree, BMI-Kemp, Vickery) Brisk-paced toetapper could go somewhere for Johnny Carver. Give it a spin. Flip: Gonna Come In Like A Lion (1:50) (Buckhorn, BMI-Moore, Jones)

RUBY WRIGHT (Plantation 51)
Yester-Me, Yester-You, Yesterday (2:24) (Stein & Van Stock, BMI-Bristol) Cover of the Stevie Wonder pop hit might make country noise for Ruby Wright. Scan it. No information available on the flip side at this time.

BILL CARLISLE (Chart 5065)
Dirty Old Man (2:12) (Window, BMI-Merritt) Lend an ear to Bill Carlisle's latest effort. It could gain airplay and sales. Flip: "Big Wheel From Boston" (2:00) (Peach, BMI-Dowdy)

MARGIE SINGLETON (Ashley 35002)
All That Loved Is Gone (2:40) (Al Gallico, BMI-Ashley, Singleton) Heartfelt lament could garner attention for Margie Singleton. Give it a spin. Flip: "Blindness Of The Wife" (1:57) (Ashmar, BMI-Ashley, Singleton)

Big suspense, overflow passions and a public nearly out of control, at the packed Teatro de los Ferrocarrileros, was the frame of the closing performance of the II Festival de la Cancion Latina en el Mundo. It was, no doubt, Jose Jose whose possibilities of making first place for him and for Roberto Cantoral's "El Triste" was one of the main reasons for the full house that night.

Things came out quite differently; Jose Jose hardly made third, while Venezuela reached second with Mirla singing "Con Los Brazos Cruzados" and the place of honor went to Brazil with "Cancion de Amor y Paz" in Claudia Brasil's beautiful voice. The surprise number was "Soy un Ciego" with Mauricio Pena from Nicaragua that reached 7th place ahead of some of the big favorites such as Claudio Villa of Italy. Here are the Festival's final results: 1. "Cancion de Amor y Paz", Claudia Brasil, (Brazil); 2. "Con Los Brazos Cruzados", Mirla, (Venezuela); 3. "El Triste", Jose Jose, (Mexico); 4. "Perdido Por No Encontrarte", Roberto Darwin, (Uraguay); 5. "Te Amo Como Entonces", Sergio Denis, (Argentina); 6. "Belle Tortorelle", Pilar Tomas, (Francia); 7. "Yo Soy Un Ciego", Mauricio Pena, (Nicaragua); The Best Female Interpreter Award to Claudia Brasil; the Best Male Interpreter Award to Claudio Villa (Italy); The Best Score and Words Award to "Cancion de Amor y Paz" (Brazil); the Best Arranger Award to Aldemaro Romero (Venezuela) for his score of "Con Los Brazos Cruzados".

On its way to Malta, in the Mediterranean Sea, is an important shipment of Capitol records. The order came from a broadcasting station, asking, among others for Cesar Costa's "Paloma Negra". Posters and other advertising material are being sent, too, the Int'l Division of Discos Capitol de Mexico reported.

Discos Peerless have granted exclusive rights to Trova Industrias Musicales, S.A., for all product distribution in Argentina beginning April 1, Mr. Renne Vera, Peerless Int'l. dist. manager, reported. Promotional activities were personally coordinated by Trova's general manager, Alfredo I. Rodoszynsky and Alejandro Zaldivar, Peerless Delegate General Manager, during his stay in Buenos Aires. The first releases include material by Mexican artists such as Marco Antonio Vazquez, Rosario de Alba and Los Babys.

Abilio Manoel, Brazilian chanter now in Mexico, will soon cut an EP for Discos Capitol with four of his numbers translated to Spanish for local consumption. Abilio Manoel is one of the genuine representatives of the romantic Brazilian folklore. One of his big hits is "Mi Calle".

The applause of the week to RCA which, as soon as The II Festival de la Cancion Latina en el Mundo was over, released five numbers in their original versions. "Con Los Brazos Cruzados" with Mirla (Venezuela); "Per Te Amore" with Claudio Villa (Italy); "Tocaran Mi Guitarra" with Oscar (Spain); "Todas Las Mananas" with Morucha (Spain) and "El Triste" with Jose Jose (Mexico).

The death of Felix Lipesker, manager of Korn Publishers and one of the leaders of the music publishing business in Argentina, last week, has been deeply regretted by the whole trade. Lipesker had recently suffered an hepatic illness, and couldn't recover from it.

As one of the results of the last trip of RCA's General Manager, Adolfo Pino, to Italy, the diskery is starting its own artist managing enterprise, although the name of its director hasn't been disclosed yet. The managing agency will operate mainly in the International market, arranging tours for its artists, and with the TV channels. Among the names already signed for it are Donald, one of the top chanters of 1969, Tormenta and Diego Verdaguer.

Music Hall's Luis Calvo infos about the release of the album by beat group Trocha Angosta in Venezuela, and contacts established with other Spanish-speaking countries where the Music Hall reps are interested in releasing beat music from Argentina. MH has a strong roster, with names like Banana, Luz de Mercurio, La Barra de Chocolate, Sabu and newcomer Percy, and finds exportable values in many of them.

Speaking about beat music, Disc Jockey has released the second LP by the group Pintura Fresca, produced also by Ricardo Kleinman. The first LP by this group has sold very well, and since their latest single, "Looky Looky" has been also a good chart rider, the same results are expected by DJ's topper, Rodriguez Luque.

Fermata's Mauricio Brenner feels enthusiastic about the sale of "El Arc de Noe," the strong San Remo tune recorded by the label's Sergio Endrigo. The tune is on the charts and is climbing fast. On the Brazilian side, there is a new single by one of the top names of that country, Jorge Ben, "Que Maravilla"; from Italy, once more, another single by Claudio Villa: "Sole Dal Mattino".

Phonogram infos about the contracting of producer Hector Techeiro, previously with CBS, who will handle pop recordings for the diskery, and the trip of folk group Los Fronterizos to the States, for performances at the Carnegie Hall in New York. Other folk artists, Jaime Torres and Ariel Ramirez, will also travel to the States, for appearances in Washington.

CBS infos about its new April releases which include an LP chantress Amelita Baltar, with music composed by Astor Piazzolla, and a selection LP tagged "Beat 70" and carrying tunes by groups like Los Nuafragos, Hielo (recently contracted by CBS), duet Pedroy Pablo and successful group Safari.

Odeon is releasing the new single by John and Ono Lennon, "Instant Karma", which appears as a sure winner, and a new LP by vet tango chantress Tita Merello, one of the strongest names in the tango field. There is also the soundtrack from "Hawaii Five-O" and a new single by British chanter Mel Williams, currently living in Argentina, and also a new one by the Trio Galleta, with "Travelling Band", cover of the Creedence Clearwater Revival hit.

Peppino Giannini has informed that Reprise and CGD have agreed to extend the term of their contract to the end of the solar year, prolonging it for 9 months. Giannini has declared that he hopes that Reprise will continue its collaboration with C.G.D. for many years to come.

Concerning contract renewals and new representations of American companies in Italy, we heard that Ri-Fi and Kama-Sutra are reaching an agreement. Conversations started during last MIDEM.

Italy is the country of music festivals and song contests. Sanremo is just over, and "Un Disco Per L'estate" (A Record For Your Summer), Italian TV and A.F.I. (Italian Record Industries Association) race is approaching. This contest is organized by A.F.I. with R.A.I. (Italian state controlled sole radio and television company), on a very characteristic basis: A.F.I. members may have one, two or three entries, according to which category they belong i.e. a company which has certain qualifications (like: an important catalogue, recording facilities, pressing plants, "chiffre d'affaire", etc.) will be admitted to A.F.I. in the first, second or third class. Each company will present the records it judges interesting, and a board will consider only the censorship side of the material presented, leaving to the industry the "artistic" and commercial aspects. Next week we expect to be able to give a full list of entries.

In the meantime, the 12th Zecchino D'oro", a contest of songs for children was held at Bologna on March 19th. It was won by a couple: Stefano Romanelli (four years old) and Antonella Baldini (three and a half) with: "La Nave Gelsomina Dirindirindina". The records will be released by Ri-Fi. A song of last year "Volevo Un Gatto Nero" has been published in Japan with title Ku-Roneko No Tango and has been leading the charts for months. We have been told that it has reached 2,500,000 copies sold! The "mini"-contest (mini is referred to size of "artists") was seen in Eurovision and will be broadcast soon in Japan and Argentina.

From various parts we have been asked why Italy has so many music competitions. We will try to give an explanation. Probably two reasons are involved:

I) Italians have always liked contests and competitions of any kind, and this can be traced in all our history. This was probably the first cause to originate song contests.

II) Situation of our Television: It is very difficult for the Italian music industry to plan the promotion of their products, because it is nearly impossible to fix a television appearance (through "routine" programs) in advance, without problems of choice of songs and singers from television authorities. For this reason, record companies participate in festivals that may guarantee a television display for their records. Actually R.A.I. broadcasts such programs as they are (or nearly) without cuts. It is then very important to be present; mainly to promote young new artists, who would meet major problems getting on tv programs. This is probably the reason why song contests have become so important for our industry.

This week we wish to draw attention to the success "La Prima Cosa Bella" is having: it is leading the charts. Keeping the 8th position is the group Ricchi E Proveri, the sole new group that is selling very well after Sanremo.

Another great Italian artist is entering the charts this week — Mina. Her other two records, not from Sanremo, are on the charts: Venus and Let It Be. We have had the opportunity to listen to Numero Uno's last release, an album by Formula 3, with the title "Dies Irae". The group is made up of three artists who are the sole interpreters both vocally and instrumentally. The record, produced by Lucio Battisti, has a remarkable appeal and original sound. We must admit that we have been quite impressed by this record and we expect that it will become a success. The record is distributed by R.C.A., which has a long term agreement with Numero Uno.

From this week on, our chart will be prepared with material we are getting directly and the hit-parades prepared by Italian radio and the professional Italian magazine Musica E Dischi. All this will assure the maximum possible credibility to our chart, in the CB tradition.

Yet another Gold Disk was recently received by maestro Mantovani, this time for sales of over 30,000 for his "The Best of Mantovani" (Decca) album in Holland. This month, Mantovani undertakes a nation wide s.r.o. British tour including two concerts at the Royal Festival Hall, and he is just completing a series of 13 TV spectaculars for the BBC which will be syndicated throughout America. March was selected as "Mantovani Month" in the United States with special promotional tie ups.

Speculation, verbal and fiscal, has begun again in Stock Exchange circles on the possibility of a bid for Decca. Sparking the conjecture this time is the hefty borrowing activities of International Standard Electrical, the wholly owned subsidiary of the huge American International Telephone and Telegraph. Strengthening the rumors is the fact that ITT has been the agent for American Sales of the Decca Navigator Omnitrack system of aircraft navigation and although no longer marketing, this system, ITT is still handling Decca's marine radar business in the States. The company is nearing the £50 million mark in its borrowing, a sum sufficiently near the amount necessary to inititate a bid for Decca.

Warner-Reprise is bowing a new budget album line called Valiant in May. The LPs will be available in stereo only, and will cost 19 shillings and eleven pence — one penny short of £1. The bulk of Valiant product will be drawn from W—R's back catalogue featuring star names such as Sammy Davis Jr., the Everly Brothers, Count Basie, Trini Lopez and Allan Sherman, but several albums will be new to the British market. CBS will handle the distribution of the Valiant line, which will be released in batches of twenty LPs four times each year. W-R managing director Ian Ralfini said he chose CBS on account of the fact that it is the only manufacturing and distributing company which does not have a similar line of its own and because he admires the CBS approach to marketing and promotion. The trade anticipates swift success for Valiant because of the selling names at its disposal becoming available at a cost which will be even more attractive now that full-price albums are about to increase in cost.

Precision Tapes — the joint venture between Pye Records and GRT of America — has set its second manufacturing and distribution deal. From May it will begin releasing A & M product in both cartridge and cassette form under the pact agreed with A & M London chief Larry Yaskiel. Artists figuring in the first release will be Herb Alpert, Sergio Mendes, the Sandpipers, and Judith Durham.

Penny Farthing Records chief Larry Page has signed the Dutch group called George Baker Selection to a three-year deal for Britain. The group's current American hit "Little Green Bag" will be released here by Penny Farthing this month. The label has already issued "Mighty Joe," the follow-up to "Venus" by another chart-parading Dutch group, Shocking Blue. Page has named Bruce MacLean as the newest addition to Penny Farthing's exploitation department. American-born MacLean joins from Sonet Music, and prior to that was an Acuff-Rose staffman. Terry Noon, in charge of Penny Farthing's publishing subsidiary Page Full of Hits, has named Dave Williams as professional manager. Williams, formerly with Chappell Music, has latterly been working on promotion and record production for Nems Enterprises.

BBC radio's "Jazz Club" paid tribute to the late Ted Heath March 29th with a concert played by 21 former members of his orchestra conducted by Jack Parnell, his first drummer. Disk jockey Alan Dell hosted the show, the recording of which in the BBC's Camden Threater studio was attended by Corporation executive including Douglas Muggeridge, Donald MacLean, Mark White, producer Teddy Warrick, Terry Henebery and Yvonne Littlewood from BBC TV, and Mrs. Moira Heath and other members of the bandleader's family. The program was broadcast on the BBC's Radios 1 and 2 channels and in stereo on Radio 3. Others in the audience comprised people connected with Heath's career in music and young jazz groups and students.

Radio Andorra is the latest foreign-based station to try infiltration of the Britsh airwaves. On the morning of March 22nd it broadcast a three-hour test transmission tagged "Manificent Morning Machine" hosted by disk jockeys Sebastien Stone and Christopher Jay. Thirty minutes of the program was devoted to UPC label product featuring Shakane, Barbara Windsor, Tikki, Takki, Suzy and Lies, Peter and the Wolves and the Marcello Minerbi orchestra. Meanwhile the department of the Director of public Prosecutions has been notified of the activities of Radio Nordsee, based aboard a boat off the Dutch coast.

Carlin Music's London chief Paul Rich has realigned his promotion team following the appointment of Dave Most to run his brother Mickie's Enquiry Music enterprise under Carlin's administrative banner. The team is Bill Fowler, Don Reedman, who recently joined from Welbeck Music, and Ian Warner, and former Cyril Shane Organization staffer. Reedman also has responsiblity for placing copyrights with disk producers and artist managers. Rich has set deals for two more subsidiary companies called Solmusica and Big John Music. The first is in partnership with accountant Larry Drizon and songwriter Charles Blackwell, and one of its initial properties is Blackwell's "Baby I've Come Home" recorded by Lee Vanderbilt for the Chapter One label. Big John Music is in conjunction with Johnny Goodison, formerly a CBS staff producer and now independent. An upcoming Carlin copyright is the next single by The Hollies called "Can't Tell The Bottom From The Top" which was written by Guy Fletcher and Doug Flett and will be released this month.

Hit parading Jamaican duo Bob and Marcia are here for two months on a schedule arranged by Trojan Records and Commercial Entertainments. They scored here with "Young, Gifted And Black", and their producer Harry Johnson accompanied them to record a single and album here before the twosome start a round of club and cabaret dates and TV spots.

Milton Samuel's Beacon Records is launching a series of LP's with a non-musical concept beginning this month with a study of student leader Tariq Ali which has been produced by disk jockey David Symonds. Samuel plans a total of six albums in the series this year, including one by the controversial Northern Ireland Member of Parliament Bernadette Devlin. Lawson Associates has been set up as part of the Beacon organization and will handle Beacon acts including Bobbie Bridger and Black Velvet. Samuel and Don Lawson are co-managing directors of the new division.

Chappell Music pop division head Stuart Reid has fixed two deals for subsidiary publishing companies under the Chappell aegis. One is Keyboard Chappell in partnership with Lord Derby's Keyboard Music enterprise, and will publish copyrights by Harlan County, who record for the Carnaby label. The second is Our Songs, which will handle material by Fairfield Parlor, contracted to the Philips group progressive label Vertigo.

Brian Auger has signed a pact with RCA through his new Nasty Production company, whose managing director is his manager, Mafalda Hall. The deal covers Auger and his group the Trinity and two other artists whom Auger will produce. His first LP is set for May release, and the pact marks RCA's entry into the progressive music market.

Welbeck Music chief Len Beadle has upped promotion man Eddie Levy to the post of professional manager, and named songwriter Ron Roker as Levy's successor in the exploitation department. Welbeck, Pye's publishing arm, is becoming active in the progressive field as a parallel project with Pye's Dawn label, and Beadle has signed Dawn acts such as Welcome, Noir, Trader Horne, The Good Earth and Demon Fuzz to exclusive writing contracts. Welbeck hosted a party March 19th for Don Kirshner, with whom it has a catalogue deal.

Colin Hunnable has been named EMI Records press officer in succession to Pat Pretty, who has joined Tony Barrow International. Hunnable began his press and public relations career with the Ford Motor Company, followed by a stint with Leslie Perrin Associates before general freelancing in the entertainment world.

Philips, Polydor and CBS have announced their price increase and left EMI somewhat out on a limb in the process. The key factor - the 5% returns allowance - which EMI has abolished altogether is retained by Philips and Polydor on their singles and kept by CBS on all product. This allowance, the abolition of which did most to provoke the ire of the disk retail trade, is regarded by many as being the last hope of new artists in breaking through. With virtually no exposure outlets available to the new acts in radio or TV, this provision is about the only inducement for disk dealers to take a chance on stocking singles by unknowns. Polydor, however, has tempered the retention of the allowance by hiking its single price from eight shillings and sixpence to nine shillings and threepence - the only company to do so to date. Polydor managing director John Fruin declared that the company will be very selective about its single release policy, and reckons that good singles will sell as well at the new cost as they did at the old. Polydor is reorganizing its LP operation into four categories: a bottom price line at 19 shillings and ten pence, the classical section of which will comprise repackaged and reissued best selling material from the Heliodor label which is to be axed; Polydor Standard, which will cost 29 shillings and ten pence - a reduction from 37 shillings and sixpence - and carry standard repertoire and new acts; Polydor Super, which will cost 42 shillings and sixpence, will issue top sellers like the Who, Cream, Bert Kaempfert and James Last, and Polydor De Luxe which at 47 shillings and sixpence will carry classical repertoire and special sets. Philips is keeping its single and budget line prices the same, raising its mid price 28 shillings and seven pence material to 29 shillings and eleven pence, and its pop LPs climb from 37 shillings and sixpence to 39 shillings and eleven pence. Its progressive Vertigo line goes up by two shillings and sixpence to 45 shillings, which is the new price of its classical repertoire. CBS pop albums and classical material rise by the same margin, its mid price classical range and the Realm jazz line become one shilling and five pence dearer at 29 shillings and eleven pence, and its multi record sets are also climbing by various amounts, depending on material. Decca is making no alteration, and Pye is awaiting the Budget details from Chancellor Roy Jenkins before deciding on any charges.

A keen bid battle is developing around the future of Novello and Co. Music Sales (UK), the first interested party, has hiked its offer by £2.10.0 to £27.10.0 for each Novello Ordinary share; the Granada Group is offering its A Ordinary shares or £30 per share to Novello stockholders, and the latest entrant in the fiscal fray, Mount Securities, is campaigning at £31.10 shillings for each ordinary share in the big educational publishing firm. Before this latter bid became known, the Novello board was recommending stockholders to accept the Granada deal, and another improved offer from Music Sales (UK) is considered likely.

Immediate Records went into voluntary liquidation March 18th at a crowded meeting of creditors with an estimated deficiency of £264,993. Immediate director Andrew Loog Oldham attended the meeting and it was announced that the other director, Tony Calder, had resigned last December. The reasons given by Immediate for its present position was the rising cost of studio and recording facilities, inadequate book-keeping and excessive expenditure on advance royalty payments to artists. A liquidator and a committee of investigation were appointed to conduct further investigations into the company's affairs in behalf of the creditors.

Singles stopped slumping last November, according to Ministry of Technology statistics. The 45 r.p.m. production total for the month was 4,303,000, 13% up on November 1968. LP production rose by only 3% at 6,237,000, and overall production was 7% higher at 10,550,000. November sales were the same as for 1968 at £3.8, with home sales 5% higher but exports slumping to 20% below the previous year's record total. In the eleven months ending last November, sales showed a 6% increase on the corresponding period in 1968, with exports 14% higher.

Phonogram Wins Bootleg Battle

AMSTERDAM — Since early Feb. six major retailers in Holland have been selling a bootleg Bob Dylan album called "Little White Wonder". Tapes for this album arrived in Holland through underground channels and were recorded as demos by Dylan in a Woodstock basement.

In mid-Feb. a group of major retailers advertised in Holland's underground weekly Aloha with the forthcoming release of a bootleg Rolling Stones album, called "Berkeley Concert", recorded live during the recent Rolling Stones U.S. tour. The official release-date was March 16. Later a retail price of 12.80 guilders ($3.50) was announced. However, on March 12 N.V. Phonogram Amsterdam (as distributor of the Decca label) decided to take action. The company sent out letters to all Dutch retailers, stating that the recording was a pirate LP made without the knowledge or permission of the Rolling Stones. Release of the album would be illegal, the letter said, and N.V. Phonogram would not hesitate to take action against any retailer selling the album.

N.V. Phonogram succeeded in stopping bootleg records at this early state. On March 13, some of the major retailers withdrew from the bootleg business, while the others delayed the release date. A few days later they also decided to withdraw officially, which meant the end of selling bootleg records through official retailers in Holland.

Phonodisc Appointments

TORONTO — Don McKim, president of Phonodisc Limited has announced new appointments and personnel moves involving its eastern and central division staffs.

Doug Byrne, formerly sales rep for Phonodisc in Montreal, moves up to the post of Division Manager, Eric Young and Jean Luc Dionne join the sales staff with Mrs. Dianne Pocetti responsible for customer service.

Laurency Heseltine takes over the post of national production manager and Skip Fox as promotion manager with Derrett Lee joining the sales staff. These latter moves involve the central division in Toronto.

New Phonodisc rep in Winnipeg is Gordon Kardashinski.

Lou Christie On Second Euro Tour

NEW YORK — Buddah recording artist Lou Christie is on his second tour of England and the Continent within three months. Aside from playing cabaret and concert dates in England, he will also be appearing on television. Buddah released his recording of "Sweet London Lady" in Great Britain to coincide with his appearances. The singer's dates were set up by the Arthur Howes Agency in England.

Ensemble To Euro

The New York Rock & Roll Ensemble will embark on their first European tour April 26 at the Golden Rose Festival in Montreux, Switzerland, and continuing with many universities and clubs in England. The group will be in Europe for 13 days.

The Ensemble's latest album, "Reflections" will be released by Atco Records in England, to coincide with the groups tour.

CAPAC Lights Up Darkened Centre

TORONTO — CAPAC, in conjunction with record companies, has set up a series of Saturday events to bring life to the sometimes darkened new St. Lawrence Centre. Other days of theatre darkening will also be considered by the Saturday, Sunday and Sometimes Committee. Kick-off show featured GRT's Magic Cycle, The Tote Family from the newly bowed CHUM production house, and Brutus from Quality Records. CAPAC's Lou Applebaum explained the purpose of the showings were to familiarize the groups with local audiences, who will pay $2 per head for the concert.

The first three groups, all represented by CAPAC writers, have had mild to excellent action of their disk releases. The Magic Cycle, who picked up national chart listings with their release of "Groovy Things" are expected to release a follow-up shortly. Bob Robertson, CKXL Calgary personality believed in the disk so strongly, it has now been revived as an "oldie". Brutus have had a good showing with their release of "Funky Roller Skates" and the Tote Family are expected to release shortly.

2 Stahl Songs To Reed's Catalog

STOCKHOLM — Less Reed has acquired Felix Stahl's "Tvaa Minuter" and "No Time Like Now, My Love", the latter with English lyric by Fred Jay. Stahl's songs include "Many Times" for Eddie Fisher and Percy Faith, "Tomorrow I'll Dream and Remember" for Rosemary Clooney, and, recently, "Souvenirs" for Frankie Vaughan. Recordings of the new songs are now being lined up different countries. In Sweden with Frank Corvini for Philips and in Denmark with Joergen "Apache" Ingmann for Metronome, for general release. Among the foreign artists who are considering the new songs, is Mireille Mathieu, the famous French singer.

Canadian Rock Fests: 'Peace' Passe By Spring's End?

TORONTO — Toronto promoters, as usual, are jumping on a bandwagon with enough enthusiasm and competition to kill it. Shaping up is the biggest exploitation and killing of "peace" that could make the very word, passe, by the time all the peace festivals, and trains are set to bow.

Although John Lennon's initial proposals for a Toronto Peace Festival were honorable, it has mushroomed into a hub of catch alls. First indication of unrest was the sudden pulling out of the Toronto Festival by Lennon and his mate Yoko. Apparently Lennon wanted this to be a free deal. The other promoters connected with the Festival however, came up with some pretty astounding cost figures levied by the Ontario Government which would make the Festival a financial disaster even before opening day.

In spite of these problems, promoters for the original Peace Festival '70 are going ahead, that is, if they can have the event through the approval of county laws which have been the big threat to date. One Festival with "peace" removed from the title but nevertheless included in the promo'ing was the Toronto Rock Festival Mar. 25-26. Held at Varsity Arena the lineup included: Canned Heat, MC5, Amboy Dukes, Raven, Bloodstone, Parliaments, Luke and The Apostles, Brutus, Duck, Leigh Ashford, Whiskey Howl and many others. Another Varsity event is Peace Festival which is skedded for June 19 through the 21st. A very monied group have come up with the idea of a mobile caravan which apparently won't be dubbed "peace" in any way but observers are betting on many "peace" overtones. This "sound train" will apparently take many big names to stadiums in Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and Vancouver. Dates have tentatively been set as from June 24 through July 5th.

The only sound project, The Mariposa, an annual folk get together is set for July 24 through the 26th and expected to be even bigger, in acts and crowds this year.

Meanwhile, Montreal promoters continue to make their counterparts in Toronto look small potatoes. Montreal still leads the way for presenting the big crowd draws with Vancouver running a close second.

GRT Montreal Offices

MONTREAL — The opening of GRT of Canada's new Quebec branch offices, in Montreal, saw one of the wildest and fun lasting get togethers of press, radio, key dealers in many a moon. GRT hired out the popular Laugh-In discotheque and with free booze and food for all comers, threw open the doors which filled the club within minutes. Helping the kick-off ceremonies was Ron Scribner's group, Detroit's Funkadelics and Parliaments. The Funkadelics record for Westbound which will now be distributed by GRT of Canada. Hosting the show was GRT's Canadian president Ross Reynolds and tieing in the whole show with artist and audience coordination was the label's national sales manager Ed LaBuick. U.S. reps from Chess Check, GRT and many others connected with GRT were in attendance including Mort Wax, New York publicist.

After a free swinging and exhausting session up stairs in the club, everyone moved downstairs for food, more booze and a listen to the Flirtations, a large brassy and well put together group with nine members hailing from Montreal.

Jim Corbett is the new branch manager for the Quebec operation and is backed with a fully bilingual sales and promotion staff.

Metromedia In Spain Via Fabrica Discos

NEW YORK — Ivan Mogull has negotiated representation of Metromedia Records repertoire in Spain through Fabrica de Discos Columbia, S.A. Enrique Garea of Fabrica said he plans immediate exploitation of the label in his country. Representing Metromedia in the deal was Jay Morgenstern.

Terry King (seated) signs five year production deal with B&C Records. Douglas Mew, the label's A&R chief looks on. The deal involves B&C releasing one single every six weeks and one LP every two months.

BRUSSELS — Will Tura is on his first visit to the U.S. Tura is the Palette label's number 1 artist, having received three MIDEM trophies for sales of his disks in Belgium. He's visiting the States as a tourist and performer.

Brit. Disk Output Up In Nov.

LONDON — Latest Board of Trade figures show that pressings of records in November at 10,559,000 were 7% higher than in the corresponding month of 1968. Production of 45 and 33 1/3rd rpm records increased by 13% and 3%, respectively. During the eleven months to the end of November 1969, production was 7% higher than in the equivalent period of 1968 with pressings of 45 rpm records 6% lower and those of 33 1/3rd rpm 21% higher. Total sales at £3.8 million were at the same level in November 1969 as in November 1968. Home sales were 5% higher but export sales following the increases of September and October were 20% below the record high level of November 1968. In the eleven months to November total sales were 6% higher than in the same period of 1968 with exports 14% higher.

Canadian Productions Increase 25%

TORONTO — What is turning out to be an obvious affront to Canadian broadcasters and without any intent is the stepped up record production and its acceptance across Canada.

Although foreign produced Canadian content is still prevalent, the home grown variety is now starting to become preferred. "You Me And Mexico" by Capitol's Edward Bear, taped at Toronto's Eastern Sound Studios, is leading the way for 100% Canadian produced sessions. The Gamma lid of "To Love Means To Be Free" by Anthony Green and Barry Stagg, taped at RCA's Montreal studios has gained good exposure across the country. The Poppy Family are still showing good form with their London deck "That's Where I Went Wrong" which was cut at Vancouver's R&D Studios. Another Vancouver group, Spring, have also been picking up excellent airplay with their Coast single "As Feelings Go".

Sebastian, popular Montreal singer, is now being recognized after months of release of his Apex single "Now That It's Over". Reason for recognition of this 100% Canadian content recording is the fact that several major U.S. markets have picked up on the single which has been released in the U.S. on the Decca label. One of the newest releases and one that is picking up tremendous action from coast to coast is the RCA release of "If You're Lookin" by Tranquillity Base. This single was taped at RCA's Toronto studios and the label is currently launching a massive national promotion campaign to punch home the quality of the record and the fact that it is a 100% Canadian content recording. This single also received a simultaneous U.S. release. Another single which grabbed almost immediate national airplay is the Modern Tape disk release of "Living On A Wishbone" by Bobby G. Griffiths. This single was cut at RCA's Toronto studios and stole some of the Ronnie Hawkins thunder when it was previewed for jocks flown in to Toronto for a combined Hawkins/MTCC bash where they were introduced to Hawkins' new band. Local Toronto disco owner Francois Jourdan has found an un-

CLOSING THE GENERATION GAP — Representing all the performers on the "Hour Of The Stars" album, Udo Juergens (left) hands over a check for 2 million DM ($540,000) to Wilhelmine Luebke, honorary president of the German "Altershilfe" (old age relief) and the "Muettergenesungswerk" (maternity home). The transaction takes place in the presence of the President of the Federal Republic Heinemann (right) and the check represents the net profit of the sales of one million copies of the album.

Cash Box Holland

Happy times for the thousands of Creedence Clearwater Revival fans in Holland. On April 11 this phenominal group will give two live-concerts in Rotterdam. One of the most played and talked about records which have been released in Holland lately is Tony Joe White's exciting "Groupy Girl." Boyema's Joop Visser expressed his high hopes for this single. Boyema recently released an LP with single-hits like "Hey Jude", "Can't Buy Me Love", "Lady Madonna", Ballad of John & Yoko by The Beatles.

Last week it was Capitol Country time in Holland. Six attractive priced Country & Western samplers were released then. Heavy advertising, promotion and a good deal of airplay have already placed this series one week after release in the best-selling category.

The most famous E.M.I. tenor in the world Nicolai Gedda will visit Holland at the end of April giving three concerts in Amsterdam, Rotterdam and The Hague with the Dutch soprano Cristina Deutekom.

Immediately after the Eurovision Song Festival N.V. Phonogram rush-released the winning Eurovision Contest song "All Kinds Of Everything" by Dana (Decca). The first days sales of the record were very impressive. Dana was front-page news during many days after the contest and the record is on every station's playlist. She returned to Holland on March 31, to perform in "Voor De Vuist Weg", Holland's no. 1 TV-show.

U.S. Mercury star Jerry Butler arrived in Holland last week as a part of his European tour. N.V. Phonogram threw a press-reception at the Amsterdam-Hilton, while Butler was the featured guest at the Jam-TV-show. Blue Mink, Dave Dee and Brotherhood of Man arrived in Holland to promote their new records on the Doebidoe TV-show. The three British top acts gave N.V. Phonogram a fine share in the show again.

One of the top personalities on Dutch television is Eva Gloria Lopez, an actress on the national Spanish Language TV-course. The beautiful Miss Lopez recorded two songs, "Vamos A Ver" and "Mira Que Dia" for N.V. Phonogram, released as a single on April 3 (Philips). N.V. Phonogram released four albums from the English Nova Series (Decca/Deram): "Made In England" by Bulldog Breed, "Feelin' Free' by Pacific Drift, "A MH2" by Andy Clark & Mick Hutchinson and "In From The Cold" by Ashkan. Famous instrumentalist Toots Thielemans recorded two new tracks for N.V. Phonogram: "Theme From Peyton Place" and "Midnight Cowboy" are both very popular themes in Holland and the record should therefore click with a wide audience.

The response from Dutch discotheque on the Buddy Miles' single "Them Changes" (Mercury) is fantastic. The response will possibly get the record on the Dutch hitparade. Juicy Lucy's "Who Do You Love?" entered the national Dutch charts this week at no. 40 (Vertigo). The group promoted the record on a TV-show several weeks ago.

Four weeks ago CNR records released — as the first company in the world — the single "Lay Down" by Melanie and the Edwin Hawkins Singers. Now this record is number one in the Dutch charts and has even beaten the Beatles' "Let It Be". Talking about Buddah — Melanie, Melanie did three fantastic live-performances in Amsterdam, Rotterdam and The Hague. She also did some radio and a half hour television special, televised by TROS. Melanie and the Edwin Hawkins Singers had the unbelievable opportunity to be in Holland at the same time and of course they gave TV-promotion to their current chartbuster "Lay Down". The happening took place in Willem Duys' "Voor De Vuist Weg" family TV-program. Also the Edwin Hawkins Singers did three concerts in Holland. After their appearance at the Grand Gala Du Disque the singers are the hottest group in Holland. Both of their albums are selling great and CNR is looking forward to have the Edwin Hawkins Singers back in this country.

News from 14-year old CNR singer Heintje keeps coming. With two films in the Dutch cinema's and one hit "Ik Hou Van Holland" (I Love Holland) in the top twenty Heintje is news. This week Heintje's fifth German film "Tomorrow The Sun Will Shine Again" got its premiere. Together with this film a new album will be released. Lou Christie came to our country to present his new single "Love Is Over" in "Doebidoe" teenage TV-program. This special was broadcasted on April 4th. One day before this single was released by CNR Records.

GRT's national sales manager, Ed Labuick, hosted a sizeable press party just prior to Charles Aznavour's appearance at Massey Hall (Toronto). The French giant pulled a capacity house. GRT officially opened their new Montreal branch (16) to be headed up by branch manager Jack Corbett. The firm hosted a giant opening night party at Montreal's top disco, Laugh In with reps from across Canada as well as U.S. execs in attendance. GRT now has a complete network of distributors from coast to coast in Canada. These are: Emerson Sales/Vancouver; Van Dusen/Alberta; A. A. Murphy & Sons/Saskatchewan; Laurel Records/Manitoba; their own factory in London, Ont., a sales office in Toronto, a new factory/office complex underway in Alliston, Ont., their own offices in Montreal; and Canadian Assemblies in Nova Scotia.

Terry Vollum and John deNottbeck, principals in the Music Company, have set Apr. 3 at 8 PM as the date for the recording of a gospel-rock 'message of peace, "People We Love," written by deNottbeck. The recording will be somewhat unique in that industry people and others have been invited to the recording site, St. Paul's Roman Catholic Church, (Toronto) to take part in the taping. Nimbus 9 Productions is also involved in the project through arrangements for the 15 musicians, supplied by Ben McPeek. Film coverage of the session for a half hour television special is expected.

Radio station CKDR-Dryden bowed its first survey and it has been enthusiastically received by Dryden consumers through the two outlets in the area. Peter L. Harding, manager of the station, arranged for "live" all day broadcasting from the town's new record bar, Sounds Of Music, whose opening coincided with the release of the new survey. On-air personalities taking part included, besides Harding, Bob Readings and J. Murray Jones.

As an assist to Canadian broadcasters, London Records' Dave Doucette has put together a catalog of available Canadian content recordings. This list covers recorded music in country, folk, classical, rock and spoken work categories and includes over 5000 selections. London's Ontario promotion manager Ken McFarland has been busy arranging for press, radio and television interviews with Susan and Terry Jacks of the famous Poppy Family. The husband and wife team was in Toronto for a couple of days of promotion and lining up tour dates for when they come back from Osaka, Japan, where they'll be representing Canada at the Canadian Pavilion. Their London disking of "Which Way You Goin' Billy" hit the Cash Box Top 100 and has apparently broken in three of the 14 major U.S. markets. Next single for the Vancouver group is a Terry Jacks penning, "I'm Gonna Capture You," and "A Good Thing Lost". The session was taped at Vancouver's R&D Productions. McFarland reports good provincial action on the Gamma lid, "To Love Means To Be Free," by Montrealer's Anthony Green and Barry Stagg. Gamma's Daniel Lazare reports U.S. leasing of the disk to United Artists. Gamma's top female artist, Pauline Julien, has been awarded the Grand Prix Du Disque for her album, "Suite Quebecoise". The award was presented in Paris Mar. 6.

Richard Glanville-Brown, national artist promotion manager for Capitol Records, teamed up with the label's Quebec branch and presented Glen Campbell to press, radio, and key dealers at a lavish bash in Montreal's Chateau Champlain Hotel. Also present were top jocks from French radio stations within an 80 mile radius of Montreal. Campbell also visited several French and English television stations prior to his near capacity showing at the Montreal Forum. Back in Toronto, Glen Blouin, recently upped to the post of assistant advertising and sales promotion manager for Capitol, was busy taking Donna Ramsay on a tour of radio and television stations after her return from Nashville, where she taped enough sides for an album and single release. Gary Buck, also on the Capitol label, produced. Edward Bear now settling in nicely for national hitdom with their deck, "You Me And Mexico," are also experiencing good bookings across Canada.

Quality's Ontario promotion manager, Mark Robbins, was handed a passel of hit material which included: "Mr. Monday"/Original Caste; "Rock Island Line"/Johnny Cash; and "Cecilia" / Sweet Henry. Harold Winslow, promo super for the label, reports the Quality single release of "My Canada," by Canadian country favorite Doc Williams. Winslow also reports that Quality has picked up exclusive rights for distribution of the Little David label album, "The Devil Made Me Buy This Dress," by Flip Wilson. This LP is to be made available in 8 track and cassette form, and the label is readying an extensive national push on Wilson. 4 selections from the album will be cut onto an EP and sent out to all radio stations and dealers in Canada. Quality's Little Green Bag promotion has turned into a national success. The record was inserted with a drop of perfume into a green vinyl bag which was then inserted into an LP sleeve. A fluorescent sticker reading "You Can't Tell A Book By Its Cover Or A Record By The Bag It's In" was affixed to the sleeve. The Fifth Dimension's first album release for Quality, "Portrait," will be released shortly in a double fold jacket with four panels of color.

Lee Armstrong, executive director for The Compo Company, has launched an all out effort to establish Sebastian as a Canadian success before his newly released Decca lid, "Now That It's Over," becomes a smash in the U.S. The record was first released on the Apex label in October of last year, and Canadian broadcasters turned thumbs down on the Montreal produced single. The Maple Leaf System also turned it down. Armstrong and his A&R director, Ron Dykhof, who produced the single at RCA's Montreal studios, didn't give up and now it could pay off, which could be of some embarrassement to Canadian broadcasters.

Charlie Camilleri, Columbia regional promo mgr (Ontario) reports brisk action on Simon & Garfunkel's single and album, "Bridge Over Troubled Water," and Mark Lindsay's "Arizona" still holding strong. Breakout singles are "But For Love"/Jerry Naylor; "Me Without You"/Billy Joe Royal; "July 12, 1939"/Charlie Rich; "Odds & Ends"/Johnny Mathis; and the Marty Robbins country hit, "My Woman My Woman My Wife," now breaking into the pop charts. Canadian country group, The Mercey Brothers, have shown good form with their lid, "My Song For You".

Chat Medicine Hat personality John Oliver reports a "fantastic and unbelievable concert" by Vancouver's Collectors (7) which pulled a capacity house. Current London release by the group, "I Must Have Been Blind," is one of the top request items at the station. Breakout single at this important Alberta outlet is "Lucifer," by the Bob Seger System.

Story Forest recording artist Richie Havens made a successful appearance in Toronto and followed it up with an appearance on the CTV special, "Gentry One," with host Bobbie Gentry. Sharing the bill were Ian & Sylvia. Ottawa's Meadow group is gaining nationally with their Quality deck, "Oh Darling". The Animals' version of "House Of The Rising Sun," now in Quality's Golden Treasure series, has become a major chart item across Canada. Quality has launched the "Goldie Look Alike Contest" in conjunction with Columbia Pictures. The contest is open to record store clerks, their customers, radio station personnel and their listeners. Barry Keane, A&R rep for Quality, reports solid programmer acceptance of the complete Mike Curb "Songbook Series". Keane, who has weekly raps with college radio reps throughout Upper Canada, lists "Rip It Up," by the Teenage Dance Band and "Oh Darling," by Meadow, both Canadian groups, as scoring well with the college crowd. Radio York is particularly hot on Richie Havens' "Stonehenge" LP as well as "Up With People." Top singles at Radio Varsity are "Declaration"/5th Dimension; "The Rapper"/Jaggerz; and "Love Grows"/Edison Lighthouse.

usual ally in Upper Canada programmers with his all French, English produced (Toronto) session of "Rossignol" a self penning. Quality Records have forged ahead with their Sound Canada produced sessions, the latest being "Oh Darling" written by Meadow member Cris Saunders and produced by Quality's A&R assistant Dave Bleakney. Arc Sound have a couple of locally produced singles (Bay Studios) they are currently touting. "Johnny Peace" by Nucleus and produced by Tony Dimaria has picked up national action as has the Yorkville lid of "Get Back John" by The Inner City Mission. Warner Bros have registered good national play on both sides of the Winnipeg produced Justin Tyme single "Child Of Dawn" and "Julie's Just A Friend".

Country, Too

Canadian country is also being given a shot in the arm with excellent recordings being released by Big Chief, out of Lethbridge, "The Way You Play"/Merv Smith, "Crazy Tricks"/Angus Walker, "Farewell To Nova Scotia"/The Cotter Folk on Melbourne and the Dominion release of "Big Joe Mufferaw" by Stompin' Tom Connors.

In the short time since the proposed 30% Canadian content rulling was made known domestic productions have increased by 25% which is a conservative estimate. All Toronto studios have been booked solid as have those in Montreal, Winnipeg, Edmonton and Vancouver.

COIN MACHINE NEWS

EDITORIAL: Much More Than Selling Machines

A favorite topic of conversation among coin industry people these days is the future of the distributing business. Whether independent or factory owned, many of these machine outlets are finding the financial mustard getting more and more difficult to cut as the years go by. Maybe one essential reason for the present problem is the trade's general view of the distributor simply as a "machine outlet".

The days when the demand for machines exceeded the supply are long gone. While the veteran operator is far happier to be romanced by the machine salesman, rather than the other way around, he just might inherit a whole passel of problems if the pinch continues to tighten, and the day arrive when good old Joe the distributor is replaced by a storefront machine depot run by a couple of factory service mechanics. Will he miss the financial advice and assistance Joe used to offer? Will he miss the chance to pester one of Joe's employees over the phone for everything under the sun? Will he miss that convenient place where he could inspect half the brands of games and tables on the market, all on one showroom floor, and trade or buy used merchandise? You bet!

And to be perfectly honest, before any distributor goes all the way under, he's going to fight like never before to stay his execution. Among other drastic steps he may take is the obvious one — direct selling to locations. It's going on already, right at some of our more "respectable dealerships". Transhipping machines into another dealer's "exclusive" territory is another obvious play going on at many dealers. While this doesn't mean much to the operating business, except a cheaper buying price, it directly affects the solvency of the dealer whose tomatoes are being picked by the guy in the next yard. And there's only one way to replace those tomatoes, isn't there?

When a dealer considers his company nothing more than a "resale store", he's in trouble. Granted, there are a number of machines on today's market which are so much in demand by operators that large back orders exist. But in general, nobody's knocking any dealer's door down to spend money on equipment, and the smart dealer must therefore pull every ploy out of the hat to attract that clientele. How? First by placing the word "service" next to "sales" and then doing something about it.

There are a whole load of services the dealer could offer his customers to stimulate additional business. For starters, he could relax some of the outlandish add-on interest on installment notes. Dealers make money from machine profits, not loans, remember? They could also beef up their service force to meet the growing electrical sophistication of modern music and amusement machines. We wonder how many additional hundreds of machines might be sold if the operator wasn't scared off by the blinding maze of transistors, contacts and whatnot inside the cabinets of some of these new machines. Wouldn't he feel more secure if that backup service advice and help was clearly visible at the distributor of said piece?

On this score, how about more dealer-oriented service classes on new machines. Sure there's factory-sponsored programs now, but wouldn't the operators feel more comfortable meeting in small groups at familiar showrooms being schooled by a familiar service employee?

Many dealers love to preach preventative maintainence to their customers, but it would do well if they'd apply it to their own businesses. Programs must be installed now to insure the patronage of customers in the future ...

MOA Exhib. Meet

CHICAGO — MOA will begin "Expo Seven-O" (the 1970 MOA Music and Amusement Machines Exposition) with exhibitor meetings at the Sherman House Hotel here April 14 and 15.

The purpose of the meetings with exhibitors is to plan one of the MOA's most extensive promotion campaigns ever. Problems reported by exhibitors at the recent MOA board meeting in San Francisco will also be discussed.

Meetings will be held with phonograph exhibitors on the first day and with amusement machine exhibitors on the second. Fred Granger, MOA executive vice president, says that because record companies constitute a separate category of exhibitors, they will be contacted by MOA officials by phone or in person.

MOA president Lou Ptacek, who will chair the meetings, says, "We will cooperate with exhibitors in every way possible to make 'Expo Seven-O' one of the biggest and most successful trade shows we have ever had. Among other things, exhibitors will be asked for their own suggestions for promotion."

Seeburg/NSM Settle

CHICAGO---The Seeburg Corp. of Delaware, NSM Apparatebau GMBH, K.G. and Specialty Sales Corp. of America, a Sub-Distributor of NSM Coin-Operated Phonographs, jointly announced that they have settled the action that had been filed by Seeburg in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois against Specialty Sales Corp. of America alledging that certain coin-operated phonographs, manufactured by NSM and sold by said sub-distributor infringed certain Seeburg patents.

German Associations Elect Leadership

HAMBURG — The North German Operators' Assn., Hamburg, held its annual meeting here March 10 with above-average attendance. The association, like the other German regional operators' groups, is a member of the ZOA, the German central organization which held its annual meeting in Frankfurt March 5.

The main issue at the North German meeting was that group's policy toward the ZOA. Carl-Heinz Wende was re-elected president and Edward Malzer was elected vice president. The new board of directors consists of Heinz Huhne, Erhard Bodi, Max Walden, Manfred Sandig and Lars Skriver, the last-named representing the amusement arcade owners. The new board is expected to follow a policy of cooperation with the ZOA.

The meeting of the ZOA, which comprises ten regional associations in Western Germany and Berlin, was attended by about 2400 operators. The entire board was re-elected, including president Werner Schmidt, vice president Willi Kretzler and Willy Muller, treasurer.

A proposal to repeat "German Automatic Day," which was held in Berlin last September in connection with an "International Coin Machine Exhibition," was discussed. The formation of several committees was also discussed. The committees will be concerned with legal questions on tax matters and amusement arcades.

ZOA members also discussed the two DM pay-out machines. Installed to meet rising operating costs, the machines are attracting considerable play.

50 Million People Expected at Osaka

OSAKA — The opening of the Japan World Exposition, attended by the imperial family, was held at nearby Senri Hills March 14. The inaugural ceremony was attended by dignitaries from the 77 countries which have sponsored exhibits.

An estimated 50 million persons will see Expo '70 during the next six months and as many as 600,000 are expected on weekends. The fair, the first held in the orient, has a basic construction budget of $145 million and a basic management budget of $80 million.

Coin-operated games are located in the "Gameland" amusement center, which is one of the 18 major attractions of the "Expoland" leisure zone. SEGA, which is showing 32 coin-operated games in a special section, was represented at opening day ceremonies by executives Ray Lemaire, John Kano, Shunichi Shiina, Jack Miura and George Tanaka.

Expo '70 guides try out a few of the 32 machines that SEGA is showing in the fair's "Gameland" amusement center.

Gettin' Together

The scene was the welcoming cocktail party held at San Francisco's Mark Hopkins Hotel March 12th, at the start of the 1970 MOA Board of Directors meeting. One of the purposes of the reception was to introduce MOA leaders to local operators. A typical get-together at left finds Glendale, Calif. operator Gabe Orland, a non-MOA member (second from right) chatting with three of MOA's most prominent leaders (l to r) Fred Granger, George Miller and (extreme right) Lou Ptacek.

MIAMCO Chief to N. Y.

NEW YORK — Johnny Johnston, president of the Miamco division of the Vendo Co., will arrive in New York City Thursday, April 8th to attend the National Association of Concessionaires Eastern Convention at the Americana Hotel. A number of the larger concession operators are users of the vending products Miamco distributes. It is expected the Johnston will also be discussing concessionaire use of his Cameron Music System.

"This phonograph is the most flexible on the market," according to the Miamco chief. "It can be programmed for coin or non-coin operated use, its component parts can be installed together or detached and operated as single units, and it plays all speeds in full stereo, offering up to 220 selections."

Hankin Visits Japan

DAVID HANKIN

TOKYO — David Hankin of Australia's A. Hankin & Co. Pty. Ltd. recently completed a round-the-world business trip during which he stopped over in Japan to tour Expo '70 and two SEGA factories in Tokyo. Hankin's firm, which he, his father and brother manage from their Newcastle headquarters, is Australia's largest operating company.

Japan Vending Assn. Holds Mid-March Fair

A mid-March "Vending Machine Fair" sponsored by the Japan Vending Machine Manufacturers Association attracted 30,000 visitors according to JVMA executive secretary Sawatari.

The show was inaugurated at Tokyo's Science & Technology Museum in the presence of officials from the Ministry of International Trade & Industry and the Tobacco Monopoly Bureau.

Highlights of the exhibition were televised over NTV to a nationwide audience. Five seminars covering different categories of machines were held during three days of the Fair.

Several new machines were shown, reflecting the progress of both vending and music and games in Japan. Association officials termed the show an "overwhelming success."

MONY Plans Weekend For 3 Coin Groups

NEW YORK — MONY managing director Ben Chicofsky has found a place in the sun for MONY, New York State Operators Guild and Westchester Operators Guild members and their families.

But Chicofsky cautions members of the three organizations that unless reservations are soon forthcoming for the planned "anniversary Memorial Weekend Party" on Grand Bahama Island, a few may be left out in the cold. The limited reservations are on a first come, first serve basis with a forward deposit of $50 required with the balance payable by April 15.

The weekend, which costs $209 per person, includes round trip transportation, baggage handling, accommodations at the King's Inn and Golf Club in Freeport, breakfast and dinner, a rum swizel party, two evenings of night clubbing, golf with no green fees, tennis, an "anniversary" cocktail party, a farewell luncheon party, gratuities and local taxes.

The weekend will begin with a jet flight from New York on May 28 with the return flight on the 31st. Chicofsky is distributing an attractive brochure to promote the weekend and additional information may be obtained from him at 250 West 57th St., New York, 19, N.Y.

Midway Introduces 'S.A.M.I.' Target Gam

CHICAGO — Midway has blasted into the 1970 arcade picture with "S.A.M.I.," the "surface to air missile interceptor," a single-player target game.

A control handle with a firing button moves the rocket launcher into firing button moves the rocket launcher into firing position. As planes approach within range of the target area, the player can line up the launcher with the targets, sighting them with a target-seeking radar beam in the hit zone. Sounds accompany the firing of missiles and hits are scored.

The area of the hit zone is adjustable by jacks. The first four shots are programmed for easy hits and the next three are automatically programmed for a smaller hit zone. The time of the game is adjustable from one to two minutes in 15-second intervals with an adjustable extended play feature of one minute. When a hit is scored an explosion occurs and the sky around the target is illuminated. If the player scores from seven to 13 hits, depending upon the game's adjustment, he continues to play.

The standard coin entry for "S.A.M.I." is two plays for 25 cents. Included with each game are conversion plates for ten cent and 25 cent play. Two coin entry doors are available on special order.

NAMA Supports Vendors In Court Cas

CHICAGO — Support for vending and food service contractors in connection with bargaining over price increases in industrial locations was lent by NAMA when it filed a "friend of the court" brief in the Fourth U.S. Circuit Court in February.

At issue in the "McCall Case" is whether a corporation must bargain with a labor union over an increase in cafeteria product prices.

In previous action, the National Labor Relations Board ruled in favor of the union's demand, charging the McCall Corporation with an unfair labor practice. The company appealed the ruling to the Fourth U.S. Circuit Court, whereupon the NLRB filed a petition for enforcement of its own ruling.

In its legal brief as amicus curiae (friend of the court), NAMA supported the company's position and asked that the Court set aside the NLRB ruling favoring the union position.

The same Court had ruled against a union's position in 1967 on a similar case which involved the Westinghouse Corporation. The Court's ruling in the present case is expected within a few months.

Findlay Conducts Rock-Ola School In Charlotte

CHICAGO — William Findlay, Rock-Ola's field service manager, recently took his traveling phonograph school to Charlotte, N.C. where he conducted a service school for the customers of Le Stourgeon Distributing Co.

During the school, coverage was given to the electrical and mechanical features of the Rock-Ola "442," 160-selection phonograph and the compact 100-selection "443."

Operators attending were Homer Hicks of Northwest Vending, Roger Keith and Wallace Whaley, Modern Music; Frank Pate, Goldsboro Music; Claude Kuykendall, Kuykendall Music; Bob McGuire and Raymond Weaver, Weaver & McGuire Music; Worth Heath and Jimmy Hayes, A&F Vending, Chuck Webb and Bernie Garcia, Coin Machine Mart; Nelson Leslie, Witt Music; George Kinlaw, Charlie Walters, Franklin Parker and Johnny Jones, Tar Heel Vending; Grady Jordan and Jake Walker, Keels Music; R.C. Synder, Richard Lambert Jr. and James Vess, Snyder Music; Greg Gore, Harmony Music and G.G. Battley and L.E. Dye, Dye Music; Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Anderson, Anderson Music; J.M. Daughety, Tom Waters and Larry Daughety, Daughety Music; Kay Polk Wooten and Jackie Wooten, Wooten Music; William Fisher, Melody Music and Maurice Dabney, Carolina Music.

Wurl. Ops Converge on Atl. City for Class

ATLANTIC CITY — Twenty-nine students, including service technicians and sales personnel, attended the recent Wurlitzer-sponsored five-day service seminar held at the Holiday Inn here.

Seminar hosts were Wurlitzer field service manager C.B. Ross and field service representatives "Hank" Peteet and Harry Gregg. Seminar students were sent by their music operators, who represented eight Wurlitzer distributors — Banner Specialty of Philadelphia, Brady Distributing, Charlotte, N.C.; Cruze Distributing, Charleston, W. Va.; Musical Distributing, Brooklyn, N.Y.; State Sales and Service, Baltimore, Md.; Bilotta Enterprises, Albany, N.Y.; Roth Novelty, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and Wurlitzer Distributing, East Hartford, Conn.

The seminar was concerned with the Wurlitzer "Statesman" phonograph. Ross and instructors Peteet and Gregg removed the chassis from two phonograph cabinets to facilitate study during the lecture-demonstrations. The instructors told their students that it is possible to remove and replace all mechanical and electrical components on location and that it is not necessary to completely remove the "Wurlamatic" record changer from the cabinet.

The horizontal record changer was discussed at length. "The selection accumulator contains a magnetic pin release, simplified adjustment, fewer moving parts and only two coils," Gregg said. He demonstrated the removal of the accumulator by taking out three screws, leaving the unit connected to the machine's electrical system and accessible for servicing.

Miss. & Ala. Ops Elect Vend Assn. Officers

CHICAGO — Officers were elected by vending operators of Mississippi and Alabama at the first joint meeting of the vending associations held during March in Biloxi, Miss.

Herman Carlisle of Special Service, Alexander City was chosen president of the Alabama Automatic Merchandising Council, and the Mississippi Vending Assn. named Herbert Denton, Vend-Foods, Inc., of Tupelo.

Other officers chosen for Alabama were: vice president Orval Anglin, ARA Service of Birmingham; secretary Robert Word, Word Theatres and Vending, Scottsboro and treasurer Stanley Hellman, Cigarette Vending Co., Birmingham.

Elected for three-year terms on the Alabama council board of governors were E. K. Maxwell, Selma Automatic Vending Co., Selma; Ely Williams, Northwest Alabama Vendors, Inc., Fayette and Hellman who was chosen for a second term.

Mississippi's officers are: vice president James Sumrall, Sumrall Vending Service, Bay Springs; secretary Peter Cox, M & F Vending, Greenwood and treasurer, Joe O'Callaghan, Rial Vending Service, Inc., Tupelo.

Tommy Tucker, Vending Services, Inc., Natchez, James Sumrall and Peter Cox were given three-year terms on the board of governors and H. B. Sinquefield of the Vendo Company, Jackson, was elected to a one-year term.

Coin Organ Props Up Army Show

FORT BRAGG — During recent years, emphasis in the coin machine business has been placed on the development of attractive, chromy streamlined machines. But in the "Gay '90's" comedy production, "S.S. Seafoam," performed here last season at the Footlighter Little Theater, prominence was given to a bulky, ornate machine of a bygone era.

A stage prop of a Wurlitzer band organ was employed in the production as a musical instrument that appeared to accompany songs and choreography. Each singer and dancer, before performing a number, simulated dropping a coin into the band organ. The prop immediately began flashing colored light and casting shadows through its translucent windows while a concealed live band played the actual tunes.

The history of the old musical instrument was researched by Don Frye. Design and construction was completed by musician Henry Williams and stage crew members painted and decorated the prop.

The Footlighters Little Theater was formed in 1946 and incorporated as a non-profit organization in 1967. Of the founding members of the original theater, only Ruth Bradbury and Thelma Fetters remain active. The Footlighters' 1970 season runs from May 9 through mid-October.

A stage prop of a "Gay '90's" Wurlitzer band organ is displayed prominently during a non-musical segment of "S. S. Seafoam," a comedy performed last season at Fort Bragg's Footlighters Little Theater.

SEGA Graphics Merchandise Music at Locations

A few of the 25 promotional items suggested by a SEGA operations study group to encourage jukebox play are shown above. The items include leaflets for tables (left) tabs for waiters, imprinted tumblers and napkin holders, clock signs and a list of suggested jukebox plays.

TOKYO — An operations study group met here in mid-March to review and adopt methods for encouraging jukebox play on routes handled through SEGA's 40 branches in Japan.

Participants, under the direction of SEGA operations division director John Kano, discussed four main factors that stimulate jukebox play — imaginative programming calling attention to the phonograph through improved display, lighting, speaker placement, and wall boxes; motivating restaurant employees to suggest that customers play the jukebox and preparing graphic material that will focus attention on the jukebox and its records.

Ako Naito of SEGA's Art Section led the discussion on graphics, presenting drawings or "mock-ups" of 25 promotional items she had designed for possible use on routes.

Many of Miss Naito-san's items for stimulating jukebox play contained promotional phrases. Among the 25 promotional items considered were: Decals and stickers for table-tops, menus, and napkin holders; imprinted napkins and place mats, imprinted drink coasters resembling record labels, imprinted rubber or plastic anti-slip mats for drink trays, imprinted triangular cardboard message cards, imprinted messages on the backs of order checks, imprinted tumblers and dinnerware, imprinted chopstick and toothpick cases, "Record Topics" leaflets for placement on table, plastic swizzle sticks with molded jukebox message, inexpensive salt and pepper shakers in the shape of miniature jukeboxes, buttons and tabs for waiters and waitresses with the message "Ask me for change for the jukebox," clock signs such as "It's jukebox time," and "time to play the jukebox," and slip-on covers for seat backs (bearing a jukebox message.)

Many of the study group's recommendations will be adopted, according to K. Taguchi of SEGA's Operations Division. He said that some promotional items would be on the routes by April.

Heavy Trading At Blackpool Showing

BLACKPOOL — The Ninth Northern Amusement Equipment and Coin-Operated Machine Exhibition was held here at the Gold Mile Centre in February. The exhibition, previously held at the Winter Gardens, was called a "bumper success" by promoter Jack Rose.

Held at the Centre for the first time, the exhibition attracted 75 stands, ten more than last year. The showing was successful in helping some participating firms receive orders. London Coin, for example, reported an equipment order of $24,000 within an hour of the exhibition's opening.

The exhibition was officially opened by the mayor of Blackpool, Alderman Albert Stuart, who told the exhibitors, "This business of yours is the most important to our town. Sometimes when I look around you amaze me that each year you find new features and new machines which leave me gasping. This is a business which will go on and improve and it has the right people behind it to do just that."

Fischer Names Oliver

TIPTON — Richard Stuke, director of marketing of Fischer Mfg. Company, Inc., has announced the appointment of Richard Gregory Oliver as sales representative for the states of Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas. Fischer Mfg. is a producer of home and coin-operated pool tables.

Prior to his appointment with Fischer, Oliver was a salesman for a western distributor, selling coin-operated home tables.

DeHaven Passes Away

CHICAGO — Delmar DeHaven, owner of DeHaven Vending Machine Company in Martinsburg, West Virginia, died on Sunday, March 29, at the age of 52. He had been ill for about a year.

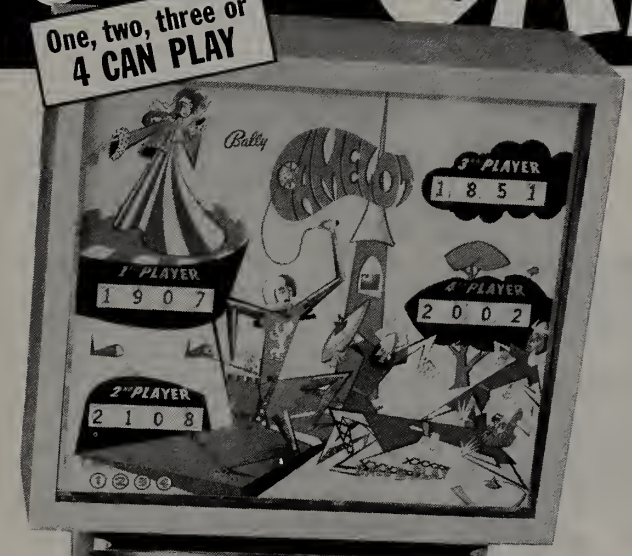
Prior to forming his own company, Mr. DeHaven had been in partnership with fellow operator Jim Hutzler in the firm of Berkeley Coin Cigarette Service, also based in Martinsburg. Mr. DeHaven was a very active member of the Music Operators of America.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday, April 1, from the Brown's Funeral Home at 327 W. King St.

Survivors include the widow Ruth Ann: daughters Mrs. Jean Miller of Orlando, Florida, Debra and Delmonie; two sons D. Ronald and Damon; and several grandchildren.

Bally® CAMELOT

One, two, three or 4 CAN PLAY



TWO NEW WAYS TO SCORE BONUS

(1) Left Kickout Hole scores minimum of 100 or highest lit bonus – 200 – 300 – 400 – 500 – which advance each time ball hits any of 4 Top Rollovers or 3 Side Targets, when lit on mystery basis. Highest lit bonus remains lit until ball enters out hole, giving player opportunity to score bonus again and again with each ball. (2) Right Kickout Hole normally scores 50 but is worth 500, when 10 Times light is lit. Trick is to watch 4 Clue Lights which advance on each 1-point hit. Fifth 1-point hit lights 10 Times light, which remains lit until sixth 1-point hit. Clue cycle then repeats, giving player another crack at 500.

TWO NEW WAYS TO GET FREE BALLS

(1) Free Ball Gate is moved from bottom of playfield to right center edge, adding a new skill dimension. Free Ball scores 300 en route to shooter tip. Gate opens by new type Drop Post, simplified to minimize gate maintenance. (2) Ball shot upward through Extra Ball Alley, when light is lit on mystery basis, scores 300, dives down the score-studded field, returns to shooter tip as Free Ball.

TWO DOZEN WAYS TO BUILD SCORES

From 1-point hits, which also light 10 Times light, to the fat 500 bonus of Left and Right Kickout Holes, two dozen different ways to scores are scattered around the fast action CAMELOT playfield.

World wide operations prove that CAMELOT is among the top games of all times in the 4-player class. Get your share of the CAMELOT cash. Get CAMELOT today.

EASTERN FLASHES

AROUND TOWN — The push is on for reservations at the MONY offices, with the Bahama weekend coming up the end of May. Ben and Sophie hope ops from the three local associations get their deposit checks in as soon as is humanly possible; they need the money to wrap up the airline and the block of rooms at the Kings Inn Resort in Freeport, Grand Bahama. Also doing double duty putting together the famous convention journal, Ben and Sophie are running like a pair of one armed paper hangers these days. Remember lads, it's a first come, first served deal for the Bahama outing and you'd hate to miss out by putting the deposit off till the last moment . . . . Miamco's Johnny Johnston coming to Fun City this Wed.; will confer with Cameron's Jack Gordon and sales vet Artie Brezak on marketing the Cameron jukebox. Jack Gordon himself has returned once again from one of his European sales tours. This time he hit Paris, London and of course Cardiff where the Cameron is manufactured by the A.C.E. people.

ON THE ROAD — A.C.A.'s Mickie Greenman, together with service instructor Cliff Stauffer, are off on a swing through the southern states this week and part of next, to hold a series of technical how-to sessions on the Prestige 160 juke at key operating company offices.

UPSTATE ITEMS — Any tradesters who might have watched TV coverage of the Democratic State Committee's meeting at Grossingers Resort last Wed., and thought they spotted a familiar face counting the ballots for primary nominations for governor, senator, et al, were right. It was NYSCMA prexy Millie McCarthy doing her patriotic thing again. Incidentally, Millie's son Vic was among the many outraged operators who responded vigorously to the by-now famous '60 Minutes' broadcast on jukeboxes and racketeers. Instead of writing them, Vic phoned down from Hurleyville and told a program staffer the next time they do anything on the coin business, to call him for the straight facts on the industry. "I told them if they're going to do anything at all on jukeboxes, they should call the right sources of information instead of going on a preposterous hear-say generality," charged Vic. And speaking of this . . .

A BIT OF FAIR PLAY — We were as surprised as many in the trade to see our letter of complaint read at the end of last Tuesday's edition of '60 Minutes' — surprised because it was read straight out in favor of the national jukebox trade. Although we'd like to see a future segment prepared on the trade as it really is, the '60 Minutes' staff did at least give us a chance to say something nice about operators. We know that a 30 second letter read at the tail of one program can't correct the damage created by their 30 seconds of "jukebox-Mafia" remarks on a preceding program, but we'll take plus-publicity any way we can get it. Thanks to all trade friends who called us to say they saw it. Hope Mr. and Mrs. America got something out of it. One final note — we thought it was appropriate that the Missus was playing pinball in the recreation room when the letter was telecast on our TV and had all we could do to wrench her away mid-game to see our brief moment of coast-to-coast publicity.

FROM FLORIDA — Sol Tabb phoned us the tragic news that Sam Taran's son Barry was killed in a plane crash March 13th en route from Lima to Phoenix, Arizona. Barry was on a small private plane with four other lads when it hit a mountain. All were lost. For what it's worth, our thoughts are with Sam and his family at this sad time and we hope God gives them the courage to bear the anguish in the days ahead. We don't know too much about Barry's past, only that he worked for his dad and also for Eli Ross before he became an attorney. He was only 32 years old . . . We'd also like to express our sincere sympathies to the family of Delmar DeHaven who passed away week before last. See separate story.

HERE AND THERE — Great new electronic game to be released by Allied Leisure next week. Firm's dealers have all seen photos of the item, plus description, and are "extremely anxious to show the production product to their customers," according to ALI sales chief Gene Lipkin . . . Hear that Williams' Expo flipper is doing well at the Japanese Expo '70. Seems players in the SEGA section of the Gameland tent feel that the pin table was created in honor of this giant world's fair . . . Fred Kotek, Lausanne, Switzerland, has been elected a corporate vice president of ARA Services, Inc. Kotek is vice president and general manager of European operations for ARA's Sigma Marketing Systems, and is chairman of Enoch Wedgwood (Tunstall) Ltd., Stoke-on-Trent, England, a Sigma division.

MRS. VAN WYCK DIES — Just learned from Irv Morris at press time that Bucky Van Wycks wife Ruth passed away in Nyaac Tuesday the 28th from an internal hemorrhage. Many in the trade paid their respects to Bucky, sons John and Bob and the rest of their large family at Hanneman's Funeral Home, including Irv, Millie McCarthy, Lou Catanese, Charles Cornell and Bucky's old partner Joe Bosco. Services were held at the funeral home Friday morning at 10:30 A.M. Anyone still wishing to send a token of sympathy may send a contribution in Ruth's name to the Nyaac Community Ambulance Corps., 251 N. Midland Ave., Nyaac, N.Y.

UPPER MID-WEST

Bob Bretz, after three years of retirement is back in the parts department at Lieberman Music Co. Got tired of having too much time on his hands and nothing to do, so is helping out . . . Lou Fine parts man at Lieberman Music Co. is back in the hospital with the same trouble, diabetes. Getting himself regulated . . . Solly Ross is back from his vacation in Miami . . . Jack Godfrey, Chaska, in the cities for the day buying parts and records . . . Glen Charney flew to Las Vegas to meet his wife and son who were on their way back after spending a few weeks in Los Angeles . . . Mr. & Mrs. Dar Holsman in the cities buying equipment . . . David Lieberman flew to Miami for the N.A.R.A convention, also Amos and Danny Heilicher . . . Flip A Card, Gottlieb's new single player is moving as fast as they come in so reports Lieberman Music Co. Lloyd Williamson Jr. in town making the rounds . . . Doc Keintz in the cities making the rounds . . . Lewis Rubenstein, Lewis Music Co. Quebec, in town for a few days on his way to Chicago . . . Mr. & Mrs. Leo Rau and their grandson Phillip in the cities for the day . . . Raoul Gelineau, Two Harbors in town buying equipment . . . Ron Scheuble in the cities for the day buying equipment and buying records and parts . . . Larry Seig in the cities as was Huey May from Eau Claire . . . Roger Sattler who heads the Stephen Dist. Co. at Lieberman Enterprises is winging his way to Tokyo to attend a meeting at the Toshiba Co. . . . Lyle Kesting in town sporting a beard and mustache and he looks like aristocracy . . . Dan Butler, Winnipeg, in the cities on a one day fast trip . . . Gabby Cluseau in town and getting ready for an auto trip next week to California with stop overs in Las Vegas, LaJolla, San Diego, Los Angeles, Sacramento, San Francisco and other points of interest. Will be gone for about a month . . . Glen Lardy in town for the day visiting his parents living in St. Paul.

CHICAGO CHATTER

Although it's been the talk of the trade of late, Midway's new 'SAMI' did not officially go into production until last week. Sample models were on display, however, in distributor showrooms across the country, affording operators the opportunity to see it, play it, and order it. The Midway plant in Schiller Park is currently concentrating on filling all those orders as quickly as possible . . . Here's word from KAMA's secretary-treasure Ron Cazel of a very important association meeting slated April 4-5, at the Star Dust Motel in Eldorado, Kansas. They were to have elected new officers for the coming year. Keynote speaker was MOA's president Lou Ptacek, himself an operator in Manhattan, Kansas (Bird Music). Many other pertinent subjects (i.e. the Williams amendment) were to have been on the agenda and Ron expected at heavy attendance at press time . . . March shaped up as a banner month indeed at Rock-Ola Mfg. Corp., due in no small measure to the wide acceptance of the 442 and 443 phonograph models. Sales totals for both phonos and can vendors reached record proportions for the month . . . Chicago Dynamic Industries exec Avron Gensburg will be departing for Europe in mid-April to attend various overseas coinbiz trade shows. ChiCoin's current lineup of equipment will be on display and, from what Avron guardedly tells us, something new and very exciting will be unveiled at the Hanover Show in Germany. Meanwhile, the factory is enjoying tremendous success with both the Speedway and Super Circus games. An additional limited production run on Super Circus was recently put into effect. Avron also info'd that Robert Sherwood has joined the staff at Chi Coin to head up the export Dept. from this country. Sherwood will be based at the local ChiCoin offices.

Alvin Gottlieb's more than pleased with the trade's acceptance of their current flipper entry 'Flip A Card'. Gottlieb factories have been maintaining full production schedules on this hot item . . . Happy to hear that Evelyn Dalrymple of Lieberman's one stop in Omaha was released from the hospital. Ev will be resting at home for a few days and hopes to be back at work very shortly . . . Big item at Bally Mfg. Corp. is 'Camelot' pinball. Sales manager Paul Calamari and his staff are keeping mighty busy filling those orders coming in from their dealers across the country and overseas . . . Bon Voyage To ChiCoin's Jerry Koci and his wife who are Europe bound on a month's vacation . . . Heavy hitter of the Williams Electronics lineup, according to Bill DeSelm, is the new 'Hit and Run' baseball game, in demand at dealers from coast to coast.

Interstate United Corporation, Chicago, solved the problem of a potential payless Friday for its 10,000 employees spread out over 38 states through an executive courier system, according to Wagner Van Vlack, president. As the mail strike loomed that Wednesday, the last of the company's payroll checks came off the computer. Van Vlack and several key members of his staff decided that the checks could be mailed everywhere but New York, where a returning executive hand-carried the checks on the plane and distribution was arranged through local transportation channels in New York. Since there was a meeting scheduled the following Monday in Chicago at company headquarters for field managers from locations throughout the country, the men were asked to bring along a little extra luggage — a total of 10,000 time sheets and even more results reports from the company's 650 operating centers in the field. Some of the men were asked to make some stops along the way, such as Dallas to Kansas City to St. Louis to Chicago or Buffalo to Cleveland to Chicago, and so on.

MILWAUKEE MENTIONS

Here's another reminder of the approaching April 12 Wisconsin Music Assn.-Milwaukee Coin Machine Operators Assn. joint meeting at the Chalet in West Ellis. WMMC prexy Clint Pierce has been in contact with many operators throughout the state who have expressed deep concern about the main issue on the meeting's agenda — the 4% sales tax on coin machine collections. Clint noted that a surprising number of operators do not fully understand the tax and has arranged for a state representative to be on hand at the meeting to conduct a question and answer session at 2:00 p.m. For further information about the meeting, please contact Clint Pierce or any officer or member of either association.

Understand Midway's newly released "S.A.M.I." is creating quite a bit of excitement at Empire Dist. in Green Bay. The distrib is displaying a sample model and is awaiting the initial shipment from the factory. Bob Rondeau has a batch of orders to be filled!

Business is great at United, Inc. Distrib's sales for the month of March have doubled due in no small measure to increased demands for the Wurlitzer "Statesman". Paul Jacobs tells us the new model will be the subject of a week-long service school, to be held at the Ramada Inn Downtown in Chicago during April 13-17. Operators and service personnel from Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Michigan will attend and the series will be climaxed by a banquet on Thursday evening the 16th, hosted by Wurlitzer for all participants! . . . Incidentally, Paul's confident that by the time this column is in print Milwaukee will have a baseball team. As a matter of fact, he's already purchased season tickets!

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

"S.A.M.I." SURFACES ON COAST . . . Hank Tronick of C.A. Robinson told us that although there've been some successful novelty games during the past few years, none have achieved the impact of Midway's new "S.A.M.I." Hank said, "The sample has hardly been in our showroom and already the first carload is literally spoken for."

We also hear that the arrival of the new Bally single player is forthcoming. It might be one of the season's hottest flippers. Location testing during the past six weeks has indicated its earning power, according to Hank. To take care of the influx of new equipment, Midway has leased a building on Pico Blvd. that will serve as a temporary warehouse and provide several thousand additional square feet of space. Negotiations are in progress for the purchase of the building, which might serve as Midway's new location . . . It finally looks as though the "wandering gypsy" is settling down. Charlie Robinson and lovely wife, Connie, have just moved into their new home overlooking the Pacific in the hills of the Palos Verdes mountains.

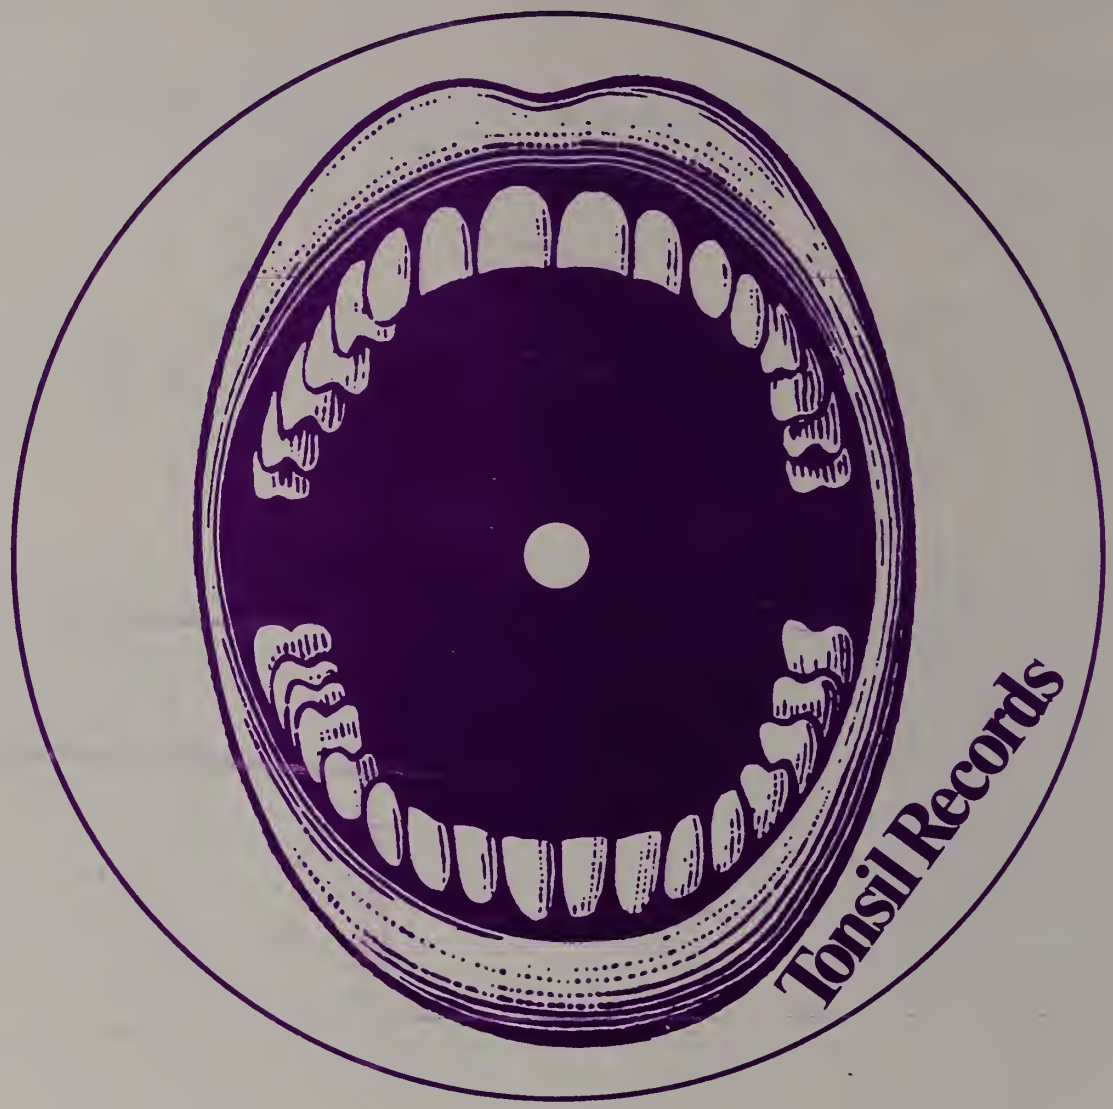
The Rage Of The Age Of Aquarius

Wherever youth gathers to do its thing, the Wurlitzer STATESMAN gets tremendous play. From its modish cabinetry to the way it reproduces its discs, it sends them! Result . . . the STATESMAN is making out with the money good. Make the scene at your top teenage spots. Get a STATESMAN into action fast. Next time you count your blessings, the pumped-up total will prove that you are a real smart operator.

WURLITZER STATESMAN



Tonsil Records just pressed its first single! "I'll Keep It With Mine," performed by Great Jones. (Bob Dylan wrote it.)

Tonsil Records does things right. (Starting with our big-mouth logo.)

1. We signed up Great Jones (led by Jay Traynor, who was the Jay of Jay and the Americans). Not bad.
2. We gave them a scoop; Bob Dylan's "I'll Keep It With Mine." Not bad.
3. We had it produced by Jerry Ragovoy. Not bad.
4. We signed up Great Jones to do the sound track for the new movie, The Sidelong Glances of a Pigeon Kicker. Not bad.
5. They elicited sustained applause at Fillmore East, extreme acclaim at the Rockpile, Toronto, and won over the Electric Factory, Philadelphia. Not bad.

(With our other hand, we signed Asylum, a very very good big jazz rock band. They're belting out their first album right this minute, and we'll release it in May. Right after that, they'll play a summer engagement at the Caribe Hilton, San Juan.)

Good old APA is the faithful booking agent for both groups.

Call Neville Gerson, Tonsil Records, 586-6750, 1700 Broadway, New York City.
